

DOCTOR WHO : THE ADVENTURE GAMES

EPISODE 3 TEASER

"Wish You Were Here"

by

James Moran

24th August 2010

The TARDIS is in mid-flight. Amy absent-mindedly flicks levers and switches, which the Doctor quickly flicks back.

AMY

How about some sightseeing, for once? We always seem to end up in pokey corridors. Getting attacked.

THE DOCTOR

Not always - I just took you to the Arctic Circle, didn't I?

AMY

Yes. Where we ran through pokey corridors, getting attacked.

THE DOCTOR

Hang on, I know where we can go.

The Doctor types co-ordinates into the console. Amy reaches for another lever, but the Doctor pulls her hand away.

THE DOCTOR (CONT'D)

Will you stop doing that??

AMY

You said I should learn how to work this thing!

THE DOCTOR

Not while I'm flying! Right, feast your eyes on this, Pond.

The Doctor runs towards the doors, followed by Amy.

THE DOCTOR (CONT'D)

Smyslov 3. Sunny, warm, with the friendliest locals in the galaxy.

AMY

All right! Now that sounds more--

CUT TO:

They exit the TARDIS, and Amy's voice tails off.

AMY

--like it...

They're in a muddy field, near a dark, ugly building. The sky is overcast. It's pouring with rain.

And twenty heavily-armed, horse-faced aliens are pointing guns at them.

THE DOCTOR
Admittedly, it's been a while since I checked the brochure...

TANIK, the leader, comes striding out of the nearby building. Like the others, he's humanoid, and looks a bit like a horse with tusks. And blimey, he's FURIOUS.

TANIK
You again! Returning to gloat??

The Doctor double-takes, and realises Tanik means him.

THE DOCTOR
Er, hello. Have we met? I'm the Doctor. We seem to have got off on the wrong... hoof.

AMY
Yeah, why the long face?

TANIK
Don't pretend you don't know me - you've only just left! You and your loud friend.

AMY
Hey!

THE DOCTOR
We were here? Just now?

TANIK
First you cause a power failure in my Lexitanium with your craft--

THE DOCTOR
Ah, that's not possible, the TARDIS engines are shielded. Well, mostly. Well, when I get the shielding fixed, which I definitely will do, very soon, I promise.

TANIK
Then you sabotage my missiles--

THE DOCTOR
Right, okay, that does sound like something I would do.

AMY
Doctor, have you met him before?

THE DOCTOR
No. But he remembers you, so at some point in our future, we will have just been here. Will-was be here, in our future-past. Had-will-have-been, actually--

AMY

Brain. Hurting. I get the picture.
Timey wimey, blah blah blah.

THE DOCTOR

Well, exactly. We should go.

A hatch opens on the building, and a massive pulse cannon emerges. Tanik turns to point at it, triumphantly.

TANIK

Oh, you're not going anywhere,
Doctor. First, this pulse cannon will disable your craft. Then,
I'll take you to my deepest,
darkest dungeon, where you will suffer the most agonising--

GUARD

Sir...?

Tanik turns back to see the Doctor and Amy disappearing inside the TARDIS. The engines start up.

TANIK

Wait! No! Open fire! OPEN FIRE!

The pulse cannon fires a laser blast, hitting the TARDIS.

The lights flicker, then go back to normal, as the TARDIS dematerialises. The Doctor pats the console, smiling.

THE DOCTOR

That was a close one. Suppose we'll have to come back sometime and sabotage his missiles, for some reason. But not right now -
I promised you some sightseeing.

AMY

Are you capable of going on holiday without something exploding?

THE DOCTOR

Of course! Where shall we go?
Hey, maybe I'll try ancient Rome again - third time lucky, surely.

AMY

I'm just glad we got away in one piece. You're jinxed!

CUT TO:

4 EXT. TARDIS - THE VORTEX

As the TARDIS flies, smoke starts to leak from the roof...
