Tim

Welcome back. It's Day 4 of '5 days to become a better listener'! Did you enjoy Bad Dates? How did Amanda describe Daniel?

- She said he was nice, attractive, charismatic, genuine - and that they had a lot in common, or lots of common ground.

Tim's Tip

Storytelling is a great way to improve your listening. You become used to the rhythms of spoken English, get gripped by the story, and pick up lots of useful vocabulary.

Tim's Day 4 task

Write down the sentences I dictated in my video. Listen to Frankenstein, and then put the sentences into the order they appear in the story. Don't use the subtitles! Come back on Day 5 to check if you were right.
