

NEW HOME – Part 1

to settle in, to move on, to drink to something

Part 2 conversation:

VICKI: This is such a great flat. You're so lucky.

CALLUM: Thanks. You know, it's only been a week and I feel like I've been here for years. I've settled in already.

VICKI: So you feel comfortable and happy living here then?

CALLUM: Yup. I definitely won't be moving on for a while.

VICKI: Yes, if I had a great flat like this, I'd want to stay in it too. Anyway, here, I've brought you some champagne to celebrate.

(Champagne cork opens)

VICKI: So, a toast to your new flat.

CALLUM: Yes, let's drink to the flat.

VICKI: Cheers!

CALLUM: Cheers!

(Clink of glasses)
