

The Belgian capital Brussels remains on high alert for possible attacks with most facilities shut for a third day running and soldiers patrolling the streets.

Police are still hunting several suspects, including Salah Abdeslam, who's thought to have been involved in the Paris attacks.

Sixteen people were arrested on Sunday night.

Vocabulary

on high alert

expecting and being prepared for a bad event

patrolling

moving around an area checking for danger

suspects

people who the police think could be responsible for a crime

Choose the correct summary of this story

- a) The authorities in Belgium are certain that a terrorist attack will happen.
- b) The authorities in Belgium are expecting a terrorist attack.
- c) The police are looking for people who committed a terrorist attack in Belgium.

Answer

- b) The authorities in Belgium are expecting a terrorist attack.

To hear this bulletin, visit bbc.co.uk/learningenglish/english/features/news-report