

The US Justice Department says the FBI may have found a way to unlock the mobile phone of the San Bernardino gunman Syed Rizwan Farook, and has won a postponement of its court case against the manufacturer Apple.

The department had wanted to force Apple to unlock the phone to help the investigation.

Vocabulary

unlock

(here) enter the correct password to open a mobile phone

postponement

decision to delay something

manufacturer

company that makes products in large quantities

Choose the correct summary of this story

- a) The FBI might no longer need Apple's help to unlock a gunman's phone.
- b) The FBI has decided to take Apple to court to force them to help to unlock a gunman's phone.
- c) Apple has agreed to help the FBI in an investigation.

Answer

- a) The FBI might no longer need Apple's help to unlock a gunman's phone.

To hear this bulletin, visit bbc.co.uk/learningenglish/english/features/news-report