

BBC Children in Need Grant Funded Projects Scotland

As at November 2017

3D Drumchapel	City of Glasgow	This project will provide a wide range of activities for 210 children and young people aged 0-18 in Drumchapel, Glasgow. It will increase confidence, improve health and supports participants to achieve their goals.	£85,481
8th Paisley Boys' Brigade Company	Renfrewshire	This project will provide a two night residential at Lendrick Muir for children from the West End of Paisley, Renfrewshire. They will have fun, learn new things, make friends, be healthier and have increased expectations of themselves.	£2,863
Aberlour Child Care Trust	Stirling	The Options Adventures project will take disabled children on outdoor activities trips and residentials. They will have fun, make friends, be supported to achieve personal goals and improve independence, social skills and confidence.	£28,110
Above Adventure	East Ayrshire	This project will work with a range of young people disadvantaged by disability, mental health, NEET, young carers or living in an area of deprivation. They will provide climbing lessons on a mobile tower to increase fitness, well being and self belief.	£30,000
Adventures Unlimited Scotland CIC	Highland	This project will deliver outdoor activity weekends for young people with disabilities including physical, emotional and learning who live in the highlands. The residentials will help young people to feel confident, learn new skills and make new friends.	£30,000
Advocacy Service Aberdeen	City of Aberdeen	This project will help children and young people with a variety of additional support needs, disabilities or other challenges in their lives. It will help them articulate their needs, express their opinions and participate in decisions that affect them.	£94,817
Advocacy Western Isles	Western Isles	This project will provide a one to one advocacy service for disadvantaged children and young people across the Western Isles. It will improve confidence, develop communication and support young people to make decisions and express their views.	£106,265
Angus Carers Association	Angus	Sports and activity sessions for disabled children and their families in Arbroath and Forfar. They will have fun along with other children and siblings, make friends and be more confident.	£29,800

Angus Carers Association	Angus	Young carers in Angus will receive group and one-to-one support, providing respite and fun activities, as well as some training. They will be happier, more confident, less isolated and feel valued.	£102,566
Angus Special Playscheme	Angus	A holiday playscheme for children with autism and other additional support needs who may have challenging behaviour, providing activities and trips. They will make friends, have fun, feel more included, be more independent and improve their self-esteem.	£41,664
ANYISO	City of Glasgow	142 children BME children from Knightswood in Glasgow will access sports, arts and crafts activities. They will have a healthier lifestyle, take part in positive and fun activities and gain life skills to improve self-esteem.	£9,920
Arran Youth Foundations	North Ayrshire	This project runs youth activities including drop-ins, a youth forum, film-making, cooking and sports, for young people living in an isolated rural area. They will be more confident, develop leadership skills and increase aspirations for the future.	£10,000
Arthritis Care	City of Glasgow	This project will provide information, support, workshops, trips and creative activities for children and young people with arthritis from across Scotland. They will be more confident, less isolated, build friendships and raise their aspirations.	£97,941
Avenue Confidential	Aberdeenshire	Counselling sessions to help children and young people who have been affected by family breakdowns. They will feel happier, calmer and more confident, more able to deal with their feelings and reduce anger, and improve family relationships.	£48,408
Ayr United Football Academy	South Ayrshire	This grant will establish a football team for disabled children and young people in South Ayrshire, supporting them to improve health, increase confidence and have fun with friends.	£101,760
Ayrshire Communities education and Sport	North Ayrshire	100 children and young people from Kilwinning will take part in a six week programme of activities during the summer, including outings and educational visits. Participants will have a safe space to have fun, make new friends and improve social skills.	£10,000
Ayrshire Hospice	North Ayrshire	To provide regular play therapy sessions for 144 children and young people from across Ayrshire affected by bereavement in their close family. It will increase their self-esteem, reduce isolation and increase resilience.	£100,785

Balintore &amp; District Residents Group	Highland	This one year grant will pay for a trip to Landmark Adventure Park for 80 young people from Balintore Village in the rural highlands of Scotland. They will have fun, build friendships and reduce isolation.	£1,700
Baltic Street Adventure Playground	City of Glasgow	This adventure playground helps children and young people experiencing disadvantage in Dalmarnock, Glasgow, by running physical and learning activities and play sessions that promote social inclusion, improved physical health mental well-being.	£81,809
Barnardo's	East Ayrshire	This project will provide early support to children and young people at risk of alcohol misuse. A mixture of one to one support and group activities will help them improve resilience, increase their knowledge and reduce risky or harmful behaviour.	£91,356
Befriend A Child Scheme Aberdeen	City of Aberdeen	A school holiday playscheme for children and young people who may have a difficult home life or are affected by other challenging circumstances. They will have fun, build friendships with other young people and trusted adults, and be more confident.	£9,399
Befrienders - Argyll &amp; Bute Childrens Befriending Scheme	Argyll and Bute	This project will help and support young people facing a variety of challenges by providing a trained volunteer befriender. This will help them to be more confident, increase engagement with education and improve relationships with families.	£129,876
Bellsbank Project	East Ayrshire	This project will provide crèche services for 40 children per year aged 0-9 in Bellsbank, East Ayrshire. It will create healthy lifestyles, increase confidence and broaden horizons.	£99,078
Bethany Christian Trust	Stirling	Play therapy sessions for children facing issues such as trauma, emotional distress, bereavement, domestic violence and family break-ups. Children will be happier, more confident, have better relationships and feel more positive about themselves.	£10,000
Blue Sky Autism Project	Stirling	Small weekly social groups for very young autistic children. Playing together and structured teaching will help them learn how to make friends, improve social skills, lessen anxiety, and be more confident.	£29,760
Boomerang Community Centre	City of Dundee	Youth clubs and activities for children and young people living in an area with many disadvantages. They will have fun, be more confident, be supported to achieve their goals, feel part of their community and take part in positive activities.	£142,398

Bridges Project	East Lothian	This project will provide individual, therapeutic and group work to increase the emotional well being and life skills of young people affected by challenging circumstances and distress, starting to cause behavioural issues.	£104,458
Bright Sparks Playgroups	Mid Lothian	Out of school and weekend groups and holiday playscheme, running activities and trips for children with a variety of disabilities and complex needs. They will have fun, make friends, develop their social skills and learn and experience new things.	£128,280
Brittle Bone Society	All Scotland	This project helps children from all over the UK who have Brittle Bone disease. It provides information, advice and support, plus fun and get-togethers in their Cool Bones programme, to help them improve their health and wellbeing and make friends.	£63,785
Broomhouse Centre	City of Edinburgh	Drop-in groups, activities, outings, residential trips and individual support for young carers living in South West Edinburgh. They will feel less isolated and better able to cope with their caring role, make friends and have fun.	£84,935
Broomhouse Centre	City of Edinburgh	A mentoring service for children and young people living in an area with multiple challenges and who may be affected by chaotic families. Individual support from volunteers will help them manage mental health, be more confident feel less isolated.	£30,000
Broxburn United Sports Club	West Lothian	This project will run a variety of targeted sports and healthy activities for children and young people in an area of deprivation, including some who are disabled. They will be healthier, happier, more confident and have improved future opportunities.	£84,749
Butterfly Trust	All Scotland	One to one befriending and family support for children and young people who have Cystic Fibrosis. They will have a better home environment, be healthier, have increased confidence and sense of purpose, and a more positive view of their future.	£86,302
Caithness KLICS	Highland	Support for young carers living in Caithness, often in remote rural areas. Drop-in sessions, one to one support and trips and activities will help them spend time with friends and improve social skills, be more confident and have better mental well-being.	£114,076
Calman Trust Ltd	Highland	This project will work with 168 young people at risk of homelessness in Inverness by supporting them to develop a	£128,575

		wide range of skills to maintain independent living. It will help create positive relationships, improve wellbeing and support employability.
Carers Befriending Project (Falkirk &amp; Clackmannanshire)	Falkirk	One to one and group support for young adult carers. Individually tailored support will help them to take part in developing their own support plans, reduce anxiety and stress, get the opportunity to achieve meaningful participation and influence change.	£9,837
Carers Forum Stirling Area	Stirling	105 young carers will go on residential trips with their peers split by age: the older group will go on a city break and the younger group participate in a structured sports trip. The fun trips will increase self-esteem, well-being and reduce isolation.	£30,000
Centrestage Communities Ltd	North Ayrshire	This project will create opportunities for children and young people with a range of additional support needs and learning disabilities to be involved in performing and creative arts. It will increase confidence, life skills and promote volunteering.	£102,062
Chalmers Ardler Trust Child &amp; Family Project	City of Dundee	This project will run activity groups for pre-school children and their young parents in a disadvantaged area. The children will get the chance to have fun, play with others, get ready for nursery by developing social skills and bond with their parents.	£35,700
Children's Hospice Association Scotland (CHAS)	West Dunbartonshire	This three year project will support an activities programme for children with life limiting conditions and siblings by providing stimulating, and fun experiences that will encourage development, assist communication, expression and enhance their lives.	£112,400
Church of the Nazarene	North Ayrshire	60 children from low income families in Stevenson and Ardrossan will receive breakfast and lunch at a playscheme delivered five days a week over the school holidays. They will have access to free and nutritious meals while having fun with friends.	£87,254
Citizen's Theatre	City of Glasgow	This project will provide a weekly theatre group and intensive summer programme for 15 learning disabled young people aged 14-18. It will reduce isolation, increase confidence and improve communication skills.	£55,107

Clyde FC Community Foundation	North Lanarkshire	A sports club for disabled young people in North Lanarkshire, providing activities such as football, tennis and cycling sessions. The children will have fun, participate in new sports, gain confidence and improve their social skills.	£10,000
Clyde Powerchair Football Club	North Lanarkshire	This project will provide specialist wheelchairs so that children and young people can take part in powerchair football. They will have fun, be more active, be able to spend time with friends and increase their self-esteem.	£25,000
Colston Milton Parish Church (arts project)	City of Glasgow	A weekly music project for children living in an area with multiple challenges and few opportunities. They will learn to play instruments and create music, while developing confidence, making friends and raising aspirations for their futures.	£9,680
Committed to Ending Abuse (CEA) Ltd	Falkirk	This project will offer advocacy support for 105 children and young people affected by domestic abuse. Participants will be safer, more resilient and have improved futures.	£106,320
Community Central Halls	City of Glasgow	270 children and young people from across North West Glasgow will engage with mentoring, personal development, group work and holiday activities to broaden their horizons, increase their self-belief and improve their health.	£66,689
Community House	Clackmannanshire	This project runs after-school clubs, activities and holiday activities for young people living in an area with high unemployment and many challenges. They will learn new skills, be happier, more confident and resilient, and build strong relationships.	£153,976
Connect Berwickshire Youth Project	Borders	The project will support employability and intergenerational activities for 105 young people in Eyemouth by upcycling six mopeds and facilitating sessions in the community cafe. It will enhance personal development, confidence and life chances.	£68,896
Cottage Family Centre	Fife	This project will provide a therapeutic and counselling service to children experiencing challenging family and social situations. They will be happier and more confident, and improve their family relationships and aspirations for the future.	£91,089
Covey (Community Volunteers Enabling You)	South Lanarkshire	This befriending project will help teenagers with learning disabilities and autism to have fun and improve their confidence and communication skills. They will take part in weekly activities including bowling, cinema and going out for meals.	£73,708

Craigend Community Youth Group	City of Glasgow	Weekly table-tennis sessions for children and young people living in an area of economic and social challenges. They will have fun, be more active, healthier and more confident, make friends and improve their social skills.	£6,420
Craigmillar Literacy Trust/Craigmillar Books For Babies	City of Edinburgh	Group activities and home visits to help very young children with additional needs and their families using reading, books and songs. Their speech and language will improve, they will be happier and more ready to start nursery.	£99,700
Cranhill Arts Project	City of Glasgow	The project will deliver digital photography, IT skills, and arts and crafts workshops two evenings a week for 240 children in Cranhill, Glasgow. It will increase confidence, provide better communication skills and encourage self-expression.	£21,600
Creetown Initiative	Dumfries and Galloway	This project will provide a wide range of youth work activities for young people living in rural isolated locations in Dumfries and Galloway. It will increase self-belief, support social development and learn new skills.	£77,634
CrossReach	City of Glasgow	Therapeutic play sessions for children who have a parent in prison, to take place during prison visits. Children will feel less stressed and more confident, have happier visits, and improve relationships with their families.	£51,673
Crossroads Youth &amp; Community Association	City of Glasgow	This project will deliver a range of youth work activities for 75 young people each week, complemented by residential experiences. Delivering in Gorbals, Glasgow, the project will increase confidence, improve health and develop life skills.	£103,855
Cyrenians	City of Edinburgh	This project will help young people, mainly living in kinship care, to resolve family conflicts. Young people will be happier and more confident, improve communication and conflict resolution skills, and improve relationships with their families.	£85,004
Dads Rock	City of Edinburgh	A day trip for a group of primary-school age children and their dads who live in an area with multiple challenges. Children will have fun, strengthen friendships, and build their relationships with their fathers.	£742
Dance House	City of Glasgow	Weekly dance, drama and arts activities, centre based and out in the community, for children living in an area with multiple challenges. They will be more confident, learn new creative and personal skills, and improve relationships with their community.	£8,300

Deaf Action	City of Edinburgh	This project will bring together young deaf people, siblings and friends from across Edinburgh, Fife, Lothian and the Borders to promote independence, self-esteem and confidence through a programme of activities.	£110,257
Deaf Connections	City of Glasgow	50 children of deaf adults who acts as carers and deaf young carers will take part in a homework club, gain qualifications, enjoy activity days, access specialist support and develop befriending relationships.	£126,258
Disability Shetland	Shetland	Clubs and activities for disabled children and young people in Shetland, in locations across the islands. They will have fun and make friends, be less isolated, improve their social and communication skill, be more confident and active.	£99,722
Disabled &amp; Carers Information Centre Association	City of Dundee	This project helps young carers living in Dundee, with one to one and group support and activities. They will be happier, more confident, better able to cope with their situation and less socially isolated.	£83,257
Drumchapel Disabled Action 2	City of Glasgow	This project will provide a youth club for young people with a learning disability to support them to make friends, have fun and take part in activities that will improve health and increase independent living skills.	£110,429
Drumchapel Table Tennis Club	City of Glasgow	This project delivers table tennis activities in Glasgow schools at lunch time and after school every weekday. Participants will improve confidence, fitness levels, social skills and encourage positive relationships at the same time as learning new skills	£9,800
Drylaw Neighbour Centre	City of Edinburgh	Weekly after-school activity clubs and holiday playschemes for children living in an area of economic and social challenges. They will have fun, be more confident, healthier and happier, and improve their social skills.	£30,000
Dunbartonshire Disability Sports Club	West Dunbartonshire	This project will deliver a multi-sports club for young disabled people during term time. The young people will participate in a range of activities including football, basketball & swimming to reduce isolation, increase physical activity and confidence.	£48,650
Dundee &amp; Angus ADHD Support Group	City of Dundee	This project runs weekly sports and other activities in evenings and school holidays for children who have ADHD. They will have fun, make friends, learn how to build good relationships, and how to manage their behaviour, feelings and emotions.	£94,864

