

HOLIDAYS 2 – Part 2

to check in, to check out

Part 2 conversation:

- VICKI: So after your friend got off the plane Matt, what did he do?
- MATT: Well, he had reserved a few nights in a hotel, so he went to check in.
- VICKI: We use that phrase – to check in, when you arrive at a hotel and give your name and get the keys to your room
- MATT: Ah but Peter didn't like the hotel very much so he checked out again straight away!
- VICKI: So he changed his mind, gave his keys back and left!
- MATT: Yes, well he says in his email that the hotel was dirty and noisy, so he just decided to check out!
- VICKI: Wow it must have been bad if he left immediately. I hope he found somewhere else to stay.
- MATT: Yes, he found another hotel, checked in there and is much happier now.

Part 2 examples:

1. To check in. Please make sure you have your passports and credit cards ready so that we can check in quickly at the hotel.
2. To check out. On the day I left, I had to get up early to pack because I had to check out of the hotel by 10.00.
