The World Health Organisation is due to publish a report today on whether some kinds of meat can increase the risk of cancer.

The WHO's agency for research on cancer has been reviewing evidence on red and processed meats.

Vocabulary

the risk of the possibility of something happening, usually bad agency

an organisation providing a particular service processed meat

meat which has been treated to make it last longer or change its taste

Choose the correct summary of this story

a) The World Health Organisation has published a report about red meat and cancer.
b) The World Health Organisation has published a report which says red meat causes cancer.
c) The World Health Organisation will publish a report on research about red meat and cancer.
Answer
  c) The World Health Organisation will publish a report on research about red meat and cancer

To hear this bulletin, visit bbc.co.uk/learningenglish/english/features/news-report