Dunedin Canmore Housing Association	City of Edinburgh	This project runs drop-in youth cafés for young people from disadvantaged areas who may have complex needs or be at risk of school exclusion. Social events and activities will help them to be more confident and go on to further education or employment.	£105,353
Dunoon Baptist Church	Argyll and Bute	Establish a new youth facility in Dunoon to give young people a safe space and engage them with fun activities. 100 young people will have a better sense of self, be less likely to misuse alcohol and have more positive relationships with others.	£27,100
Durness Development Group	Highland	A youth group for young people living in an extremely remote rural area where there are no facilities, low incomes and risk of alcohol misuse. Regular activities and trips will help them be less isolated, more confident and improve their social skills.	£27,500
Earthtime For All Ltd	Moray	Partnered with Ladybird Group this project will deliver an inclusive forest school programme for a range of young people in Elgin including those with Down's syndrome and autism. Outdoor play will be fun, improve wellbeing and create friendships	£8,419
East Ayrshire Women's Aid	East Ayrshire	This project will provide health & wellbeing groups, family sessions, trips and cookery classes for vulnerable young people affected by domestic abuse. Participants will feel safe, improve their self belief and improve family relationships.	£20,360
Eczema Outreach (Scotland)	All Scotland	This project runs clubs, trips, activities, events and gives individual support for children and young people with eczema across Scotland. They will feel happier and more confident, be less isolated and increase their self-esteem and communication skills.	£99,986
Edinburgh City Youth Cafe	City of Edinburgh	Weekly evening drop-in sessions, giving a safe place and support for vulnerable young people facing a variety of challenges. They will be protected from harm, develop skills to increase their confidence and improve life chances, and improve relationships.	£30,000
Edinburgh Young Carers Project	City of Edinburgh	Support for young carers, with both one-to-one sessions and group activities. They will be happier, less stressed or anxious, have more friends and be less isolated, improve coping skills and resilience, and engage and achieve more at school.	£84,789

Eighteen &amp; Under	City of Dundee	Weekly volunteer-led group support for young people who have experienced abuse, including trips, discussions and activities. They will be more confident, have improved mental health and well-being, develop new skills and increase positive relationships.	£10,000
Eildon West Youth Hub (TD1 Youth Hub)	Borders	This project will run sports activities, drop-in and outreach services for young people in a rural area with high unemployment, low incomes and issues with alcohol etc. They will be healthier, have greater access to information and engage more.	£77,559
Elgin Youth Development Group	Moray	This project will organise activities for 500 young people from Elgin and surrounding areas focusing on cooking healthy meals, eating a balanced diet and making physical activity an integral part of their lifestyles.	£98,776
Ellen MacArthur Cancer Trust	North Ayrshire	This project will provide opportunities for young people across Scotland who are in remission from cancer. The sailing activities in Largs will help them become more confident, independent and resilient and support their reengagement with education.	£98,649
Escape Youth Services	Borders	This project runs drop-in sessions and volunteering for young people in areas with multiple challenges including low incomes and lack of facilities. They will be more confident, develop new skills, improve social skills and have better future prospects.	£80,444
FABB Scotland	All Scotland	Outdoor activity days and residential breaks for disabled children and young people, occasionally with their families. They will increase social skills, make friends, have fun and take part in challenging physical activities which will improve confidence.	£118,261
Falkirk &amp; District Association for Mental Health	Falkirk	A counselling service for children and young people experiencing a range of mental health issues. This will help them to understand how to deal with their feelings, improve emotional and mental health, and improve self-esteem and confidence.	£30,000
Families Outside	Aberdeenshire	Young people affected by having a parent in HMP Grampian prison will participate in sport and creative activities at the prison family centre and in the community. They will improve relationships, be physically active and develop skills.	£125,956

Family Action In Rogerfield &amp; Easterhouse (FARE)	City of Glasgow	This project will plan, develop and deliver a range of youth work activities for 180 young people in Easterhouse. It will improve confidence, encourage healthy eating by enhancing cooking skills and reduce participation in anti-social behaviour.	£88,091
Family and Community Development West Lothian	West Lothian	Weekly activity clubs, a holiday programme and residential trips, for children and young people living in an area with many disadvantages. This inclusive project will help them to be happier and healthier, to make friends, and have a safe place to go.	£105,024
Fersands &amp; Fountain Playscheme	City of Aberdeen	Junior youth clubs and after school activities including arts and crafts, outings and sports, for children and young people living in an area of disadvantage. They will feel happier, more confident and included, be healthier, make friends and have fun.	£30,000
Fet-Lor Youth Club	City of Edinburgh	Drop-in youth club sessions for young people living in an area with multiple challenges. Young people will plan and take part in a variety of activities, helping them to be happier, healthier, improve relationships with others and feel empowered.	£30,000
Fife Women's Aid	Fife	This project will help families who have experienced domestic abuse. Support will be given before and after school and in holidays, so children and mothers will feel safe and secure, improve family relationships and reduce stress.	£118,102
Fife Young Carers	Fife	A range of one to one and group support and fun activities for young carers in Fife. They will have fun, make friends and feel supported, be more confident and independent, and be better able to cope with emotions and practical situations.	£88,918
Firsthand Lothian	City of Edinburgh	A befriending service for disabled children and young people. Children will have fun by doing a wide variety of activities, be more confident, make friends, improve their social skills and have better family relationships.	£29,896
Forest school Muddy Adventures	North Lanarkshire	This project will provide outdoor forest school activities including crafts, baby yoga, den building & story-telling for babies & toddlers living in a deprived area. They will improve relationships with their mothers, develop confidence and life skills.	£29,766
Free Wheel North	City of Glasgow	This project provides accessible cycling opportunities for disabled young people using Free Wheel North's wide range of pedal cycles and their own protected cycle track on Glasgow	£10,000

		Green. It will improve mobility, increase confidence and enhance motivation
Friends of the Award in Edinburgh and the Lothians (FOTA)	City of Edinburgh	This project will support 150 young people facing a variety of challenges to participate in the Duke of Edinburgh Awards Scheme in and around Edinburgh. It will improve mental health and confidence, develop life skills and promote community engagement.	£53,569
Fuse Youth Cafe Glasgow	City of Glasgow	This project will establish a healthy living project delivering cooking and exercise classes in Glasgow's East End. It will improve health, increase confidence and support healthier lifestyle choices.	£105,200
Geeza Break	City of Glasgow	This project will provide a range of play activities for children living with kinship carers in an area of low income and deprivation. They will have fun, make friends and improve their self-esteem.	£103,748
Getting Better Together Ltd	North Lanarkshire	This project will provide a programme of social, recreational and information-based activities for 2,170 children and young people in Shotts, North Lanarkshire. Improved health, developing new skills and increased physical activity will all be supported.	£111,361
Gillespie Centre Association	South Lanarkshire	120 children and young people from low income families in and around Biggar, South Lanarkshire, will learn cooking skills, menu planning and nutrition at a community cafe. They will be healthier, have more independence and learn new skills.	£29,760
Girvan Youth Trust	South Ayrshire	This project will provide activities and trips for young people with additional support needs who are socially isolated. The young people will have fun, develop resilience and independence. They will also make new friends.	£30,000
Girvan Youth Trust	South Ayrshire	This project will deliver youth work activities and provide drop-in sessions for 60 young people per week in Girvan, South Ayrshire. Participants will be more confident, have better communication skills and have higher aspirations.	£84,140
Givin' it Laldie	City of Glasgow	This project will run a choir for children living in an area of high unemployment and low incomes, also affected by drug and alcohol issues and sectarianism. The children will be happier and more confident and make friends from different communities.	£30,114

Glasgow Eagles Special Needs Sports Club	City of Glasgow	This project will deliver a range of activities including walking football/basketball, touch rugby, cricket, badminton, short tennis, table tennis & athletics for physical and learning disabled young people. They will have fun, get fit & learn new skills.	£2,460
Glenboig Neighbourhood House	North Lanarkshire	362 children and young people from the rural ex-mining community of Glenboig, North Lanarkshire, will take part in physical activity, learn new skills and make healthier choices through taking part in a varied programme of activities and groups.	£105,890
Gorbals Youth Brass Band	City of Glasgow	The project will deliver weekly music tuition and rehearsals for two youth brass bands from the Gorbals in Glasgow. 30 children aged 8-10 will learn to express themselves creatively, work as a team and take part in new experiences.	£16,116
Gorbals Youth Run Drop In Cafe (Gorbals Youth Cafe)	City of Glasgow	This project will enable 24 young people to train as youth workers in a programme that offers support, development and work experience. The NEET young people will gain skills, build relationships and improve expectations for themselves.	£30,000
Govan Community Project	City of Glasgow	180 children and young people from families seeking asylum or who are refugees will access a twice-weekly homework club in Glasgow. They will engage more with education, have a deeper understanding of their identity and feel more happy and confident.	£29,511
Govan Home &amp; Education Link Project (HELP)	City of Glasgow	This project will provide a play therapy service to 225 children aged 3-12 in Govan, Glasgow. It will improve relationships, increase engagement in education and increase resilience.	£109,845
Grampian Regional Equality Council Ltd	City of Aberdeen	A counselling and support service for children and young people affected by racial abuse, bullying, all kinds of discrimination and harassment. It will help build confidence and self-esteem and they will feel happier, safe and more settled.	£40,105
Grangemouth High School	Falkirk	A programme of trips and outdoor activities designed to introduce young people who are autistic or have other learning difficulties to new challenges and experiences. They will develop independence, social and communication skills and be more confident.	£2,800

Granton Youth Centre	City of Edinburgh	This project will provide drop-in sessions and activities for young people from an area with multiple social and economic challenges. They will be more confident, learn new skills, participate more in their local community and raise their aspirations.	£116,948
Headroom	Fife	A programme of workshops for young women who are at risk of eating disorders or mental health issues. Through weekly groups and completing a positive challenge they will improve their self-image, self-esteem and confidence, and will build up life-skills.	£9,640
Healthy Valleys	South Lanarkshire	A healthy living project for 240 young people living in challenging circumstances in South Lanarkshire. Healthy living activities, clubs, events and outings will improve wellbeing and behaviour, build confidence and new skills, and raise aspirations.	£113,531
Hear My Music	South Lanarkshire	One to one music sessions for up to 20 autistic children and young people aged between 5 and 15 in Glasgow. The project will support them to express their emotions, develop musical talent and nurture positive relationships.	£30,000
Hearts &amp; Minds	City of Edinburgh	Clowndoctors use performing arts to interact with children and young people who are disabled or ill, in schools, hospitals, residential care and hospices across Scotland. They will reduce stress and anxiety, improve communication skills and have fun.	£87,912
Helensburgh and Lomond Young Carers Initiative	Argyll and Bute	Through a combination of 121support, group activities and study groups young carers living in a rural area will make friends, improve mental health and increase in confidence. Homework and CV support will also improve their future employability prospects.	£52,847
Hibernian Community Foundation	City of Edinburgh	Weekly physical activity and healthy eating sessions for young children and their families who live in areas with social and economic challenges. Children will have fun, be healthier, make friends, improve family relationships, and learn new skills.	£9,040
Home-Start Glasgow South	City of Glasgow	Across Glasgow's South-side, 700 vulnerable children each year will benefit from an expansion of group work activities (including Dads Group, Mums and Tots, English sessions) and Creative Play sessions as well as weekly volunteer visits to families' homes	£129,037

Home-Start Kirkcaldy	Fife	Weekly family groups for children under 5 and their parents or carers, affected by social and economic challenges and family difficulties. Children and parents will learn to play together, be more confident, improve social skills and have fun.	£15,831
Home-Start West Lothian	West Lothian	This project will run family support groups and trips for families with young children facing a variety of challenges. The children will be happier, more confident, learn social skills and how to make friends.	£29,910
Hope to Oban	Argyll and Bute	80 young people from Argyll's more remote islands will benefit from mentoring and youth work activities while staying at the hostel for Oban High School. The project will build self-esteem, increase confidence and improve engagement with education.	£30,000
Hot Chocolate Trust	City of Dundee	This project runs open drop-in and group sessions, trips and individual support for vulnerable young people living in a disadvantaged area. They will be more confident, understand their feelings, make better choices and have positive goals.	£117,842
Ignite Theatre	City of Glasgow	This project will deliver drama activities for children and young people aged 8-18 in Knightswood and Netherton in Glasgow. It will reduce isolation, increase confidence and enhance life skills	£80,400
Impact Arts (Projects) Ltd	City of Glasgow	This project will build the confidence and aspirations of children in the East end of Glasgow with families affected by drug and/or alcohol addiction. They will participate in fun, creative group activities that are therapeutic & 1-2-1 Art Therapy support	£45,300
In The Making Glasgow	City of Glasgow	Weekly after-school creative workshops and opportunity to achieve arts awards for young people from an area of disadvantage. They will be more confident and motivated, learn new creative and personal skills, make friends and improve community relations.	£30,000
Indepen-dance (Scotland) Ltd	City of Glasgow	The project will deliver creative movement classes for 72 disabled children and young people in Glasgow, Clydebank and across North Lanarkshire. They will have the chance to perform, express themselves creatively and increase their confidence.	£30,000
Interest Link Borders	Borders	This project will help young people with a range of disabilities and complex needs by providing the support of volunteer befrienders and access to activities. They will have fun, make friends, be happier and more confident and learn new life skills.	£93,415

ISARO Social Integration Network	West Dunbartonshire	30 Roma children and young people will access an afterschool Creative Kidz Club and homework support in Clydebank, West Dunbartonshire. The project will develop both life and social skills, build positive relationships and empower participants.	£29,700
Islay &amp; Jura Community Enterprises Ltd	Argyll and Bute	This project will deliver weekly zero gravity Aquacare warm water therapy sessions with games, exercises for 10 young people with autism, learning or physical disabilities. Young people will develop skills, increase physical activity and make friends.	£24,239
Jack &amp; Jill Support Group Bellshill	North Lanarkshire	37 disabled children and their siblings will access fun activities including an allotment club, young carers group and training courses in Bellshill. Participants will feel emotionally well, positively empowered and promote positive relationships	£30,000
Jack Kane Community Education Centre	City of Edinburgh	The project will work with 13 young people affected by living in a deprived community. Through a targeted and supportive volunteering scheme the young people will develop skills, increase confidence and improve relationships with others.	£21,356
Kaimes Special School Association	City of Edinburgh	This project provides ski lessons and trips for children with autism or ASD. It helps them to be more confident, to have fun, and learn how to cope with accessing activities along with other children and the general public.	£62,367
Kidney Kids Scotland	All Scotland	This project provides a residential for children with nephrotic syndrome, facing a kidney transplant or dialysis and their families to attend a weekend residential. They will learn about their condition in a relaxed environment, make friends and have fun.	£30,000
Kilwinning Community Sports Club	North Ayrshire	This project will provide a breakfast club for children and young people from an area of multiple deprivation and football training for children and young people with additional support needs. It will improve participants' health and confidence.	£31,620
Kintyre Youth Enquiry Service	Argyll and Bute	This project will provide a range of support and diversionary activities for young people in a rural area. It will increase confidence, develop new skills and improve leadership skills.	£57,610
Lanarkshire Deaf Club	North Lanarkshire	100 children from across Lanarkshire who are deaf or have family members who are deaf will have access to a monthly club that mixes fun and practical activities. It will improve communication skills, increase confidence and encourage new	£10,000

		friendships.
LGBT Youth Scotland	City of Glasgow	150 LGBT+ young people will have access to a range of youth groups, individual support, influence decision makers and take part in volunteering opportunities each year. The project will increase their confidence, build resilience and broaden perspectives	£107,805
Liber8 Lanarkshire Ltd	South Lanarkshire	To provide youth outreach three nights a week to 60 young people at risk of alcohol or substance misuse on the streets in South Lanarkshire. It will increase understanding of alcohol/substance misuse, empower young people and improve life skills.	£29,997
LINK - East Fife Mental Health Befriending Project	Fife	A befriending service supporting children and young people experiencing mental health issues. They will be more confident, improve social skills and resilience, have better relationships with others and be more able to go on to positive futures.	£70,160
LINKES	City of Glasgow	This project will deliver regular youth groups, a holiday playscheme and other seasonal activities in Knightswood, Glasgow. It will increase confidence, improve health and reduce isolation.	£73,865
Loft Youth Project	Moray	This project helps young people living in a rural area with few opportunities and little youth provision. It runs a variety of activities and training that will increase confidence, teach life skills, be creative and provide a space to socialise.	£160,348
LoveMilton	City of Glasgow	This project will deliver arts, citizenship and community development activities for 20 young people each week in Milton, Glasgow. It will increase confidence, improve peer relationships and raise expectations of selves.	£39,900
Lyra	City of Edinburgh	An arts programme including theatre, music, art, dance and multimedia opportunities, for children living in an area of multiple disadvantages. They will be more confident, learn new practical and life skills, and have improved aspirations for the future.	£52,050

