Demolition teams are due to return to the French port of Calais shortly to dismantle more makeshift shelters in the migrant camp known as the 'Jungle'.

During the night there were clashes between police and migrants trying to reach Britain.

Vocabulary

demolition

destruction of a building

dismantle

take something apart so it no longer functions makeshift

temporary and of poor quality

Choose the correct summary of this story

a) Authorities are coming back to Calais to continue the work of destroying migrants' temporary homes.

b) Authorities are coming to Calais to begin the work of destroying migrants' temporary homes.

c) Authorities are planning to destroy homes in Calais which are too close to the jungle.
Answer
   a) Authorities are coming back to Calais to continue the work of destroying migrants' temporary homes.

To hear this bulletin, visit bbc.co.uk/learningenglish/english/features/news-report