

The head of world football's governing body Fifa has held talks with senior officials ahead of a planned meeting on Monday, at which a date is expected to be set for a leadership election.

Sepp Blatter announced last month that he would step down weeks after the dramatic arrests in Zurich in early May of senior members of the organisation.

Vocabulary

governing body

the group of people who control an organisation

leadership election

a vote to decide who will be the head of an organisation

step down

leave an important position in an organisation

Choose the correct summary

- a) Fifa has held an election to choose its new leader.
- b) The Fifa president Sepp Blatter has announced his resignation.
- c) Fifa will decide a date for the election of their new leader.

Answer

- c) Fifa will decide a date for the election of their new leader.

To hear this bulletin, visit <http://bbc.in/IHLbCdI>