Machan Trust	South Lanarkshire	This project will provide breakfast & lunch clubs, play & support groups, afterschool club and a youth leadership programme for young people living in an area of deprivation. Young people will gain life skills, feel part of a community and more resilient.	£30,000
Machan Trust	South Lanarkshire	This project will provide four breakfast clubs, four after school clubs and four evening clubs five days a week throughout the year. It will increase resilience, improve life chances and improve confidence.	£96,613
Macrobert Arts Centre Ltd	Stirling	A programme of arts activities and workshops for children who are disabled or from disadvantaged areas. They will be more confident, make friends and improve their communication and creative skills.	£83,468
Maggie Keswick Jencks Cancer Caring Centres Trust (Maggie's)	All Scotland	This project will provide four children and young people focused days each year at each of the eight Maggie's Centres across Scotland. It will help to make sense of a challenging situation, reduce isolation and improve confidence.	£61,038
Maryhill Mobile Children's Services	City of Glasgow	This project will provide respite crèche care to children under 3 in the Maryhill area of Glasgow who may be living in difficult family circumstances. Sensory play will help develop their social, motor and relationship skills and increase confidence.	£84,222
Maxwelltown Information Centre	City of Dundee	A garden club in school holidays and after-school, for children living in an area of multiple challenges. They will have a safe place to come, be more active, learn to grow and cook healthy food and be empowered to deal with the challenges in their lives.	£61,500
Mayfield &amp; Easthouses Youth 2000 Project	Mid Lothian	This project works with young people who are at risk of low achievement. They will be able to address the issues affecting them, take part in youth awards and community projects, develop skills, be more confident and have positive futures.	£86,307
Merkinch Partnership Ltd.	Highland	This project will deliver weekly multi-sport activities, trips, cycling proficiency and health sessions for young people negatively affected by living in a deprived area. The young people will be feel more confident, make friends and be physically active.	£60,000

Methilhill Community Children's Initiative	Fife	This project will deliver a youth club based in a garden promoting natural learning e.g. growing vegetables and outdoor cooking. The young people affected by living in a deprived area will develop new skills linked to healthier lifestyles & confidence.	£21,920
Middlefield Community Project	City of Aberdeen	This project will provide holiday playschemes for under fives in Middlefield, Aberdeen. Participants will play, have fun, make new friends and create memories.	£4,000
Midlothian Young People's Advice Service	Mid Lothian	One-to-one and group art therapy to help young people with a variety of mental health issues. They will be happier and more confident, cope better with their feelings and improve their relationships with friends and family.	£97,821
Mindspace Limited	Perth and Kinross	A programme of group support and counselling sessions to support young people experiencing a range of mental health issues in Perth and Kinross. This will help them to understand and cope with their feelings, build confidence and improve relationships.	£137,424
Monklands Womens Aid	North Lanarkshire	Two group activity sessions delivered weekly complemented by trips for 65 children and young people affected by domestic abuse in North Lanarkshire. It will promote healthy relationships, improve understanding of their own safety and improve coping skills	£10,000
Move On Ltd	City of Edinburgh	A mentoring service for young people affected by homelessness or living in care, matching with adults or peer mentors. They will be more confident, increase self-esteem, have higher aspirations and achieve goals towards future education or employment.	£97,445
Muirhouse Youth Development Group	City of Edinburgh	A mobile "play-den" and youth space, for children and young people living in an area with multiple challenges. It will provide a safe space for them to improve their health, self-esteem and aspirations, build friendships and pride in their community.	£28,600
Newton Wallacetown Church of Scotland, Newton Youth Ministries (RoomSixty Project)	South Ayrshire	This grant will offer after school drop in sessions, football and other activities to young people living in North Ayr in an area of high unemployment. The activities will enable young people to meet in a safe environment, mix with peers and have fun.	£68,410
North Berwick Youth Project Ltd	East Lothian	This project will provide a weekly youth club for young people with a range of learning disabilities. They will have fun, work as a team, develop social skills and be more independent.	£8,307

North Glasgow Community Food Initiative	City of Glasgow	40 children and young people from Milton, Glasgow, will access a twice-weekly afterschool gardening project in the local community garden. They will have the chance to socialise, eat, learn about healthy eating and be more active in the community.	£30,000
North United Communities Ltd	City of Glasgow	A youth theatre and arts activities with weekly sessions and performances for young people living in an inner city area with low incomes and many challenges. It will help them be more confident, learn new skills and raise their aspirations.	£112,479
Oban Youth Cafe Project Ltd	Argyll and Bute	This project will provide 360 young people living in rural areas in and around Oban with access to youth services and groups. The young people will have increased confidence, be healthier and form positive relationships.	£91,080
Ocean Youth Trust Scotland	Argyll and Bute	Young carers from Falkirk and Helensburgh will experience residential, 5-day sail training voyages during the school holidays. They will build confidence and self-esteem, feel less isolated and acquire new transferable skills.	£29,061
Orkney Alcohol Counselling &amp; Advisory Service	Orkney	A counselling service for children and young people experiencing mental health issues while living in remote island communities. They will be more confident, improve relationships, communication and social skills, and re-engage with education or training.	£62,500
Ormlie Community Association Ltd	Highland	Weekly group activities and trips for young children and their parents who live in isolated rural areas and are faced with multiple social and economic challenges. Children will learn new skills, be healthier, and family relationships will be improved.	£70,113
Oxgangs Neighbourhood Centre	City of Edinburgh	This project will run Baby and Toddler groups for low income families who face a number of social and financial challenges. They will have fun, improve family relationships and physical health, plus develop their readiness to learn.	£28,647
Paragon Ensemble Ltd	City of Glasgow	36 disabled children will access specialised tuition on a range of instruments in Glasgow, leading up to performances in arts venues and concert halls. Participants will have increased confidence, independence and communication skills.	£19,876
Parent Action For Safe Play	North Lanarkshire	This project will deliver outdoor free play sessions for young people from deprived areas and also from migrant and asylum seeking families. The regular sessions will increase health, skills	£121,635 and self esteem of the young people.

Park Villa Football Development Group	City of Glasgow	Three football sessions each week will be delivered to benefit 90 children and young people from Govan in Glasgow. Participants will be physically safer, have improved health and fitness levels and be encouraged to have more positive relationships.	£28,260
Parkhead Youth Project	City of Glasgow	This project provides youth services for young people affected by living in a deprived area in North East Glasgow. Through attending weekly clubs the young people will increase in confidence, make informed life choices and have increased aspirations.	£44,942
Partners In Advocacy	City of Glasgow	To provide bespoke, independent advocacy work for 60 children and young people who are slipping through the gaps of existing provision in Glasgow. They will be empowered, develop positive relationships and increase their self-belief.	£67,008
Paws for Progress CIC	City of Edinburgh	This project will help young people who have difficulties engaging socially including those with ADHD, dyspraxia and autism. By training dogs the young people will learn to develop positive relationships, improve social skills, and increase wellbeing.	£83,700
Peeblesshire Youth Trust	Borders	A programme of support for vulnerable young people in a rural area in transition to high school. A series of activities and trips will help them build emotional resilience and life skills, become more confident, make friends and achieve their potential.	£9,530
Perth &amp; Kinross ADHD Support Group	Perth and Kinross	This project will provide 1-2-1 support and weekly group activities for young people with ADHD and their siblings. The regular sessions will help to increase their self-esteem and reduce risky behaviour.	£29,500
Perth Autism Support	Perth and Kinross	Weekly clubs and activities for autistic children and young people and their siblings. They will have fun, be more confident, make friends, improve their social skills, and be more able to take part in other activities in their communities.	£82,025
PKAVS	Perth and Kinross	This service works with young carers to develop their confidence and self-esteem, increase opportunities to make friends and have fun. Support is shaped by the needs of the young person	£77,196 such as respite opportunities, outreach and 1:1 support.

Plantation Productions	City of Glasgow	This project will deliver a programme of arts, crafts, filmmaking, music and cultural exploration for 166 children and young people in Govan, Glasgow. It improve social skills, enhance creative skills and increase confidence.	£102,315
Play Alloa	Clackmannanshire	Saturday Clubs in Alloa and Tillicoultry for children with complex support needs, providing arts and crafts, music, dance, physical and outdoor activities. They will have fun and make friends, improve their social skills, be more confident and independent.	£92,506
Play Midlothian	Mid Lothian	Easter and summer holiday playschemes with trips and activities for young people living in low income areas. They will be more confident, make friends, be healthy and active, improve their social skills and have fun.	£29,789
PLUS (Forth Valley) Ltd	Falkirk	A range of support for disabled children, young people and their families in the Falkirk area, with sessions for parents and toddlers, play and youth activities, family and information days. Children will have fun, make friends and be more confident.	£8,700
Positive Help	City of Edinburgh	This befriending service works with young people living day to day with HIV and/or Hepatitis C. Through regular support from a befriender the young person will have fun, feel supported and have improved expectations for the future.	£115,869
Possibilities for Each and Every Kid (PEEK)	City of Glasgow	This project will provide a Play Cafe for under 5s, theatre clubs for three age groups, after school activities and a holiday programme in North East Glasgow. It will increase confidence, encourage friendships and improve social and leadership skills.	£90,000
Possilpark Children's Summer Camp	City of Glasgow	32 children from North Glasgow will take part in a week long summer camp each year where they will try a range of activities including horse riding, canoeing and climbing to increase confidence, life skills and make new friends.	£30,000
Possibilities	City of Glasgow	45 disabled young people to become supported volunteers and pursue their interests in cooking, administration, bus escorting, marketing or computers. It will promote independent living by learning new skills, gaining confidence and enhancing employability	£29,904

Printfield Community Project-Forum	City of Aberdeen	Play sessions for very young children living in an area with multiple challenges. Children will have the opportunity to learn in a fun environment, will be more confident, happier and healthier, and improve their social skills.	£29,704
Printfield Community Project-Forum	City of Aberdeen	This project will run after school and holiday activities for children living in an area with multiple disadvantages. They will be happier, healthier and more confident, have improved self-esteem and better community relationships.	£73,268
Project 31 SCIO	South Lanarkshire	This project will deliver regular free play activity for children and young people in an area of multiple deprivation, supporting them to improve their confidence and have better relationships with their families	£74,710
Project Ability	City of Glasgow	33 disabled children and young people in Glasgow will access weekly tuition in painting, printmaking, textiles, sculpture, ceramics and drawing. Participants will have improved self belief, emotional wellbeing and more positive relationships.	£19,764
Quarriers	City of Glasgow	This early intervention project will deliver play, storytelling, drawing and discussions with 618 children identified from 14 nurseries in Glasgow. It will improve social development, increase life chances and support parents to support their children.	£104,256
Rape Crisis Centre Glasgow	City of Glasgow	This project will help girls and young women who are survivors of sexual abuse. In one to one counselling and group support sessions they will develop coping strategies, improve their mental health, reduce feelings of isolation and increase confidence.	£135,222
Regen:FX Youth Trust	South Lanarkshire	The Junior Street project will deliver a drama programme and residential for 30 young people each year facing many challenges in South Lanarkshire. Supported by Peer Educators, they will build confidence and life skills and feel less isolated.	£98,369
Reidvale Adventure Play Association Ltd	City of Glasgow	Children and young people disadvantaged by social or economic deprivation or with additional support needs will be supported to play and have fun. It will increase confidence, improve physical health and enhance life experience.	£92,940
Reidvale Neighbourhood Centre	City of Glasgow	45 children and young people from Dennistoun, Glasgow, will access a fun holiday programme involving day trips and indoor	£9,511

		activities at their youth hub. They will gain confidence, new transferable skills and increase their independence.
Relationships Scotland - Family Mediation Highland	Highland	This project helps children and young people affected by their parents separation and/or family amalgamation by providing a counselling service. This will help them to cope with their situations, manage their emotions and increase self-esteem.	£47,164
Renfrew YMCA SCIO	Renfrewshire	Through a combination of trips/experiences, training and creative workshops young people affected by living in a deprived area will develop skills, be positively empowered and have the chance to reach their potential.	£29,946
Renfrewshire Carers Centre	Renfrewshire	This project will provide fun group activities and one to one support for children and young people with ADHD. It will increase their confidence, make and maintain friendships and improve their relationship with their families.	£29,874
Richmond's Hope, Glasgow	City of Glasgow	This project will develop and deliver a counselling support service for 212 children and young people aged 4 - 18 years disadvantaged by their experience of traumatic bereavement. It will improve relationships, coping mechanisms and communication.	£67,140
RIG Arts Ltd	Inverclyde	60 children and young people with mental health issues will access art sessions delivered twice weekly in Greenock, Inverclyde. They will have improved mental wellbeing, better relationships with others and feel more empowered.	£65,427
RockSolid Youth Project	City of Dundee	This project runs youth clubs and after-school activities for young people living in an area of disadvantage. They can also take part in volunteering and planning activities. They will be more confident, develop life skills and have fun.	£116,531
Rosemount Lifelong Learning	City of Glasgow	This project will deliver a programme of support for 25 children and young people in North East Glasgow offering information, advice, one-to-one support, group work and a holiday activity programme.	£111,911
Royal National Institute of Blind People, Scotland	Fife	An after school club for visually impaired children and young people, who may also have other disabilities. They will have fun, make friends, learn new skills and become more independent.	£91,776

Royston Youth Action	City of Glasgow	Young people in Royston, Glasgow, will be supported at a crucial time in their transition from children's' to youth activities. It will improve confidence, broaden horizons and encourage positive behaviours.	£84,593
Ruchazie Parish Church	City of Glasgow	This project will provide a range of youth work activities for 172 children and young people in Ruchazie, Glasgow. They will have increased self-esteem, be better equipped to make positive life choices and take part in more purposeful activity.	£84,957
Safe Space	Fife	This project will provide counselling and support, individually and in groups, to young people aged 12-18 affected by sexual abuse. It will help them to deal with their feelings, feel safer, happier and more confident, and reduce self-harming behaviour.	£86,684
SCOREscotland	City of Edinburgh	This project will help children from black and ethnic minority communities by providing support and activities and working with other local groups on joint projects. This will help them be more confident, feel safe, make friends and integrate with others.	£121,403
Scottish Huntingtons Association	Fife	This project will help young people affected by Huntington's disease in their family. They will have one to one support and group activities to help them cope with their situations, increase resilience, make friends and improve family relationships.	£124,492
Scottish Sports Futures	All Scotland	This three year project will support the development of a young ambassadors programme delivered in 12 locations across Scotland. It will increase confidence, encourage a healthier lifestyle and create positive role models of 108 young people.	£74,060
SKY Project	East Ayrshire	50 young people from Shortlees in Kilmarnock will access afterschool and holiday club sessions that combine sport, arts and crafts, outdoor play and trips. Participants will have fun, improve their confidence and have more positive peer relationships.	£29,740
Skye &amp; Lochalsh Community Care Forum SCIO - Young Carers Project	Highland	100 young carers on Skye and in Kyle of Lochalsh will access a programme of weekly support sessions, regular outings and residential breaks. They will feel less stressed, have increased confidence and feel more connected to their communities.	£82,672

