

There's been an outbreak of gunfire in the city of Ferguson in the US state of Missouri towards the end of a rally to remember an unarmed black teenager, shot dead by a white policeman a year ago.

Two people were shot in an exchange of fire. One person was seriously wounded.

Vocabulary

outbreak

sudden and unexpected start

rally

large gathering of people who want to support or protest against something

exchange of fire

situation where people shoot at each other with guns

Choose the correct summary

- a) An unarmed black teenager has been shot dead at a rally in the US state of Missouri.
- b) Two people have been killed after shooting at each other during a rally in the US state of Missouri.
- c) People have started shooting guns at a rally in the US state of Missouri.

Answer

- c) People have started shooting guns at a rally in the US state of Missouri.

To hear this bulletin, visit bbc.co.uk/learningenglish/english/features/news-report