Language quiz
Can you put the proverbs from the box into the spaces below? The first one has been done for you in the example below.

Example
We can’t have too many people making a poster for our class project. You know what they say, ______!

Answer
We can’t have too many people making a poster for our class project. You know what they say, too many cooks spoil the broth!

1. I sometimes think it’d be better to live in the countryside instead of the city. I suppose ______!

2. It’s great that you’ve got an interview, but you shouldn’t quit your job just yet. ______.

3. I know you wanted to go to the concert, but the doors closed at six, so we’ve missed it. ______.

4. Yes, he shouldn’t have done that, but that’s no excuse for what you did. ______.

Well done! Now you can check your answers at the bottom of the next page.
Writing practice

Include one of the proverbs from the lesson in a short dialogue between two people.

Example

A: Mark seems a bit quiet and shy. I can't imagine him singing in a rock band.
B: Don't judge a book by its cover. Mark is very confident on stage!

Answers to exercise on page 1

1. I sometimes think it'd be better to live in the countryside instead of the city. I suppose the grass is always greener!

2. It's great that you've got an interview, but you shouldn't quit your job just yet. Don't count your chickens before they've hatched.

3. I know you wanted to go to the concert, but the doors closed at six, so we've missed it. There's no use crying over spilt milk.

4. Yes, he shouldn't have done that, but that's no excuse for what you did. Two wrongs don't make a right.