Smart Play Network	City of Edinburgh	This project will provide Play Rangers to support outdoor play opportunities for children and young people in Bingham and Magdalene in Edinburgh. It will increase physical activity, improve confidence and encourage positive relationships while having fun.	£96,737
SNAP - Special Needs Action Project Highland	Highland	This project will provide after school and holiday activities for disabled children from a rural area. They will have fun, see friends and take part in activities that other children take for granted, so they will feel less isolated and more confident.	£36,760
SoulRiders Scotland	City of Glasgow	Soulkidz aims to empower BME young people through cycling sessions and training workshops which will increase self-esteem, physical health and sense of belonging in the community.	£88,650
South Ayrshire Befriending Project	South Ayrshire	This project will help children and young people facing a variety of challenges by providing the support of volunteer befrienders and access to activities. They will have fun, make friends, be more confident, more independent and learn new skills.	£90,000
Spartans Community Football Academy	City of Edinburgh	This project will deliver a range of after school activities and one residential for disabled children in North Edinburgh, including football, pool, cookery, arts and crafts and trips. They will have fun, be empowered and build positive relationships.	£9,657
Spartans Community Football Academy	City of Edinburgh	A Saturday morning breakfast club, Friday night youth provision and a girls group, for children and young people living in an area with multiple challenges. They will be more confident and healthier, develop new skills and have higher aspirations.	£91,200
Speech Language Communication Company (SLCo)	East Dunbartonshire	This project will run a weekly youth club for young people aged 11-18 years with speech and language barriers, where they can meet and socialise with others with similar needs. They will have fun and become more confident and independent.	£30,000
Spina Bifida Hydrocephalus Scotland	Aberdeenshire	This project will help 19 young people who have spina bifida hydrocephalus and their siblings. It will provide a one-to-one service and group activities, help them access social and leisure activities, make friends, be more confident and independent.	£75,440
St Crispin's Out of School Care Association	City of Edinburgh	This project runs an after school club for children with significant additional support needs. This helps them to have fun and make friends, be more confident, develop communication and coping skills, and promotes inclusion.	£70,215

St Pauls Youth Forum	City of Glasgow	This project will extend the reach of the young person led community radio project "BoltFM" right across North and East Glasgow. 720 children and young people will be more confident, learn transferable skills and build positive relationships.	£98,898
St Teresa's Youth Club	City of Edinburgh	This project will help young people from low income families in an area with a lack of opportunities by running weekly and holiday activities. They will learn new skills, have fun, become more confident and contribute to the community.	£50,915
Stable Life	Borders	This project will help young people experiencing stress such as poor mental health, abuse, or exclusion from school using horse centred support and therapy. They will be happier, more confident, more able to deal with their emotions and learn new skills.	£121,166
Starcatchers Productions Ltd	City of Edinburgh	Weekly creative workshops for very young children with young parents, from areas with multiple challenges in Edinburgh and Fife. By taking part in creative activities together they will be more confident, improve social skills and strengthen family bonds.	£20,000
Step by Step in Moray SCIO	Moray	This project will help very young babies and children from vulnerable families in a rural area, by providing one to one and group support and parent/child activities. This will help the children's social, emotional and physical development and happiness.	£76,740
Step Together Volunteering	Dumfries and Galloway	200 young people who are not engaging with school will access 1:1 support and group work to motivate them into local volunteering. The project will enhance their life experiences, increase life skills and improve both physical and mental wellbeing.	£30,000
Stepping Stones For Families	City of Glasgow	The project will deliver play sessions for children of migrant, refugee and asylum-seeking families based in Townhead, Glasgow. Children will increase their confidence, make friends and develop expression.	£30,000
Strathcarron Hospice	Stirling	This project runs a programme of counselling groups to help children who have been bereaved. This will help them understand and cope with their feelings, and improve their general well being and relationships with others.	£92,206

Tarbert After School Care	Argyll and Bute	35 children from low income families in Tarbert, Argyll, will have access to a holiday playscheme. Through outdoor play, cooking, arts, crafts and games they will have improved life skills, make new friends and have fun.	£15,904
Taymara	City of Dundee	This project will provide sailing activities for children affected by life limiting conditions, mainly from Dundee, Angus and Fife. It will support them to engage with others socially, encourage greater willingness to learn new skills and relieve stress.	£39,846
Tayside Council On Alcohol	Angus	This project will deliver targeted intervention groups and a residential break for children affected by substance misuse. The activities will build skills, relationships and confidence, and promote participation and self-belief.	£27,394
Tayside Council On Alcohol	City of Dundee	This project supports children in kinship placements to feel secure in their living arrangements, improve their well-being and increase social inclusion. Three levels of support is offered such as holiday programmes, 1:1 work and therapeutic interventions	£124,372
The Attic Charity SCIO	City of Dundee	This project will run a variety of clubs, groups and activities for children facing economic and social deprivation. They will be happier and more confident, make friends, learn new skills and improve their expectations for the future.	£56,306
The Avenue Childcare Services	East Ayrshire	This project will deliver wildlife drawing and gardening including growing vegetables and flowers in an outdoor garden. The children affected by living in an area of deprivation will develop strong self belief, friendships and new skills.	£20,000
The Birks Cinema Trust	Perth and Kinross	Weekly creative sessions using Lego, for children who are autistic or have other additional support needs. Working together to create an animation film will improve social and communication skills and help them to express themselves.	£29,154
The DASH Club	City of Glasgow	To provide weekly drama, sports and recreational activity sessions and holiday programmes to 65 disabled young people in Glasgow. The project will reduce isolation, promote personal and social development and improve wellbeing.	£141,900
The Drugs Initiative Group Forfar	Angus	A programme of trips and in-house activities for disadvantaged young people in Forfar to help build confidence, communication skills and positive relationships. Activities will include football, canoeing, abseiling, cooking and team building exercises.	£29,964

The Haven Caring Counselling Communication Centre	South Lanarkshire	This project will help young people affected by life limiting illness or bereavement to understand their feeling and build their confidence through peer support groups and structured activities.	£58,508
The Jeely Piece Club	City of Glasgow	Children in the Castlemilk area of Glasgow will have increased opportunities to fun and stimulating play activities. Outreach, street and indoor play will support children to develop social skills, increase their confidence and improve well-being.	£110,371
The Jeely Piece Club	City of Glasgow	24 children from Castlemilk in Glasgow will take part in a weekend residential break, accessing activities such as canoeing, raft building and climbing. Participants will have improved health, increased confidence and more positive relationships.	£29,907
The Ladybird Development Group	Moray	This project will offer access to weekly sessions for 11 disabled children with a range of complex needs in Lossiemouth, Moray. It will improve physical development, health, life skills and communication skills.	£32,299
The Mungo Foundation	City of Glasgow	Weekly activities such as speedboating, horse riding and tubing for 46 children and young people with learning disabilities in North Ayrshire. Participants will have increased confidence, learn new skills, develop new friendships and have fun.	£30,000
The Playback Trust	City of Edinburgh	This project will run monthly activities and day-trips for children and young people who have a variety of disabilities. They will have fun, spend time with friends, be more confident and independent, be included in their community and try new things.	£74,219
The Ross County Foundation	Highland	This project will run 5-day Disability Football Festivals during school holidays which will mix football and personal development activities. Participants will have fun, build confidence and self-belief, and improve physical health and wellbeing.	£4,800
theGKexperience	City of Glasgow	This project will provide youth work activities, residential trips, one-to-one support and offer volunteer training across Glasgow. It will help children and young people increase confidence, develop new skills and increase community engagement.	£52,492

Toybox Lee Avenue	City of Glasgow	This project will provide play activities for 8,000 children visiting their fathers in HMP Barlinnie, Glasgow. It will encourage a more positive bond with their father, make prison visits a better experience, improve confidence and decrease isolation.	£56,720
Tranent Youth &amp; Community Facility	East Lothian	Groups, one to one support and a youth managers programme, for young people living in an area of multiple challenges and limited opportunities. They will be more confident, improve their health and well-being, and be actively involved in their community.	£97,716
Transition Extreme Sports Limited	City of Aberdeen	This project will provide evening skate park and BMX bike sessions for young people affected by living in areas of multiple deprivation. Young people will be physically active, develop skills and increase their confidence.	£25,500
Twechar Community Action	East Dunbartonshire	This project will provide youth work activities for 120 young people across a range of age groups in Twechar, East Dunbartonshire. It will increase confidence, develop new skills and help participants feel more connected to their community.	£71,975
Tweeddale Youth Action SCIO	Borders	This project will support vulnerable children in the transition to high school. A programme of structured activities and trips and working together with others will help them to be more confident and resilient, make friends and achieve goals.	£8,197
TYKES - The Young Karers East Sutherland	Highland	This project will help children and young people with caring responsibilities living in extremely remote rural areas. It will provide activities and support to help them be happier, more confident and independent, make friends and relieve their stress.	£57,198
Urban Roots Initiative	City of Glasgow	164 children and young people from Toryglen and Burnhill will take part in gardening, cooking, play and crafts activities after school and during the holidays in woodland. They will have improved health, confidence and have more positive relationships.	£30,000
Venchie Children &amp; Young People's Project	City of Edinburgh	Weekly breakfast and after-school clubs, plus holiday clubs, for children living in an area with social and economic challenges. They will have fun, be healthier and more confident, make friends and improve social skills.	£30,000

VIP Arts and Sports Academy (SCIO)	North Lanarkshire	185 children from low income families in Viewpark, North Lanarkshire, will take part in a "Fun, Food and Fitness" programme. Through a range of physical activities, young people will have increased confidence and be healthier in a safe space that's theirs	£30,000
Voluntary Action Shetland	Shetland	This project will provide a befriending service for young people with learning disabilities living in remote islands. Young people matched with volunteers will have fun, become more confident and independent and feel more socially included.	£99,313
Volunteer Centre Midlothian	Mid Lothian	Young people from an area with many challenges will be supported to volunteer at after school and holiday activities for younger children. They will be more confident, increase their self-esteem and develop valuable skills for the future.	£29,273
Volunteer Glasgow	City of Glasgow	This project will establish a new befriending service for 50 children and young people in North East Glasgow. It will improve their confidence, help them to be more active and connected to their community and support them to cope with any challenges.	£94,022
Volunteer Tutors' Organisation Glasgow	City of Glasgow	160 children and young people requiring further support in school will have access to free tutors in their own homes across Glasgow. The project will improve educational attainment, enhance life chances and increase confidence.	£61,250
Volunteering Matters	North Lanarkshire	90 children and young people with a range of complex needs in North Lanarkshire will participate in 5-day residential breaks delivered over the spring and summer holidays. They will have greater aspirations, make new friends and increase confidence.	£30,000
Vox Liminis	City of Glasgow	This project will run music therapy sessions for children and their families with a parent in prison. The monthly sessions will improve family relationships, creative capabilities and confidence.	£62,793
Waverley Care	City of Edinburgh	The project will reduce isolation, increase self-esteem and develop the coping strategies of young people affected by HIV and AIDS by providing group and one-to-one meetings, activities and trips away.	£129,732
Wellbeing Scotland	Stirling	Support for children and young people affected by abuse and trauma, with one to one counselling, art and play therapy and	£96,220

		group work. Young people will be happier, less stressed, have skills to keep safe and cope with feelings, and improve relationships.
Wellspring Ltd	City of Edinburgh	Weekly group and individual sessions to address issues affecting children from BME and migrant communities in Leith. Sessions will be fun and varied and will improve self-esteem, communication, confidence and integration.	£9,784
West Lothian Drug &amp; Alcohol Service	West Lothian	This project will provide counselling for young people who have experienced bereavement. It will provide a safe space to explore their feelings, help them come to terms with loss, reduce risk of harmful behaviour and increase engagement with education.	£111,390
West Lothian Youth Foundation	West Lothian	This project will run weekly sports activities for disabled children. It will help them to be healthier and fitter, improve social skills and make friends, give a sense of achievement and improve aspirations for the future.	£10,000
Wester Hailes Youth Agency	City of Edinburgh	Drop-in youth club sessions for primary school age children living in an area with many disadvantages, where they can have fun in a safe environment. They will be more confident, improve their social skills, team-working skills and resilience.	£66,783
Whale Arts	City of Edinburgh	This project will run street art sessions for young people from an area with limited opportunities. This will help them to be more creative and confident, reduce any risky behaviour and encourage them to take part in and be proud of their local community.	£81,989
Wholistic Life - Coaching for Kids	South Lanarkshire	This wellness centre will deliver informal coaching/counselling, peer mentoring, mediation and yoga for young people with mental health problems living in a deprived area. They will increase confidence and be better able to manage their mental health.	£10,000
Wiston Lodge	South Lanarkshire	Young people experiencing a range of challenges will create an interpretive trail at Wiston Lodge, South Lanarkshire . The Path of The Little People will increase confidence, inspire pride in personal achievements and encourage fun and learning.	£80,065

With Kids (Formerly the Big Issue Foundation Scotland)	City of Glasgow	This project will establish a Play Therapy service in the East End of Glasgow for children who have experienced trauma or adverse circumstances. It will support them to manage their emotions, increase their confidence and strengthen family relationships.	£93,000
Women's Aid Dumfriesshire &amp; Stewartry	Dumfries and Galloway	This project will provide regular activities, outings and trips for 180 young people affected by domestic abuse in Dumfries & Galloway. The activities will be fun, develop confidence and positive relationships, and improve emotional wellbeing.	£13,500
Women's Aid Dundee	City of Dundee	This project will run school holiday activities for young people who have been affected by domestic violence. This will help them to be more confident, develop their social skills and feel less isolated.	£54,230
Women's Aid East Dunbartonshire	East Dunbartonshire	This project will decorate and furnish the new bedrooms in permanent homes of 30 children and young people affected by domestic violence in East Dunbartonshire. It will encourage self expression, improve behaviour and help them feel safe.	£29,400
Women's Aid Glasgow	City of Glasgow	40 children and young people in Glasgow affected by domestic abuse and moving from refuge to a new home will be supported to choose furnishings and fittings for their new bedroom. They will feel safer, better emotionally and better able to make choices.	£10,000
Women's Aid Hemat Gryffe	City of Glasgow	This project will provide resources, trips, activities, celebrations and bedroom decoration for BME children affected by domestic violence. They will better understand their feelings, develop healthier relationships and better understand domestic abuse.	£10,000
Women's Aid West Lothian	West Lothian	This project will provide support for young people affected by domestic abuse. This will be through group work, 1:1 work and a buddy system. Young people will feel safe, be more resilient and improve their relationships.	£29,610
Yard Adventure Centre	City of Edinburgh	This project will provide supported play sessions for disabled children and their families in Edinburgh, Dundee & Kirkcaldy. It will help the young people to increase confidence, develop new skills and have fun with others.	£99,005 improve health, encourage positive lifestyle choices and broaden horizons.
YMCA Dumfries	Dumfries and Galloway	This project will deliver a wide range of youth work activities for 400 children and young people in North West Dumfries. It will	£82,928

YMCA Kirkcaldy	Fife	A holiday playscheme including sports, arts, music and trips for children living in a disadvantaged area and facing challenging circumstances. The children will have fun and make friends, be more confident, learn new skills and feel cared for.	£79,346
YMCA Paisley	Renfrewshire	Through access to digital and technical workshops young people affected by living in a deprived area will develop coding skills, confidence and reach their potential. In the Maker Space they will learn to create websites, gaming apps and films.	£28,350
YMCA Tain &amp; District	Highland	This project runs a youth cafe and outreach youth work for young people living in remote rural areas. They will benefit from a reduction in isolation, improved social skills and greater community engagement.	£55,397
YMCA Tollcross	City of Glasgow	Youth work sessions five nights a week across a range of age groups in the east end of Glasgow, complemented by residential weekend breaks. 88 participants will feel more empowered, learn new skills and have improved physical and mental health.	£27,030
YoMo Glasgow	City of Glasgow	1,560 young people take part in a peer education programme to deliver an anti-bullying course three sessions a week across North East and North West Glasgow. They will increase confidence, better understand their emotions and feel positively empowered.	£30,000
Young Peoples Futures	City of Glasgow	This project will provide a range of youth work activities for 200 young people per week in Possil, Glasgow. It will increase the physical, mental health and wellbeing of young people, increase confidence and encourage active learning.	£86,865
YPeople (Calm Project)	City of Glasgow	This project will provide a group work programme to support existing counselling and mentoring for 115 young people referred by Community Safety Glasgow. It will increase confidence, broaden horizons and help to better manage their emotions.	£71,826
Yusuf Youth Initiative	City of Dundee	This project will work with marginalised young people from BME communities in an area of deprivation. Through weekly activities and an annual residential trip, the young people will be more confident and feel a part of the community.	£36,150

