

Episode 5: Daisy Plays Detective!

Daisy: I know, this is about you and Johnny!
Isn't it time you two made up?

Is Daisy right? Has she discovered the truth about Amanda? Go to episode 6 to find out!

Make up

Meaning: If you and another person make up, it means you renew a relationship after an argument or misunderstanding. It usually means that you have talked to the person and are on good terms now.

Grammar: This phrasal verb cannot usually be separated from its particle, except by the pronoun it, where it is used to refer to a friendship or relationship.

Jo and Lisa made up

They made up

They made it up

~~They made up it~~

Example sentence: I'm so glad that you two have talked about your differences and decided to make up.

Synonyms: repair a friendship, make amends, make good, start over, settle your differences, renew a friendship, bury the hatchet