Language quiz

Now let’s practise what you learned in the lesson!

Part one: You need to put ‘should’, ‘shall’ or ‘ought to’ into the gaps in the sentences. Two answers are possible in each question.

Here’s an example to help you:

My tooth really hurts. ______ I go to the dentist?

My tooth really hurts. Should/Shall I go to the dentist?

1. I’m not sure I like my haircut, ______ I cut it?

2. If you don’t like him, you really ______ break up with him.

3. Where ______ I go when I visit Paris?

Part two: Next, you need to put ‘If I were you’, ‘How/What about’ or ‘Why don’t you’ into the gaps in the sentences.

1. ______ try tying your hair up first, so you can see if you like it short?

2. I would dump him ______.

3. ______ eating dark chocolate instead of milk, it’s healthier.

4. ______ visiting the Louvre when you go to Paris?
Well done! Now you can check your answers at the bottom of the next page.

Writing and speaking practice

Now practise writing and speaking with someone you live with.

Using ‘should + verb 1’ or ‘If I were you, I would + verb 1’, ‘How about + gerund’ or ‘Why don’t you + verb 1?’ give advice on the following situations:

a) It’s raining outside and your friend doesn’t want to get wet
b) Your friend is really tired and needs to be up early
c) Your friend’s tooth really hurts
d) Your friend’s health is bad, and she smokes a lot

For example:

a) If I were you, I would take an umbrella.