Zone Initiative Limited	East Ayrshire	This project will provide structured play activities in Dalmellington, East Ayrshire for children affected by multiple disadvantages. Participants will improve their social skills, take part in physical activities and feel less lonely.	£75,000
3D Drumchapel	City of Glasgow	This project will provide a wide range of activities for 210 children and young people aged 0-18 in Drumchapel, Glasgow. It will increase confidence, improve health and supports participants to achieve their goals.	£85,481
8th Paisley Boys' Brigade Company	Renfrewshire	This project will provide a two night residential at Lendrick Muir for children from the West End of Paisley, Renfrewshire. They will have fun, learn new things, make friends, be healthier and have increased expectations of themselves.	£2,863
Aberlour Child Care Trust	Stirling	The Options Adventures project will take disabled children on outdoor activities trips and residentials. They will have fun, make friends, be supported to achieve personal goals and improve independence, social skills and confidence.	£28,110
Above Adventure	East Ayrshire	This project will work with a range of young people disadvantaged by disability, mental health, NEET, young carers or living in an area of deprivation. They will provide climbing lessons on a mobile tower to increase fitness, well being and self belief.	£30,000
Adventures Unlimited Scotland CIC	Highland	This project will deliver outdoor activity weekends for young people with disabilities including physical, emotional and learning who live in the highlands. The residentials will help young people to feel confident, learn new skills and make new friends.	£30,000
Advocacy Service Aberdeen	City of Aberdeen	This project will help children and young people with a variety of additional support needs, disabilities or other challenges in their lives. It will help them articulate their needs, express their opinions and participate in decisions that affect them.	£94,817
Advocacy Western Isles	Western Isles	This project will provide a one to one advocacy service for disadvantaged children and young people across the Western Isles. It will improve confidence, develop communication and support young people to make decisions and express their views.	£106,265

Angus Carers Association	Angus	Sports and activity sessions for disabled children and their families in Arbroath and Forfar. They will have fun along with other children and siblings, make friends and be more confident.	£29,800
Angus Carers Association	Angus	Young carers in Angus will receive group and one-to-one support, providing respite and fun activities, as well as some training. They will be happier, more confident, less isolated and feel valued.	£102,566
Angus Special Playscheme	Angus	A holiday playscheme for children with autism and other additional support needs who may have challenging behaviour, providing activities and trips. They will make friends, have fun, feel more included, be more independent and improve their self-esteem.	£41,664
ANYiSO	City of Glasgow	142 children BME children from Knightswood in Glasgow will access sports, arts and crafts activities. They will have a healthier lifestyle, take part in positive and fun activities and gain life skills to improve self-esteem.	£9,920
Arran Youth Foundations	North Ayrshire	This project runs youth activities including drop-ins, a youth forum, film-making, cooking and sports, for young people living in an isolated rural area. They will be more confident, develop leadership skills and increase aspirations for the future.	£10,000
Arthritis Care	City of Glasgow	This project will provide information, support, workshops, trips and creative activities for children and young people with arthritis from across Scotland. They will be more confident, less isolated, build friendships and raise their aspirations.	£97,941
Avenue Confidential	Aberdeenshire	Counselling sessions to help children and young people who have been affected by family breakdowns. They will feel happier, calmer and more confident, more able to deal with their feelings and reduce anger, and improve family relationships.	£48,408
Ayr United Football Academy	South Ayrshire	This grant will establish a football team for disabled children and young people in South Ayrshire, supporting them to improve health, increase confidence and have fun with friends.	£101,760
Ayrshire Communities education and Sport	North Ayrshire	100 children and young people from Kilwinning will take part in a six week programme of activities during the summer, including outings and educational visits. Participants will have a safe space	£10,000 to have fun, make new friends and improve social skills.

Ayrshire Hospice	North Ayrshire	To provide regular play therapy sessions for 144 children and young people from across Ayrshire affected by bereavement in their close family. It will increase their self-esteem, reduce isolation and increase resilience.	£100,785
Balintore &amp; District Residents Group	Highland	This one year grant will pay for a trip to Landmark Adventure Park for 80 young people from Balintore Village in the rural highlands of Scotland. They will have fun, build friendships and reduce isolation.	£1,700
Baltic Street Adventure Playground	City of Glasgow	This adventure playground helps children and young people experiencing disadvantage in Dalmarnock, Glasgow, by running physical and learning activities and play sessions that promote social inclusion, improved physical health mental well-being.	£81,809
Barnardo's	East Ayrshire	This project will provide early support to children and young people at risk of alcohol misuse. A mixture of one to one support and group activities will help them improve resilience, increase their knowledge and reduce risky or harmful behaviour.	£91,356
Befriend A Child Scheme Aberdeen	City of Aberdeen	A school holiday playscheme for children and young people who may have a difficult home life or are affected by other challenging circumstances. They will have fun, build friendships with other young people and trusted adults, and be more confident.	£9,399
Befrienders - Argyll &amp; Bute Childrens Befriending Scheme	Argyll and Bute	This project will help and support young people facing a variety of challenges by providing a trained volunteer befriender. This will help them to be more confident, increase engagement with education and improve relationships with families.	£129,876
Bellsbank Project	East Ayrshire	This project will provide crèche services for 40 children per year aged 0-9 in Bellsbank, East Ayrshire. It will create healthy lifestyles, increase confidence and broaden horizons.	£99,078
Bethany Christian Trust	Stirling	Play therapy sessions for children facing issues such as trauma, emotional distress, bereavement, domestic violence and family break-ups. Children will be happier, more confident, have better relationships and feel more positive about themselves.	£10,000

Blue Sky Autism Project	Stirling	Small weekly social groups for very young autistic children. Playing together and structured teaching will help them learn how to make friends, improve social skills, lessen anxiety, and be more confident.	£29,760
Boomerang Community Centre	City of Dundee	Youth clubs and activities for children and young people living in an area with many disadvantages. They will have fun, be more confident, be supported to achieve their goals, feel part of their community and take part in positive activities.	£142,398
Bridges Project	East Lothian	This project will provide individual, therapeutic and group work to increase the emotional well being and life skills of young people affected by challenging circumstances and distress, starting to cause behavioural issues.	£104,458
Bright Sparks Playgroups	Mid Lothian	Out of school and weekend groups and holiday playscheme, running activities and trips for children with a variety of disabilities and complex needs. They will have fun, make friends, develop their social skills and learn and experience new things.	£128,280
Brittle Bone Society	All Scotland	This project helps children from all over the UK who have Brittle Bone disease. It provides information, advice and support, plus fun and get-togethers in their Cool Bones programme, to help them improve their health and wellbeing and make friends.	£63,785
Broomhouse Centre	City of Edinburgh	Drop-in groups, activities, outings, residential trips and individual support for young carers living in South West Edinburgh. They will feel less isolated and better able to cope with their caring role, make friends and have fun.	£84,935
Broomhouse Centre	City of Edinburgh	A mentoring service for children and young people living in an area with multiple challenges and who may be affected by chaotic families. Individual support from volunteers will help them manage mental health, be more confident feel less isolated.	£30,000
Broxburn United Sports Club	West Lothian	This project will run a variety of targeted sports and healthy activities for children and young people in an area of deprivation, including some who are disabled. They will be healthier, happier, more confident and have improved future opportunities.	£84,749
Butterfly Trust	All Scotland	One to one befriending and family support for children and young people who have Cystic Fibrosis. They will have a better home environment, be healthier, have increased confidence and	£86,302 sense of purpose, and a more positive view of their future.

Caithness KLICS	Highland	Support for young carers living in Caithness, often in remote rural areas. Drop-in sessions, one to one support and trips and activities will help them spend time with friends and improve social skills, be more confident and have better mental well-being.	£114,076
Calman Trust Ltd	Highland	This project will work with 168 young people at risk of homelessness in Inverness by supporting them to develop a wide range of skills to maintain independent living. It will help create positive relationships, improve wellbeing and support employability.	£128,575
Carers Befriending Project (Falkirk &amp; Clackmannanshire)	Falkirk	One to one and group support for young adult carers. Individually tailored support will help them to take part in developing their own support plans, reduce anxiety and stress, get the opportunity to achieve meaningful participation and influence change.	£9,837
Carers Forum Stirling Area	Stirling	105 young carers will go on residential trips with their peers split by age: the older group will go on a city break and the younger group participate in a structured sports trip. The fun trips will increase self-esteem, well-being and reduce isolation.	£30,000
Centrestage Communities Ltd	North Ayrshire	This project will create opportunities for children and young people with a range of additional support needs and learning disabilities to be involved in performing and creative arts. It will increase confidence, life skills and promote volunteering.	£102,062
Chalmers Ardler Trust Child &amp; Family Project	City of Dundee	This project will run activity groups for pre-school children and their young parents in a disadvantaged area. The children will get the chance to have fun, play with others, get ready for nursery by developing social skills and bond with their parents.	£35,700
Children's Hospice Association Scotland (CHAS)	West Dunbartonshire	This three year project will support an activities programme for children with life limiting conditions and siblings by providing stimulating, and fun experiences that will encourage development, assist communication, expression and enhance their lives.	£112,400

Church of the Nazarene	North Ayrshire	60 children from low income families in Stevenson and Ardrossan will receive breakfast and lunch at a playscheme delivered five days a week over the school holidays. They will have access to free and nutritious meals while having fun with friends.	£87,254
Citizen's Theatre	City of Glasgow	This project will provide a weekly theatre group and intensive summer programme for 15 learning disabled young people aged 14-18. It will reduce isolation, increase confidence and improve communication skills.	£55,107
Clyde FC Community Foundation	North Lanarkshire	A sports club for disabled young people in North Lanarkshire, providing activities such as football, tennis and cycling sessions. The children will have fun, participate in new sports, gain confidence and improve their social skills.	£10,000
Clyde Powerchair Football Club	North Lanarkshire	This project will provide specialist wheelchairs so that children and young people can take part in powerchair football. They will have fun, be more active, be able to spend time with friends and increase their self-esteem.	£25,000
Colston Milton Parish Church (arts project)	City of Glasgow	A weekly music project for children living in an area with multiple challenges and few opportunities. They will learn to play instruments and create music, while developing confidence, making friends and raising aspirations for their futures.	£9,680
Committed to Ending Abuse (CEA) Ltd	Falkirk	This project will offer advocacy support for 105 children and young people affected by domestic abuse. Participants will be safer, more resilient and have improved futures.	£106,320
Community Central Halls	City of Glasgow	270 children and young people from across North West Glasgow will engage with mentoring, personal development, group work and holiday activities to broaden their horizons, increase their self-belief and improve their health.	£66,689
Community House	Clackmannanshire	This project runs after-school clubs, activities and holiday activities for young people living in an area with high unemployment and many challenges. They will learn new skills, be happier, more confident and resilient, and build strong relationships.	£153,976
Connect Berwickshire Youth Project	Borders	The project will support employability and intergenerational activities for 105 young people in Eyemouth by upcycling six	£68,896

		mopeds and facilitating sessions in the community cafe. It will enhance personal development, confidence and life chances.
Cottage Family Centre	Fife	This project will provide a therapeutic and counselling service to children experiencing challenging family and social situations. They will be happier and more confident, and improve their family relationships and aspirations for the future.	£91,089
Covey (Community Volunteers Enabling You)	South Lanarkshire	This befriending project will help teenagers with learning disabilities and autism to have fun and improve their confidence and communication skills. They will take part in weekly activities including bowling, cinema and going out for meals.	£73,708
Craigend Community Youth Group	City of Glasgow	Weekly table-tennis sessions for children and young people living in an area of economic and social challenges. They will have fun, be more active, healthier and more confident, make friends and improve their social skills.	£6,420
Craigmillar Literacy Trust/Craigmillar Books For Babies	City of Edinburgh	Group activities and home visits to help very young children with additional needs and their families using reading, books and songs. Their speech and language will improve, they will be happier and more ready to start nursery.	£99,700
Cranhill Arts Project	City of Glasgow	The project will deliver digital photography, IT skills, and arts and crafts workshops two evenings a week for 240 children in Cranhill, Glasgow. It will increase confidence, provide better communication skills and encourage self-expression.	£21,600
Creetown Initiative	Dumfries and Galloway	This project will provide a wide range of youth work activities for young people living in rural isolated locations in Dumfries and Galloway. It will increase self-belief, support social development and learn new skills.	£77,634
CrossReach	City of Glasgow	Therapeutic play sessions for children who have a parent in prison, to take place during prison visits. Children will feel less stressed and more confident, have happier visits, and improve relationships with their families.	£51,673
Crossroads Youth &amp; Community Association	City of Glasgow	This project will deliver a range of youth work activities for 75 young people each week, complemented by residential experiences. Delivering in Gorbals, Glasgow, the project will increase confidence, improve health and develop life skills.	£103,855

Cyrenians	City of Edinburgh	This project will help young people, mainly living in kinship care, to resolve family conflicts. Young people will be happier and more confident, improve communication and conflict resolution skills, and improve relationships with their families.	£85,004
Dads Rock	City of Edinburgh	A day trip for a group of primary-school age children and their dads who live in an area with multiple challenges. Children will have fun, strengthen friendships, and build their relationships with their fathers.	£742
Dance House	City of Glasgow	Weekly dance, drama and arts activities, centre based and out in the community, for children living in an area with multiple challenges. They will be more confident, learn new creative and personal skills, and improve relationships with their community.	£8,300
Deaf Action	City of Edinburgh	This project will bring together young deaf people, siblings and friends from across Edinburgh, Fife, Lothian and the Borders to promote independence, self-esteem and confidence through a programme of activities.	£110,257
Deaf Connections	City of Glasgow	50 children of deaf adults who acts as carers and deaf young carers will take part in a homework club, gain qualifications, enjoy activity days, access specialist support and develop befriending relationships.	£126,258
Disability Shetland	Shetland	Clubs and activities for disabled children and young people in Shetland, in locations across the islands. They will have fun and make friends, be less isolated, improve their social and communication skill, be more confident and active.	£99,722
Disabled &amp; Carers Information Centre Association	City of Dundee	This project helps young carers living in Dundee, with one to one and group support and activities. They will be happier, more confident, better able to cope with their situation and less socially isolated.	£83,257
Drumchapel Disabled Action 2	City of Glasgow	This project will provide a youth club for young people with a learning disability to support them to make friends, have fun and take part in activities that will improve health and increase independent living skills.	£110,429
Drumchapel Table Tennis Club	City of Glasgow	This project delivers table tennis activities in Glasgow schools at lunch time and after school every weekday. Participants will improve confidence, fitness levels, social skills and encourage positive relationships at the same time as learning new skills	£9,800

Drylaw Neighbour Centre	City of Edinburgh	Weekly after-school activity clubs and holiday playschemes for children living in an area of economic and social challenges. They will have fun, be more confident, healthier and happier, and improve their social skills.	£30,000
Dunbartonshire Disability Sports Club	West Dunbartonshire	This project will deliver a multi-sports club for young disabled people during term time. The young people will participate in a range of activities including football, basketball & swimming to reduce isolation, increase physical activity and confidence.	£48,650
Dundee &amp; Angus ADHD Support Group	City of Dundee	This project runs weekly sports and other activities in evenings and school holidays for children who have ADHD. They will have fun, make friends, learn how to build good relationships, and how to manage their behaviour, feelings and emotions.	£94,864
Dunedin Canmore Housing Association	City of Edinburgh	This project runs drop-in youth cafés for young people from disadvantaged areas who may have complex needs or be at risk of school exclusion. Social events and activities will help them to be more confident and go on to further education or employment.	£105,353
Dunoon Baptist Church	Argyll and Bute	Establish a new youth facility in Dunoon to give young people a safe space and engage them with fun activities. 100 young people will have a better sense of self, be less likely to misuse alcohol and have more positive relationships with others.	£27,100
Durness Development Group	Highland	A youth group for young people living in an extremely remote rural area where there are no facilities, low incomes and risk of alcohol misuse. Regular activities and trips will help them be less isolated, more confident and improve their social skills.	£27,500
Earthtime For All Ltd	Moray	Partnered with Ladybird Group this project will deliver an inclusive forest school programme for a range of young people in Elgin including those with Down's syndrome and autism. Outdoor play will be fun, improve wellbeing and create friendships	£8,419
East Ayrshire Women's Aid	East Ayrshire	This project will provide health & wellbeing groups, family sessions, trips and cookery classes for vulnerable young people affected by domestic abuse. Participants will feel safe, improve their self belief and improve family relationships.	£20,360

