BBC Somerset – Clash of the County Competition 2018.

Terms and Conditions

1. The competition is open to all residents of the UK, including the Channel Islands and the Isle of Man aged 18 or over except BBC or BBC Group company employees, their close relatives or anyone connected with the competition. Proof of identity and eligibility may be required.

2. The competition will be played Monday to Friday between 0900 and 1200 (except when editorial requirements lead to a change in schedule or a change in programme content).

3. During these times you will be invited to call into the station to enter, following on-air instructions. You can enter by -

   • Calling the number: 0345 303 1566. Standard geographic charges from landlines and mobiles will apply.

Entrants will be asked their name, telephone number and brief information about them (which will include general location). One entrant will be randomly selected to play on-air.

No other method of entry will be accepted. Only one entry is allowed per listener per day.

4. Entry is only open during the times announced on-air. Entries received outside these times will not be registered but you may still be charged for the call. The opening and closing times may change so please listen to announcements during the programme.

5. The personal information you provide (name, telephone number and brief information for all entrants plus full postal address for the winners) will be handled by the BBC in accordance with the BBC’s Privacy and Cookies Policy and the Data Protection Act 1998. We collect this personal information for the purposes of administering the competition, including prize fulfilment. They will not be passed to any third parties without your prior permission. The BBC will make public the names and general locations of those entrants put on air. Your personal details will only be kept for as long as necessary to fulfil these purposes. The BBC will then destroy your personal data. Please feel free to ask questions about what happens to your personal data or let us know if you would like to withdraw your personal data by contacting us at somerset@bbc.co.uk. Withdrawal of personal data during an active competition process will result in your entry being withdrawn from the competition. For more information please see BBC’s Policy here - http://www.bbc.co.uk/usingthebbc/privacy/privacy-policy.

6. The entrant selected to play on air will be asked 10 questions, having 10 seconds to answer each question. Each correct answer is worth 3 points.

7. If the entrant on air answers 3 or more questions correctly they will win the daily prize. All on-air competitors will be added to the week’s leader board, ordered by the number of correct answers given.

8. Entrants must ensure that they are available on the telephone number provided to take the call from the production team. If an entrant is not available after reasonable attempts by the production team, another entrant will be randomly selected from the pool for that day.

9. After the Friday round of the competition (or the last day of the week the competition is running due to editorial, scheduling or other reasons) the person at the top of that week’s leader board will win the weekly prize. If two or more of the on-air competitors jointly top the week’s leader board with the same score, the weekly winner will be selected at random from those individuals.
BBC Somerset – Clash of the County Competition 2018.

Terms and Conditions

10. The daily prize consists of a Simon Parkin mug. The weekly prize consists of a digital radio. The prize is stated. There is no cash alternative and the prize cannot be sold or transferred in any circumstances. The BBC reserves the right to substitute or supplement any element of the prize. The BBC is not responsible for any element or change to the prize that is outside of its control.

11. Entrants must agree to take part in any post-competition publicity if required.

12. Listeners put on air to play the competition cannot re-enter within the same week. Entrants who win the weekly prize cannot re-enter for four weeks.

13. The BBC’s decision as to prizes awarded is final. No correspondence relating to the competition will be entered into.

14. The BBC reserves the right to: (i) amend these terms and conditions, including but not limited to, the competition opening and closing times and the programmes included; (ii) disqualify any entrant who breaches the rules or has acted fraudulently in any way; (iii) prevent putting an entrant on air or take any entrant off-air, and disqualify them from the competition at any time if they display offensive, abusive or any other kind of behaviour unsuitable for broadcast, and (iv) cancel the competition, at any stage, if in its opinion it is deemed necessary or if circumstances arise outside its control.

15. The BBC, its sub-contractors, subsidiaries and/or agencies cannot accept any responsibility whatsoever for any technical failure or malfunction or any other problem which may result in any entry being lost or not properly registered.

16. This competition accords with the BBC’s Code of Conduct for Competitions and Voting, details of which can be found at: BBC Competitions Policy, http://www.bbc.co.uk/editorialguidelines/guidelines/appendix2

17. The promoter of the competition is the British Broadcasting Corporation and the applicable law is the laws of England and Wales.

18. Entrants will be deemed to have accepted these rules and to agree to be bound by them when registering.
