

Episode 11: Betty's Had Enough

Betty: No Fred, it's over. I've given up on you.

How will Fred react to Betty's decision?

Go to episode 12 to find out!

Give up on

Meaning: If you give up on someone or something, you stop trying to achieve something, usually because you have tried and failed in the past, or because it is too difficult.

Grammar: This phrasal verb needs an object. You can not separate the verb from its particles.

I gave up on algebra

I gave up on it

~~I gave algebra up on~~

~~I gave it up on~~

~~I gave up algebra on~~

~~I gave up it on~~

Example sentence: I have asked him so many times to arrive on time, but he is still at least 30 minutes late every morning – I give up on him!

Synonyms: reach the end of the line with