Eczema Outreach (Scotland)	All Scotland	This project runs clubs, trips, activities, events and gives individual support for children and young people with eczema across Scotland. They will feel happier and more confident, be less isolated and increase their self-esteem and communication skills.	£99,986
Edinburgh City Youth Cafe	City of Edinburgh	Weekly evening drop-in sessions, giving a safe place and support for vulnerable young people facing a variety of challenges. They will be protected from harm, develop skills to increase their confidence and improve life chances, and improve relationships.	£30,000
Edinburgh Young Carers Project	City of Edinburgh	Support for young carers, with both one-to-one sessions and group activities. They will be happier, less stressed or anxious, have more friends and be less isolated, improve coping skills and resilience, and engage and achieve more at school.	£84,789
Eighteen &amp; Under	City of Dundee	Weekly volunteer-led group support for young people who have experienced abuse, including trips, discussions and activities. They will be more confident, have improved mental health and well-being, develop new skills and increase positive relationships.	£10,000
Eildon West Youth Hub (TD1 Youth Hub)	Borders	This project will run sports activities, drop-in and outreach services for young people in a rural area with high unemployment, low incomes and issues with alcohol etc. They will be healthier, have greater access to information and engage more.	£77,559
Elgin Youth Development Group	Moray	This project will organise activities for 500 young people from Elgin and surrounding areas focusing on cooking healthy meals, eating a balanced diet and making physical activity an integral part of their lifestyles.	£98,776
Ellen MacArthur Cancer Trust	North Ayrshire	This project will provide opportunities for young people across Scotland who are in remission from cancer. The sailing activities in Largs will help them become more confident, independent and resilient and support their reengagement with education.	£98,649
Escape Youth Services	Borders	This project runs drop-in sessions and volunteering for young people in areas with multiple challenges including low incomes and lack of facilities. They will be more confident, develop new skills, improve social skills and have better future prospects.	£80,444
FABB Scotland	All Scotland	Outdoor activity days and residential breaks for disabled children and young people, occasionally with their families. They will	£118,261

		increase social skills, make friends, have fun and take part in challenging physical activities which will improve confidence.
Falkirk &amp; District Association for Mental Health	Falkirk	A counselling service for children and young people experiencing a range of mental health issues. This will help them to understand how to deal with their feelings, improve emotional and mental health, and improve self-esteem and confidence.	£30,000
Families Outside	Aberdeenshire	Young people affected by having a parent in HMP Grampian prison will participate in sport and creative activities at the prison family centre and in the community. They will improve relationships, be physically active and develop skills.	£125,956
Family Action In Rogerfield &amp; Easterhouse (FARE)	City of Glasgow	This project will plan, develop and deliver a range of youth work activities for 180 young people in Easterhouse. It will improve confidence, encourage healthy eating by enhancing cooking skills and reduce participation in anti-social behaviour.	£88,091
Family and Community Development West Lothian	West Lothian	Weekly activity clubs, a holiday programme and residential trips, for children and young people living in an area with many disadvantages. This inclusive project will help them to be happier and healthier, to make friends, and have a safe place to go.	£105,024
Fersands &amp; Fountain Playscheme	City of Aberdeen	Junior youth clubs and after school activities including arts and crafts, outings and sports, for children and young people living in an area of disadvantage. They will feel happier, more confident and included, be healthier, make friends and have fun.	£30,000
Fet-Lor Youth Club	City of Edinburgh	Drop-in youth club sessions for young people living in an area with multiple challenges. Young people will plan and take part in a variety of activities, helping them to be happier, healthier, improve relationships with others and feel empowered.	£30,000
Fife Women's Aid	Fife	This project will help families who have experienced domestic abuse. Support will be given before and after school and in holidays, so children and mothers will feel safe and secure, improve family relationships and reduce stress.	£118,102
Fife Young Carers	Fife	A range of one to one and group support and fun activities for young carers in Fife. They will have fun, make friends and feel supported, be more confident and independent, and be better able to cope with emotions and practical situations.	£88,918

Firsthand Lothian	City of Edinburgh	A befriending service for disabled children and young people. Children will have fun by doing a wide variety of activities, be more confident, make friends, improve their social skills and have better family relationships.	£29,896
Forest school Muddy Adventures	North Lanarkshire	This project will provide outdoor forest school activities including crafts, baby yoga, den building & story-telling for babies & toddlers living in a deprived area. They will improve relationships with their mothers, develop confidence and life skills.	£29,766
Free Wheel North	City of Glasgow	This project provides accessible cycling opportunities for disabled young people using Free Wheel North's wide range of pedal cycles and their own protected cycle track on Glasgow Green. It will improve mobility, increase confidence and enhance motivation	£10,000
Friends of the Award in Edinburgh and the Lothians (FOTA)	City of Edinburgh	This project will support 150 young people facing a variety of challenges to participate in the Duke of Edinburgh Awards Scheme in and around Edinburgh. It will improve mental health and confidence, develop life skills and promote community engagement.	£53,569
Fuse Youth Cafe Glasgow	City of Glasgow	This project will establish a healthy living project delivering cooking and exercise classes in Glasgow's East End. It will improve health, increase confidence and support healthier lifestyle choices.	£105,200
Geeza Break	City of Glasgow	This project will provide a range of play activities for children living with kinship carers in an area of low income and deprivation. They will have fun, make friends and improve their self-esteem.	£103,748
Getting Better Together Ltd	North Lanarkshire	This project will provide a programme of social, recreational and information-based activities for 2,170 children and young people in Shotts, North Lanarkshire. Improved health, developing new skills and increased physical activity will all be supported.	£111,361
Gillespie Centre Association	South Lanarkshire	120 children and young people from low income families in and around Biggar, South Lanarkshire, will learn cooking skills, menu planning and nutrition at a community cafe. They will be healthier, have more independence and learn new skills.	£29,760

Girvan Youth Trust	South Ayrshire	This project will provide activities and trips for young people with additional support needs who are socially isolated. The young people will have fun, develop resilience and independence. They will also make new friends.	£30,000
Girvan Youth Trust	South Ayrshire	This project will deliver youth work activities and provide drop-in sessions for 60 young people per week in Girvan, South Ayrshire. Participants will be more confident, have better communication skills and have higher aspirations.	£84,140
Givin' it Laldie	City of Glasgow	This project will run a choir for children living in an area of high unemployment and low incomes, also affected by drug and alcohol issues and sectarianism. The children will be happier and more confident and make friends from different communities.	£30,114
Glasgow Eagles Special Needs Sports Club	City of Glasgow	This project will deliver a range of activities including walking football/basketball, touch rugby, cricket, badminton, short tennis, table tennis & athletics for physical and learning disabled young people. They will have fun, get fit & learn new skills.	£2,460
Glenboig Neighbourhood House	North Lanarkshire	362 children and young people from the rural ex-mining community of Glenboig, North Lanarkshire, will take part in physical activity, learn new skills and make healthier choices through taking part in a varied programme of activities and groups.	£105,890
Gorbals Youth Brass Band	City of Glasgow	The project will deliver weekly music tuition and rehearsals for two youth brass bands from the Gorbals in Glasgow. 30 children aged 8-10 will learn to express themselves creatively, work as a team and take part in new experiences.	£16,116
Gorbals Youth Run Drop In Cafe (Gorbals Youth Cafe)	City of Glasgow	This project will enable 24 young people to train as youth workers in a programme that offers support, development and work experience. The NEET young people will gain skills, build relationships and improve expectations for themselves.	£30,000
Govan Community Project	City of Glasgow	180 children and young people from families seeking asylum or who are refugees will access a twice-weekly homework club in Glasgow. They will engage more with education, have a deeper understanding of their identity and feel more happy and confident.	£29,511
Govan Home &amp; Education Link Project (HELP)	City of Glasgow	This project will provide a play therapy service to 225 children aged 3-12 in Govan, Glasgow. It will improve relationships, increase engagement in education and increase resilience.	£109,845

Grampian Regional Equality Council Ltd	City of Aberdeen	A counselling and support service for children and young people affected by racial abuse, bullying, all kinds of discrimination and harassment. It will help build confidence and self-esteem and they will feel happier, safe and more settled.	£40,105
Grangemouth High School	Falkirk	A programme of trips and outdoor activities designed to introduce young people who are autistic or have other learning difficulties to new challenges and experiences. They will develop independence, social and communication skills and be more confident.	£2,800
Granton Youth Centre	City of Edinburgh	This project will provide drop-in sessions and activities for young people from an area with multiple social and economic challenges. They will be more confident, learn new skills, participate more in their local community and raise their aspirations.	£116,948
Headroom	Fife	A programme of workshops for young women who are at risk of eating disorders or mental health issues. Through weekly groups and completing a positive challenge they will improve their self-image, self-esteem and confidence, and will build up life-skills.	£9,640
Healthy Valleys	South Lanarkshire	A healthy living project for 240 young people living in challenging circumstances in South Lanarkshire. Healthy living activities, clubs, events and outings will improve wellbeing and behaviour, build confidence and new skills, and raise aspirations.	£113,531
Hear My Music	South Lanarkshire	One to one music sessions for up to 20 autistic children and young people aged between 5 and 15 in Glasgow. The project will support them to express their emotions, develop musical talent and nurture positive relationships.	£30,000
Hearts &amp; Minds	City of Edinburgh	Clowndoctors use performing arts to interact with children and young people who are disabled or ill, in schools, hospitals, residential care and hospices across Scotland. They will reduce stress and anxiety, improve communication skills and have fun.	£87,912
Helensburgh and Lomond Young Carers Initiative	Argyll and Bute	Through a combination of 121support, group activities and study groups young carers living in a rural area will make friends, improve mental health and increase in confidence. Homework and CV support will also improve their future employability prospects.	£52,847

Hibernian Community Foundation	City of Edinburgh	Weekly physical activity and healthy eating sessions for young children and their families who live in areas with social and economic challenges. Children will have fun, be healthier, make friends, improve family relationships, and learn new skills.	£9,040
Home-Start Glasgow South	City of Glasgow	Across Glasgow's South-side, 700 vulnerable children each year will benefit from an expansion of group work activities (including Dads Group, Mums and Tots, English sessions) and Creative Play sessions as well as weekly volunteer visits to families' homes	£129,037
Home-Start Kirkcaldy	Fife	Weekly family groups for children under 5 and their parents or carers, affected by social and economic challenges and family difficulties. Children and parents will learn to play together, be more confident, improve social skills and have fun.	£15,831
Home-Start West Lothian	West Lothian	This project will run family support groups and trips for families with young children facing a variety of challenges. The children will be happier, more confident, learn social skills and how to make friends.	£29,910
Hope to Oban	Argyll and Bute	80 young people from Argyll's more remote islands will benefit from mentoring and youth work activities while staying at the hostel for Oban High School. The project will build self-esteem, increase confidence and improve engagement with education.	£30,000
Hot Chocolate Trust	City of Dundee	This project runs open drop-in and group sessions, trips and individual support for vulnerable young people living in a disadvantaged area. They will be more confident, understand their feelings, make better choices and have positive goals.	£117,842
Ignite Theatre	City of Glasgow	This project will deliver drama activities for children and young people aged 8-18 in Knightswood and Netherton in Glasgow. It will reduce isolation, increase confidence and enhance life skills	£80,400
Impact Arts (Projects) Ltd	City of Glasgow	This project will build the confidence and aspirations of children in the East end of Glasgow with families affected by drug and/or alcohol addiction. They will participate in fun, creative group activities that are therapeutic & 1-2-1 Art Therapy support	£45,300
In The Making Glasgow	City of Glasgow	Weekly after-school creative workshops and opportunity to achieve arts awards for young people from an area of disadvantage. They will be more confident and motivated, learn new creative and personal skills, make friends and improve community relations.	£30,000

Indepen-dance (Scotland) Ltd	City of Glasgow	The project will deliver creative movement classes for 72 disabled children and young people in Glasgow, Clydebank and across North Lanarkshire. They will have the chance to perform, express themselves creatively and increase their confidence.	£30,000
Interest Link Borders	Borders	This project will help young people with a range of disabilities and complex needs by providing the support of volunteer befrienders and access to activities. They will have fun, make friends, be happier and more confident and learn new life skills.	£93,415
ISARO Social Integration Network	West Dunbartonshire	30 Roma children and young people will access an afterschool Creative Kidz Club and homework support in Clydebank, West Dunbartonshire. The project will develop both life and social skills, build positive relationships and empower participants.	£29,700
Islay &amp; Jura Community Enterprises Ltd	Argyll and Bute	This project will deliver weekly zero gravity Aquacare warm water therapy sessions with games, exercises for 10 young people with autism, learning or physical disabilities. Young people will develop skills, increase physical activity and make friends.	£24,239
Jack &amp; Jill Support Group Bellshill	North Lanarkshire	37 disabled children and their siblings will access fun activities including an allotment club, young carers group and training courses in Bellshill. Participants will feel emotionally well, positively empowered and promote positive relationships	£30,000
Jack Kane Community Education Centre	City of Edinburgh	The project will work with 13 young people affected by living in a deprived community. Through a targeted and supportive volunteering scheme the young people will develop skills, increase confidence and improve relationships with others.	£21,356
Kaimes Special School Association	City of Edinburgh	This project provides ski lessons and trips for children with autism or ASD. It helps them to be more confident, to have fun, and learn how to cope with accessing activities along with other children and the general public.	£62,367
Kidney Kids Scotland	All Scotland	This project provides a residential for children with nephrotic syndrome, facing a kidney transplant or dialysis and their families to attend a weekend residential. They will learn about their condition in a relaxed environment, make friends and have fun.	£30,000
Kilwinning Community Sports Club	North Ayrshire	This project will provide a breakfast club for children and young people from an area of multiple deprivation and football training for children and young people with additional support needs. It will improve participants' health and confidence.	£31,620

Kintyre Youth Enquiry Service	Argyll and Bute	This project will provide a range of support and diversionary activities for young people in a rural area. It will increase confidence, develop new skills and improve leadership skills.	£57,610
Lanarkshire Deaf Club	North Lanarkshire	100 children from across Lanarkshire who are deaf or have family members who are deaf will have access to a monthly club that mixes fun and practical activities. It will improve communication skills, increase confidence and encourage new friendships.	£10,000
LGBT Youth Scotland	City of Glasgow	150 LGBT+ young people will have access to a range of youth groups, individual support, influence decision makers and take part in volunteering opportunities each year. The project will increase their confidence, build resilience and broaden perspectives	£107,805
Liber8 Lanarkshire Ltd	South Lanarkshire	To provide youth outreach three nights a week to 60 young people at risk of alcohol or substance misuse on the streets in South Lanarkshire. It will increase understanding of alcohol/substance misuse, empower young people and improve life skills.	£29,997
LINK - East Fife Mental Health Befriending Project	Fife	A befriending service supporting children and young people experiencing mental health issues. They will be more confident, improve social skills and resilience, have better relationships with others and be more able to go on to positive futures.	£70,160
LINKES	City of Glasgow	This project will deliver regular youth groups, a holiday playscheme and other seasonal activities in Knightswood, Glasgow. It will increase confidence, improve health and reduce isolation.	£73,865
Loft Youth Project	Moray	This project helps young people living in a rural area with few opportunities and little youth provision. It runs a variety of activities and training that will increase confidence, teach life skills, be creative and provide a space to socialise.	£160,348
LoveMilton	City of Glasgow	This project will deliver arts, citizenship and community development activities for 20 young people each week in Milton, Glasgow. It will increase confidence, improve peer relationships and raise expectations of selves.	£39,900
Lyra	City of Edinburgh	An arts programme including theatre, music, art, dance and multimedia opportunities, for children living in an area of multiple disadvantages. They will be more confident, learn new	£52,050

		practical and life skills, and have improved aspirations for the future.
Machan Trust	South Lanarkshire	This project will provide breakfast & lunch clubs, play & support groups, afterschool club and a youth leadership programme for young people living in an area of deprivation. Young people will gain life skills, feel part of a community and more resilient.	£30,000
Machan Trust	South Lanarkshire	This project will provide four breakfast clubs, four after school clubs and four evening clubs five days a week throughout the year. It will increase resilience, improve life chances and improve confidence.	£96,613
Macrobert Arts Centre Ltd	Stirling	A programme of arts activities and workshops for children who are disabled or from disadvantaged areas. They will be more confident, make friends and improve their communication and creative skills.	£83,468
Maggie Keswick Jencks Cancer Caring Centres Trust (Maggie's)	All Scotland	This project will provide four children and young people focused days each year at each of the eight Maggie's Centres across Scotland. It will help to make sense of a challenging situation, reduce isolation and improve confidence.	£61,038
Maryhill Mobile Children's Services	City of Glasgow	This project will provide respite crèche care to children under 3 in the Maryhill area of Glasgow who may be living in difficult family circumstances. Sensory play will help develop their social, motor and relationship skills and increase confidence.	£84,222
Maxwelltown Information Centre	City of Dundee	A garden club in school holidays and after-school, for children living in an area of multiple challenges. They will have a safe place to come, be more active, learn to grow and cook healthy food and be empowered to deal with the challenges in their lives.	£61,500
Mayfield &amp; Easthouses Youth 2000 Project	Mid Lothian	This project works with young people who are at risk of low achievement. They will be able to address the issues affecting them, take part in youth awards and community projects, develop skills, be more confident and have positive futures.	£86,307
Merkinch Partnership Ltd.	Highland	This project will deliver weekly multi-sport activities, trips, cycling proficiency and health sessions for young people negatively affected by living in a deprived area. The young people will be feel more confident, make friends and be physically active.	£60,000

