Wallace and Gromit: A Close Shave

INT. stands for INTERIOR, which means the scene is inside. EXT. stands for EXTERIOR, which means the scene is outside. Next to it is the name of the place where the scene happens and next to this is the time at which the scene takes place, for example DAY or NIGHT.

INT.  DINING ROOM.      DAY.
WALLACE
Hello? Wallace and Gromit’s wash ‘n’ go window cleaning service! May we be of assistance?

Gromit listening to the voice on the loudspeaker - a woman’s voice faltering and nervous...

WENDOLENE’S VOICE
Hello? Yes, my windows could do with a jolly good clean. The Wool Shop in the High Street. Soon as you can!

Wallace gives Gromit a thumbs-up sign and
Gromit goes to a lever.
He pulls it down.
We hear the whooping emergency claxon!!!!!!!

WALLACE
On our way madam!

But Wallace is already rising into the air.
INT. DINING ROOM. DAY.
To suitably exciting music Wallace’s chair slides back towards the wall leaving the lamb awe struck by the proceedings.

Wallace’s chair rises majestically up to the ceiling where a flap opens - and WALLACE is tipped into the opening.

INT. HOLLOW BEHIND WALLS. DAY.
A hollow behind the walls of number 62. Wallace slithers down a slider - head first - and connects with a waiting cushion. Then the slide tips the other way and he drops into a pair of wellington boots.

The slide tips again and Wallace slides head first, connecting with a crash helmet. Wallace is flipped over towards a waiting bucket and sponge before dropping into a pair of overalls.

Then on down into...

INT. WINDOW CLEANING LAUNCH AREA. DAY.
Wallace arrives at the launch area and is stopped by a bungee and then plonked on the seat of a motor cycle combination.

Then -

The floor starts to rise on a huge jack. The motorbike, with Wallace revving away, arrives in the garage ready for the doors to open. He jumps into the sidecar.
The garage doors begin to slide open in front of them.
A rod comes out from the side wall with a boot on it - this kick starts the bike.
A ladder comes down and fixes itself to the sidecar.
Wallace revs the engine and... WINDOW CLEANERS ARE GO!
