Quiz Rules

1. The quizzes are open to all listeners with a connection to Nottinghamshire (except BBC employees or employees of an affiliate and anyone connected with the competition). If you are under 16 the BBC reserves the right to check permission to enter with your parent or guardian.
2. Entry to the competition is by applying to BBC Radio Nottinghamshire at radio.nottingham@bbc.co.uk. The Editor reserves the right to reject an application to take part based on suitability. Please be aware that sending personal data by email may not be secure as email messages can be intercepted.
3. There will be two quizzes– one in the breakfast programme and one in the mid-morning programme (except where editorial requirements lead to a change in schedule or a change in programme content). Selected entrants will play alone, answering as many questions as possible. The entrant with the highest score will go onto play in the next round of the quiz in the same programme. In the event of a tie there will be a tie-breaker contingency.
4. If the entrant is unable to be contacted, the BBC reserves the right to move onto another entrant to play the on-air quiz. The BBC's decision as to winner is final. No correspondence relating to the competition will be entered into. Entrants must agree to take part in any post-quiz publicity.
5. The BBC reserves the right to cancel or alter or amend the quizzes at any stage, if deemed necessary in its opinion, or if circumstances arise outside of its control.
6. The BBC reserves the right to disqualify any entrant who breaches the rules, has acted fraudulently in any way or who has brought the BBC into disrepute.
7. These Rules are governed by the laws of England and Wales. Entrants will be deemed to have accepted these rules and to agree to be bound by them when registering.
8. The BBC, their sub-contractors, subsidiaries and/or agencies cannot accept any responsibility whatsoever for any technical failure or malfunction or any other problem which may result in any entry not being properly registered.