Methilhill Community Children's Initiative	Fife	This project will deliver a youth club based in a garden promoting natural learning e.g. growing vegetables and outdoor cooking. The young people affected by living in a deprived area will develop new skills linked to healthier lifestyles & confidence.	£21,920
Middlefield Community Project	City of Aberdeen	This project will provide holiday playschemes for under fives in Middlefield, Aberdeen. Participants will play, have fun, make new friends and create memories.	£4,000
Midlothian Young People's Advice Service	Mid Lothian	One-to-one and group art therapy to help young people with a variety of mental health issues. They will be happier and more confident, cope better with their feelings and improve their relationships with friends and family.	£97,821
Mindspace Limited	Perth and Kinross	A programme of group support and counselling sessions to support young people experiencing a range of mental health issues in Perth and Kinross. This will help them to understand and cope with their feelings, build confidence and improve relationships.	£137,424
Monklands Womens Aid	North Lanarkshire	Two group activity sessions delivered weekly complemented by trips for 65 children and young people affected by domestic abuse in North Lanarkshire. It will promote healthy relationships, improve understanding of their own safety and improve coping skills	£10,000
Move On Ltd	City of Edinburgh	A mentoring service for young people affected by homelessness or living in care, matching with adults or peer mentors. They will be more confident, increase self-esteem, have higher aspirations and achieve goals towards future education or employment.	£97,445
Muirhouse Youth Development Group	City of Edinburgh	A mobile "play-den" and youth space, for children and young people living in an area with multiple challenges. It will provide a safe space for them to improve their health, self-esteem and aspirations, build friendships and pride in their community.	£28,600
Newton Wallacetown Church of Scotland, Newton Youth Ministries (RoomSixty Project)	South Ayrshire	This grant will offer after school drop in sessions, football and other activities to young people living in North Ayr in an area of high unemployment. The activities will enable young people to meet in a safe environment, mix with peers and have fun.	£68,410
North Berwick Youth Project Ltd	East Lothian	This project will provide a weekly youth club for young people with a range of learning disabilities. They will have fun, work as a team, develop social skills and be more independent.	£8,307

North Glasgow Community Food Initiative	City of Glasgow	40 children and young people from Milton, Glasgow, will access a twice-weekly afterschool gardening project in the local community garden. They will have the chance to socialise, eat, learn about healthy eating and be more active in the community.	£30,000
North United Communities Ltd	City of Glasgow	A youth theatre and arts activities with weekly sessions and performances for young people living in an inner city area with low incomes and many challenges. It will help them be more confident, learn new skills and raise their aspirations.	£112,479
Oban Youth Cafe Project Ltd	Argyll and Bute	This project will provide 360 young people living in rural areas in and around Oban with access to youth services and groups. The young people will have increased confidence, be healthier and form positive relationships.	£91,080
Ocean Youth Trust Scotland	Argyll and Bute	Young carers from Falkirk and Helensburgh will experience residential, 5-day sail training voyages during the school holidays. They will build confidence and self-esteem, feel less isolated and acquire new transferable skills.	£29,061
Orkney Alcohol Counselling &amp; Advisory Service	Orkney	A counselling service for children and young people experiencing mental health issues while living in remote island communities. They will be more confident, improve relationships, communication and social skills, and re-engage with education or training.	£62,500
Ormlie Community Association Ltd	Highland	Weekly group activities and trips for young children and their parents who live in isolated rural areas and are faced with multiple social and economic challenges. Children will learn new skills, be healthier, and family relationships will be improved.	£70,113
Oxgangs Neighbourhood Centre	City of Edinburgh	This project will run Baby and Toddler groups for low income families who face a number of social and financial challenges. They will have fun, improve family relationships and physical health, plus develop their readiness to learn.	£28,647
Paragon Ensemble Ltd	City of Glasgow	36 disabled children will access specialised tuition on a range of instruments in Glasgow, leading up to performances in arts venues and concert halls. Participants will have increased confidence, independence and communication skills.	£19,876
Parent Action For Safe Play	North Lanarkshire	This project will deliver outdoor free play sessions for young people from deprived areas and also from migrant and asylum seeking families. The regular sessions will increase health, skills and self esteem of the young people.	£121,635

Park Villa Football Development Group	City of Glasgow	Three football sessions each week will be delivered to benefit 90 children and young people from Govan in Glasgow. Participants will be physically safer, have improved health and fitness levels and be encouraged to have more positive relationships.	£28,260
Parkhead Youth Project	City of Glasgow	This project provides youth services for young people affected by living in a deprived area in North East Glasgow. Through attending weekly clubs the young people will increase in confidence, make informed life choices and have increased aspirations.	£44,942
Partners In Advocacy	City of Glasgow	To provide bespoke, independent advocacy work for 60 children and young people who are slipping through the gaps of existing provision in Glasgow. They will be empowered, develop positive relationships and increase their self-belief.	£67,008
Paws for Progress CIC	City of Edinburgh	This project will help young people who have difficulties engaging socially including those with ADHD, dyspraxia and autism. By training dogs the young people will learn to develop positive relationships, improve social skills, and increase wellbeing.	£83,700
Peeblesshire Youth Trust	Borders	A programme of support for vulnerable young people in a rural area in transition to high school. A series of activities and trips will help them build emotional resilience and life skills, become more confident, make friends and achieve their potential.	£9,530
Perth &amp; Kinross ADHD Support Group	Perth and Kinross	This project will provide 1-2-1 support and weekly group activities for young people with ADHD and their siblings. The regular sessions will help to increase their self-esteem and reduce risky behaviour.	£29,500
Perth Autism Support	Perth and Kinross	Weekly clubs and activities for autistic children and young people and their siblings. They will have fun, be more confident, make friends, improve their social skills, and be more able to take part in other activities in their communities.	£82,025
PKAVS	Perth and Kinross	This service works with young carers to develop their confidence and self-esteem, increase opportunities to make friends and have fun. Support is shaped by the needs of the young person such as respite opportunities, outreach and 1:1 support.	£77,196
Plantation Productions	City of Glasgow	This project will deliver a programme of arts, crafts, filmmaking, music and cultural exploration for 166 children and young	£102,315

		people in Govan, Glasgow. It improve social skills, enhance creative skills and increase confidence.
Play Alloa	Clackmannanshire	Saturday Clubs in Alloa and Tillicoultry for children with complex support needs, providing arts and crafts, music, dance, physical and outdoor activities. They will have fun and make friends, improve their social skills, be more confident and independent.	£92,506
Play Midlothian	Mid Lothian	Easter and summer holiday playschemes with trips and activities for young people living in low income areas. They will be more confident, make friends, be healthy and active, improve their social skills and have fun.	£29,789
PLUS (Forth Valley) Ltd	Falkirk	A range of support for disabled children, young people and their families in the Falkirk area, with sessions for parents and toddlers, play and youth activities, family and information days. Children will have fun, make friends and be more confident.	£8,700
Positive Help	City of Edinburgh	This befriending service works with young people living day to day with HIV and/or Hepatitis C. Through regular support from a befriender the young person will have fun, feel supported and have improved expectations for the future.	£115,869
Possibilities for Each and Every Kid (PEEK)	City of Glasgow	This project will provide a Play Cafe for under 5s, theatre clubs for three age groups, after school activities and a holiday programme in North East Glasgow. It will increase confidence, encourage friendships and improve social and leadership skills.	£90,000
Possilpark Children's Summer Camp	City of Glasgow	32 children from North Glasgow will take part in a week long summer camp each year where they will try a range of activities including horse riding, canoeing and climbing to increase confidence, life skills and make new friends.	£30,000
Possibilities	City of Glasgow	45 disabled young people to become supported volunteers and pursue their interests in cooking, administration, bus escorting, marketing or computers. It will promote independent living by learning new skills, gaining confidence and enhancing employability	£29,904
Printfield Community Project-Forum	City of Aberdeen	Play sessions for very young children living in an area with multiple challenges. Children will have the opportunity to learn in a fun environment, will be more confident, happier and healthier, and improve their social skills.	£29,704

Printfield Community Project-Forum	City of Aberdeen	This project will run after school and holiday activities for children living in an area with multiple disadvantages. They will be happier, healthier and more confident, have improved self-esteem and better community relationships.	£73,268
Project 31 SCIO	South Lanarkshire	This project will deliver regular free play activity for children and young people in an area of multiple deprivation, supporting them to improve their confidence and have better relationships with their families	£74,710
Project Ability	City of Glasgow	33 disabled children and young people in Glasgow will access weekly tuition in painting, printmaking, textiles, sculpture, ceramics and drawing. Participants will have improved self belief, emotional wellbeing and more positive relationships.	£19,764
Quarriers	City of Glasgow	This early intervention project will deliver play, storytelling, drawing and discussions with 618 children identified from 14 nurseries in Glasgow. It will improve social development, increase life chances and support parents to support their children.	£104,256
Rape Crisis Centre Glasgow	City of Glasgow	This project will help girls and young women who are survivors of sexual abuse. In one to one counselling and group support sessions they will develop coping strategies, improve their mental health, reduce feelings of isolation and increase confidence.	£135,222
Regen:FX Youth Trust	South Lanarkshire	The Junior Street project will deliver a drama programme and residential for 30 young people each year facing many challenges in South Lanarkshire. Supported by Peer Educators, they will build confidence and life skills and feel less isolated.	£98,369
Reidvale Adventure Play Association Ltd	City of Glasgow	Children and young people disadvantaged by social or economic deprivation or with additional support needs will be supported to play and have fun. It will increase confidence, improve physical health and enhance life experience.	£92,940
Reidvale Neighbourhood Centre	City of Glasgow	45 children and young people from Dennistoun, Glasgow, will access a fun holiday programme involving day trips and indoor activities at their youth hub. They will gain confidence, new transferable skills and increase their independence.	£9,511
Relationships Scotland - Family Mediation Highland	Highland	This project helps children and young people affected by their parents separation and/or family amalgamation by providing a	£47,164

		counselling service. This will help them to cope with their situations, manage their emotions and increase self-esteem.
Renfrew YMCA SCIO	Renfrewshire	Through a combination of trips/experiences, training and creative workshops young people affected by living in a deprived area will develop skills, be positively empowered and have the chance to reach their potential.	£29,946
Renfrewshire Carers Centre	Renfrewshire	This project will provide fun group activities and one to one support for children and young people with ADHD. It will increase their confidence, make and maintain friendships and improve their relationship with their families.	£29,874
Richmond's Hope, Glasgow	City of Glasgow	This project will develop and deliver a counselling support service for 212 children and young people aged 4 - 18 years disadvantaged by their experience of traumatic bereavement. It will improve relationships, coping mechanisms and communication.	£67,140
RIG Arts Ltd	Inverclyde	60 children and young people with mental health issues will access art sessions delivered twice weekly in Greenock, Inverclyde. They will have improved mental wellbeing, better relationships with others and feel more empowered.	£65,427
RockSolid Youth Project	City of Dundee	This project runs youth clubs and after-school activities for young people living in an area of disadvantage. They can also take part in volunteering and planning activities. They will be more confident, develop life skills and have fun.	£116,531
Rosemount Lifelong Learning	City of Glasgow	This project will deliver a programme of support for 25 children and young people in North East Glasgow offering information, advice, one-to-one support, group work and a holiday activity programme.	£111,911
Royal National Institute of Blind People, Scotland	Fife	An after school club for visually impaired children and young people, who may also have other disabilities. They will have fun, make friends, learn new skills and become more independent.	£91,776
Royston Youth Action	City of Glasgow	Young people in Royston, Glasgow, will be supported at a crucial time in their transition from children's' to youth activities. It will improve confidence, broaden horizons and encourage positive behaviours.	£84,593

Ruchazie Parish Church	City of Glasgow	This project will provide a range of youth work activities for 172 children and young people in Ruchazie, Glasgow. They will have increased self-esteem, be better equipped to make positive life choices and take part in more purposeful activity.	£84,957
Safe Space	Fife	This project will provide counselling and support, individually and in groups, to young people aged 12-18 affected by sexual abuse. It will help them to deal with their feelings, feel safer, happier and more confident, and reduce self-harming behaviour.	£86,684
SCOREScotland	City of Edinburgh	This project will help children from black and ethnic minority communities by providing support and activities and working with other local groups on joint projects. This will help them be more confident, feel safe, make friends and integrate with others.	£121,403
Scottish Huntingtons Association	Fife	This project will help young people affected by Huntington's disease in their family. They will have one to one support and group activities to help them cope with their situations, increase resilience, make friends and improve family relationships.	£124,492
Scottish Sports Futures	All Scotland	This three year project will support the development of a young ambassadors programme delivered in 12 locations across Scotland. It will increase confidence, encourage a healthier lifestyle and create positive role models of 108 young people.	£74,060
SKY Project	East Ayrshire	50 young people from Shortlees in Kilmarnock will access afterschool and holiday club sessions that combine sport, arts and crafts, outdoor play and trips. Participants will have fun, improve their confidence and have more positive peer relationships.	£29,740
Skye &amp; Lochalsh Community Care Forum SCIO - Young Carers Project	Highland	100 young carers on Skye and in Kyle of Lochalsh will access a programme of weekly support sessions, regular outings and residential breaks. They will feel less stressed, have increased confidence and feel more connected to their communities.	£82,672
Smart Play Network	City of Edinburgh	This project will provide Play Rangers to support outdoor play opportunities for children and young people in Bingham and Magdalene in Edinburgh. It will increase physical activity, improve confidence and encourage positive relationships while having fun.	£96,737

