

There are reports of more boats filled with migrants from Myanmar and Bangladesh heading towards Indonesia.

Jakarta's warned that it's running out of resources to care for the large numbers who have already arrived in recent days.

Fishermen in the Indonesian port of Langsa have told the BBC that they've been warned by officials not to rescue migrants even if they're drowning.

Vocabulary

migrants

people who travel from one country to another to find work or safety

resources

(here) money, equipment and people

drowning

dying because they are underwater and can't breathe

Choose the correct summary

- a) Fishermen in Indonesia are asking for more resources to help rescue drowning migrants.
- b) Many migrants are heading for Indonesia but fishermen there say they have been told not to help them if they get into trouble.
- c) Migrants from Myanmar and Bangladesh are drowning and the Indonesian government want fishermen to save them.

Answer

b) Many migrants are heading for Indonesia but fishermen there say they have been told not to help them if they get into trouble.

To hear this bulletin, visit <http://bbc.in/1F1o8GI>