Have you ever... taken something back to the market?

Show:
market, market stall, clock, watch, money, five pounds, broken

Play film 1 and repeat the words
Extra word: different

Ask
Where do you like to go shopping?
Do you go to the market?
What are the good things about markets?
What are the bad things?

Play film 2

Ask
What does Ayesha buy?
[A clock.]
How much is it?
[£10.]
What’s the problem?
[It doesn’t work / It goes backwards.]

Play film 2 again

Pause and discuss

Ask
What should she do?
What could she say in English?
Would you buy a clock at the market? (Why/Why not?)
Play film 3

Ask
What did Ayesha say to the trader first?
[Excuse me. This clock doesn’t work.]
What did the trader want to give her?
[A different clock.]
What did Ayesha want?
[Her money back.]

Play film 3 again

Pause and discuss

Play audio and repeat the phrases
How much is this clock?
How much is this watch?
How much are these shoes?
This clock doesn’t work.
This watch doesn’t work.
This T-shirt doesn’t work.
Can I have my money back?
Can I have another one?
Can I have a new one?

Ask
Have you taken things back to the shop or market? (What? When? What happened?)
Where can you buy nice things for your home?
Do you always keep receipts? (Why / Why not?)
Is there a good market where you live? (Tell us about it.)
How are British markets different to markets in other countries?

Ask and check
Can you now …
• use some new words to do with shopping?
• ask how much things cost?
• say what’s wrong with something you have bought?

Extra

Acting

Card game

Draw
Draw other shopping words e.g. rug, jacket, mixer, kettle, radio, smartphone, trousers, pushchair, scooter, picture, camera, DVD player