Answers

Level A

1. True or false: It's cheating to get someone else to check your work for mistakes.

   The correct answer is: B. False. Getting someone else to look over your writing is a good idea. Other methods include using the spellchecker on a computer and reading your work silently to yourself.

2. Homophones often cause problems for writers. Which of these pairs of words are NOT homophones?

   The correct answer is: C. start/begin. 'Start' and 'begin' have similar meanings but don't sound the same.

3. It is easy to leave out silent letters in words because you don't hear them clearly. Which of these words contains a silent letter?

   The correct answer is: C. The word receipt has a silent 'p' in it, so take particular care when spelling this word.

4. What is the name for an ending such as '-ly' or '-ing' that can be added to a root word?

   The correct answer is: A. '-ing' and '-ly' are two examples of suffixes or endings that can be added on to root words, to create new words. Take care when adding suffixes because the spelling of the original word may change.

5. Which word is missing from the last sentence of these instructions?

   The correct answer is: B. 'minutes' because it tells you how long to bake the muffins for.

6. What punctuation is missing from the last sentence?

   The correct answer is: C. The last sentence is hard to understand because there are no commas.

7. What is wrong with this text?
   The correct answer is: B. There are no capital letters for the names of teams and the players.

8. Can you spot a mistake in the newspaper report below?
   The correct answer is: D. The writer uses two different spellings for the supermarket name (Bestco and Bestko).

9. "I'm no good at spotting my own mistakes, so what can I do?"
   The correct answer is: D. Try a variety of ways, then choose the method that works best for you.

10. Only people with spelling problems need to proofread their work.
    The correct answer is: B. False. Proofreading is an important stage to go through for every writer. It's not just about checking for spelling mistakes, but also making sure your writing makes good sense, that the punctuation is correct and no words are missing.
Proofreading and editing quiz

Level B

1. Which of these should you look for when proofreading?
   The correct answer is: D. all of the above

   When proofreading you need to look not just for spelling mistakes, but for capital letters that are missing or in the wrong place, words that have been left out, mistakes in grammar and writing that doesn't make sense. It’s also a good idea to check that factual information (such as names, addresses and phone numbers) are correct.

2. This piece of text has been checked with a computer spellchecker. Which mistake has not been picked up?
   The correct answer is: B. The writer has used the wrong spelling for bean. The correct spelling is 'been', the past tense of the verb 'to be'.

3. Can you spot a mistake in the first sentence of this report?
   The correct answer is: D. The verb in this sentence should read 'were', not 'was', because the subject (residents) is plural.

4. What is wrong with this advert?
   The correct answer is: B. The first 3 sentences are questions and need question marks. Questions are often used in this way in advertisements to get the attention of the reader.

5. Can you spot the mistake in this notice from the local Council?
   The correct answer is: C. The notice should read 9.30 ‘a.m.’ not ‘p.m.’