SNAP - Special Needs Action Project Highland	Highland	This project will provide after school and holiday activities for disabled children from a rural area. They will have fun, see friends and take part in activities that other children take for granted, so they will feel less isolated and more confident.	£36,760
SoulRiders Scotland	City of Glasgow	Soulkidz aims to empower BME young people through cycling sessions and training workshops which will increase self-esteem, physical health and sense of belonging in the community.	£88,650
South Ayrshire Befriending Project	South Ayrshire	This project will help children and young people facing a variety of challenges by providing the support of volunteer befrienders and access to activities. They will have fun, make friends, be more confident, more independent and learn new skills.	£90,000
Spartans Community Football Academy	City of Edinburgh	This project will deliver a range of after school activities and one residential for disabled children in North Edinburgh, including football, pool, cookery, arts and crafts and trips. They will have fun, be empowered and build positive relationships.	£9,657
Spartans Community Football Academy	City of Edinburgh	A Saturday morning breakfast club, Friday night youth provision and a girls group, for children and young people living in an area with multiple challenges. They will be more confident and healthier, develop new skills and have higher aspirations.	£91,200
Speech Language Communication Company (SLCo)	East Dunbartonshire	This project will run a weekly youth club for young people aged 11-18 years with speech and language barriers, where they can meet and socialise with others with similar needs. They will have fun and become more confident and independent.	£30,000
Spina Bifida Hydrocephalus Scotland	Aberdeenshire	This project will help 19 young people who have spina bifida hydrocephalus and their siblings. It will provide a one-to-one service and group activities, help them access social and leisure activities, make friends, be more confident and independent.	£75,440
St Crispin's Out of School Care Association	City of Edinburgh	This project runs an after school club for children with significant additional support needs. This helps them to have fun and make friends, be more confident, develop communication and coping skills, and promotes inclusion.	£70,215
St Pauls Youth Forum	City of Glasgow	This project will extend the reach of the young person led community radio project "BoltFM" right across North and East Glasgow. 720 children and young people will be more confident, learn transferable skills and build positive relationships.	£98,898

St Teresa's Youth Club	City of Edinburgh	This project will help young people from low income families in an area with a lack of opportunities by running weekly and holiday activities. They will learn new skills, have fun, become more confident and contribute to the community.	£50,915
Stable Life	Borders	This project will help young people experiencing stress such as poor mental health, abuse, or exclusion from school using horse centred support and therapy. They will be happier, more confident, more able to deal with their emotions and learn new skills.	£121,166
Starcatchers Productions Ltd	City of Edinburgh	Weekly creative workshops for very young children with young parents, from areas with multiple challenges in Edinburgh and Fife. By taking part in creative activities together they will be more confident, improve social skills and strengthen family bonds.	£20,000
Step by Step in Moray SCIO	Moray	This project will help very young babies and children from vulnerable families in a rural area, by providing one to one and group support and parent/child activities. This will help the children's social, emotional and physical development and happiness.	£76,740
Step Together Volunteering	Dumfries and Galloway	200 young people who are not engaging with school will access 1:1 support and group work to motivate them into local volunteering. The project will enhance their life experiences, increase life skills and improve both physical and mental wellbeing.	£30,000
Stepping Stones For Families	City of Glasgow	The project will deliver play sessions for children of migrant, refugee and asylum-seeking families based in Townhead, Glasgow. Children will increase their confidence, make friends and develop expression.	£30,000
Strathcarron Hospice	Stirling	This project runs a programme of counselling groups to help children who have been bereaved. This will help them understand and cope with their feelings, and improve their general well being and relationships with others.	£92,206
Tarbert After School Care	Argyll and Bute	35 children from low income families in Tarbert, Argyll, will have access to a holiday playscheme. Through outdoor play, cooking, arts, crafts and games they will have improved life skills, make new friends and have fun.	£15,904

Taymara	City of Dundee	This project will provide sailing activities for children affected by life limiting conditions, mainly from Dundee, Angus and Fife. It will support them to engage with others socially, encourage greater willingness to learn new skills and relieve stress.	£39,846
Tayside Council On Alcohol	Angus	This project will deliver targeted intervention groups and a residential break for children affected by substance misuse. The activities will build skills, relationships and confidence, and promote participation and self-belief.	£27,394
Tayside Council On Alcohol	City of Dundee	This project supports children in kinship placements to feel secure in their living arrangements, improve their well-being and increase social inclusion. Three levels of support is offered such as holiday programmes, 1:1 work and therapeutic interventions	£124,372
The Attic Charity SCIO	City of Dundee	This project will run a variety of clubs, groups and activities for children facing economic and social deprivation. They will be happier and more confident, make friends, learn new skills and improve their expectations for the future.	£56,306
The Avenue Childcare Services	East Ayrshire	This project will deliver wildlife drawing and gardening including growing vegetables and flowers in an outdoor garden. The children affected by living in an area of deprivation will develop strong self belief, friendships and new skills.	£20,000
The Birks Cinema Trust	Perth and Kinross	Weekly creative sessions using Lego, for children who are autistic or have other additional support needs. Working together to create an animation film will improve social and communication skills and help them to express themselves.	£29,154
The DASH Club	City of Glasgow	To provide weekly drama, sports and recreational activity sessions and holiday programmes to 65 disabled young people in Glasgow. The project will reduce isolation, promote personal and social development and improve wellbeing.	£141,900
The Drugs Initiative Group Forfar	Angus	A programme of trips and in-house activities for disadvantaged young people in Forfar to help build confidence, communication skills and positive relationships. Activities will include football, canoeing, abseiling, cooking and team building exercises.	£29,964
The Haven Caring Counselling Communication Centre	South Lanarkshire	This project will help young people affected by life limiting illness or bereavement to understand their feeling and build their confidence through peer support groups and structured	£58,508 activities.

The Jeely Piece Club	City of Glasgow	Children in the Castlemilk area of Glasgow will have increased opportunities to fun and stimulating play activities. Outreach, street and indoor play will support children to develop social skills, increase their confidence and improve well-being.	£110,371
The Jeely Piece Club	City of Glasgow	24 children from Castlemilk in Glasgow will take part in a weekend residential break, accessing activities such as canoeing, raft building and climbing. Participants will have improved health, increased confidence and more positive relationships.	£29,907
The Ladybird Development Group	Moray	This project will offer access to weekly sessions for 11 disabled children with a range of complex needs in Lossiemouth, Moray. It will improve physical development, health, life skills and communication skills.	£32,299
The Mungo Foundation	City of Glasgow	Weekly activities such as speedboating, horse riding and tubing for 46 children and young people with learning disabilities in North Ayrshire. Participants will have increased confidence, learn new skills, develop new friendships and have fun.	£30,000
The Playback Trust	City of Edinburgh	This project will run monthly activities and day-trips for children and young people who have a variety of disabilities. They will have fun, spend time with friends, be more confident and independent, be included in their community and try new things.	£74,219
The Ross County Foundation	Highland	This project will run 5-day Disability Football Festivals during school holidays which will mix football and personal development activities. Participants will have fun, build confidence and self-belief, and improve physical health and wellbeing.	£4,800
theGKexperience	City of Glasgow	This project will provide youth work activities, residential trips, one-to-one support and offer volunteer training across Glasgow. It will help children and young people increase confidence, develop new skills and increase community engagement.	£52,492
Toybox Lee Avenue	City of Glasgow	This project will provide play activities for 8,000 children visiting their fathers in HMP Barlinnie, Glasgow. It will encourage a more positive bond with their father, make prison visits a better experience, improve confidence and decrease isolation.	£56,720

Tranent Youth &amp; Community Facility	East Lothian	Groups, one to one support and a youth managers programme, for young people living in an area of multiple challenges and limited opportunities. They will be more confident, improve their health and well-being, and be actively involved in their community.	£97,716
Transition Extreme Sports Limited	City of Aberdeen	This project will provide evening skate park and BMX bike sessions for young people affected by living in areas of multiple deprivation. Young people will be physically active, develop skills and increase their confidence.	£25,500
Twechar Community Action	East Dunbartonshire	This project will provide youth work activities for 120 young people across a range of age groups in Twechar, East Dunbartonshire. It will increase confidence, develop new skills and help participants feel more connected to their community.	£71,975
Tweeddale Youth Action SCIO	Borders	This project will support vulnerable children in the transition to high school. A programme of structured activities and trips and working together with others will help them to be more confident and resilient, make friends and achieve goals.	£8,197
TYKES - The Young Karers East Sutherland	Highland	This project will help children and young people with caring responsibilities living in extremely remote rural areas. It will provide activities and support to help them be happier, more confident and independent, make friends and relieve their stress.	£57,198
Urban Roots Initiative	City of Glasgow	164 children and young people from Toryglen and Burnhill will take part in gardening, cooking, play and crafts activities after school and during the holidays in woodland. They will have improved health, confidence and have more positive relationships.	£30,000
Venchie Children &amp; Young People's Project	City of Edinburgh	Weekly breakfast and after-school clubs, plus holiday clubs, for children living in an area with social and economic challenges. They will have fun, be healthier and more confident, make friends and improve social skills.	£30,000
VIP Arts and Sports Academy (SCIO)	North Lanarkshire	185 children from low income families in Viewpark, North Lanarkshire, will take part in a "Fun, Food and Fitness" programme. Through a range of physical activities, young people will have increased confidence and be healthier in a safe space that's theirs	£30,000

Voluntary Action Shetland	Shetland	This project will provide a befriending service for young people with learning disabilities living in remote islands. Young people matched with volunteers will have fun, become more confident and independent and feel more socially included.	£99,313
Volunteer Centre Midlothian	Mid Lothian	Young people from an area with many challenges will be supported to volunteer at after school and holiday activities for younger children. They will be more confident, increase their self-esteem and develop valuable skills for the future.	£29,273
Volunteer Glasgow	City of Glasgow	This project will establish a new befriending service for 50 children and young people in North East Glasgow. It will improve their confidence, help them to be more active and connected to their community and support them to cope with any challenges.	£94,022
Volunteer Tutors' Organisation Glasgow	City of Glasgow	160 children and young people requiring further support in school will have access to free tutors in their own homes across Glasgow. The project will improve educational attainment, enhance life chances and increase confidence.	£61,250
Volunteering Matters	North Lanarkshire	90 children and young people with a range of complex needs in North Lanarkshire will participate in 5-day residential breaks delivered over the spring and summer holidays. They will have greater aspirations, make new friends and increase confidence.	£30,000
Vox Liminis	City of Glasgow	This project will run music therapy sessions for children and their families with a parent in prison. The monthly sessions will improve family relationships, creative capabilities and confidence.	£62,793
Waverley Care	City of Edinburgh	The project will reduce isolation, increase self-esteem and develop the coping strategies of young people affected by HIV and AIDS by providing group and one-to-one meetings, activities and trips away.	£129,732
Wellbeing Scotland	Stirling	Support for children and young people affected by abuse and trauma, with one to one counselling, art and play therapy and group work. Young people will be happier, less stressed, have skills to keep safe and cope with feelings, and improve relationships.	£96,220
Wellspring Ltd	City of Edinburgh	Weekly group and individual sessions to address issues affecting children from BME and migrant communities in Leith. Sessions will be fun and varied and will improve self-esteem,	£9,784 communication, confidence and integration.

West Lothian Drug &amp; Alcohol Service	West Lothian	This project will provide counselling for young people who have experienced bereavement. It will provide a safe space to explore their feelings, help them come to terms with loss, reduce risk of harmful behaviour and increase engagement with education.	£111,390
West Lothian Youth Foundation	West Lothian	This project will run weekly sports activities for disabled children. It will help them to be healthier and fitter, improve social skills and make friends, give a sense of achievement and improve aspirations for the future.	£10,000
Wester Hailes Youth Agency	City of Edinburgh	Drop-in youth club sessions for primary school age children living in an area with many disadvantages, where they can have fun in a safe environment. They will be more confident, improve their social skills, team-working skills and resilience.	£66,783
Whale Arts	City of Edinburgh	This project will run street art sessions for young people from an area with limited opportunities. This will help them to be more creative and confident, reduce any risky behaviour and encourage them to take part in and be proud of their local community.	£81,989
Wholistic Life - Coaching for Kids	South Lanarkshire	This wellness centre will deliver informal coaching/counselling, peer mentoring, mediation and yoga for young people with mental health problems living in a deprived area. They will increase confidence and be better able to manage their mental health.	£10,000
Wiston Lodge	South Lanarkshire	Young people experiencing a range of challenges will create an interpretive trail at Wiston Lodge, South Lanarkshire . The Path of The Little People will increase confidence, inspire pride in personal achievements and encourage fun and learning.	£80,065
With Kids (Formerly the Big Issue Foundation Scotland)	City of Glasgow	This project will establish a Play Therapy service in the East End of Glasgow for children who have experienced trauma or adverse circumstances. It will support them to manage their emotions, increase their confidence and strengthen family relationships.	£93,000
Women's Aid Dumfriesshire &amp; Stewartry	Dumfries and Galloway	This project will provide regular activities, outings and trips for 180 young people affected by domestic abuse in Dumfries & Galloway. The activities will be fun, develop confidence and positive relationships, and improve emotional wellbeing.	£13,500

Women's Aid Dundee	City of Dundee	This project will run school holiday activities for young people who have been affected by domestic violence. This will help them to be more confident, develop their social skills and feel less isolated.	£54,230
Women's Aid East Dunbartonshire	East Dunbartonshire	This project will decorate and furnish the new bedrooms in permanent homes of 30 children and young people affected by domestic violence in East Dunbartonshire. It will encourage self expression, improve behaviour and help them feel safe.	£29,400
Women's Aid Glasgow	City of Glasgow	40 children and young people in Glasgow affected by domestic abuse and moving from refuge to a new home will be supported to choose furnishings and fittings for their new bedroom. They will feel safer, better emotionally and better able to make choices.	£10,000
Women's Aid Hemat Gryffe	City of Glasgow	This project will provide resources, trips, activities, celebrations and bedroom decoration for BME children affected by domestic violence. They will better understand their feelings, develop healthier relationships and better understand domestic abuse.	£10,000
Women's Aid West Lothian	West Lothian	This project will provide support for young people affected by domestic abuse. This will be through group work, 1:1 work and a buddy system. Young people will feel safe, be more resilient and improve their relationships.	£29,610
Yard Adventure Centre	City of Edinburgh	This project will provide supported play sessions for disabled children and their families in Edinburgh, Dundee & Kirkcaldy. It will help the young people to increase confidence, develop new skills and have fun with others.	£99,005
YMCA Dumfries	Dumfries and Galloway	This project will deliver a wide range of youth work activities for 400 children and young people in North West Dumfries. It will improve health, encourage positive lifestyle choices and broaden horizons.	£82,928
YMCA Kirkcaldy	Fife	A holiday playscheme including sports, arts, music and trips for children living in a disadvantaged area and facing challenging circumstances. The children will have fun and make friends, be more confident, learn new skills and feel cared for.	£79,346
YMCA Paisley	Renfrewshire	Through access to digital and technical workshops young people affected by living in a deprived area will develop coding skills, confidence and reach their potential. In the Maker Space	£28,350

		they will learn to create websites, gaming apps and films.
YMCA Tain &amp; District	Highland	This project runs a youth cafe and outreach youth work for young people living in remote rural areas. They will benefit from a reduction in isolation, improved social skills and greater community engagement.	£55,397
YMCA Tollcross	City of Glasgow	Youth work sessions five nights a week across a range of age groups in the east end of Glasgow, complemented by residential weekend breaks. 88 participants will feel more empowered, learn new skills and have improved physical and mental health.	£27,030
YoMo Glasgow	City of Glasgow	1,560 young people take part in a peer education programme to deliver an anti-bullying course three sessions a week across North East and North West Glasgow. They will increase confidence, better understand their emotions and feel positively empowered.	£30,000
Young Peoples Futures	City of Glasgow	This project will provide a range of youth work activities for 200 young people per week in Possil, Glasgow. It will increase the physical, mental health and wellbeing of young people, increase confidence and encourage active learning.	£86,865
YPeople (Calm Project)	City of Glasgow	This project will provide a group work programme to support existing counselling and mentoring for 115 young people referred by Community Safety Glasgow. It will increase confidence, broaden horizons and help to better manage their emotions.	£71,826
Yusuf Youth Initiative	City of Dundee	This project will work with marginalised young people from BME communities in an area of deprivation. Through weekly activities and an annual residential trip, the young people will be more confident and feel a part of the community.	£36,150
Zone Initiative Limited	East Ayrshire	This project will provide structured play activities in Dalmellington, East Ayrshire for children affected by multiple disadvantages. Participants will improve their social skills, take part in physical activities and feel less lonely.	£75,000