

LEAVING HOME

BBC Radio Lincolnshire in partnership with the University of Lincoln are staging a series of drama performances to mark the 100th anniversary of the Outbreak of WWI. The performances will tell the story of the Beechey family. Five of the eight sons from the family were killed in the war.

We will be recording a radio play at the Blackfriars Arts Centre in Boston on the 14th of July and the Riverhead Theatre in Louth on the 17th of July. If you want to attend, you can get tickets from the box offices at both.

After that we are staging two performances outside at the Arboretum in Lincoln on the 26th of July and at the family's home village Friesthorpe on the 4th August, the anniversary of the outbreak of WWI. Tickets are available from the Lincoln Performing Arts Centre box office for this.
