

HOLIDAYS 1 – Part 1

to get away, to take off

Part 1 conversation:

VICKI: I think it's time for us to get away from it all Matt.

MATT: Get away from it all? Go away and leave all our work behind? Where are we going?

VICKI: Well I thought we could get away from it all and go on holiday!

MATT: I would really like to get away on holiday. I'm all excited now – I love holidays. Where are we going?

VICKI: Well Matt, we don't have to plan a holiday that carefully. We could just take off somewhere.

MATT: Take off somewhere – what? just leave now without planning anything?

VICKI: Sure. Why not? We could just go to the travel agent today and buy some tickets.

We've been working hard presenting this programme – we deserve a holiday!

MATT: Right! I'm going to pack my bags now!

Part 1 examples:

1. To get away. I'm really stressed at the moment, I think I need to get away from it all for a while.
2. To take off. Where have they gone? I don't know - they didn't tell me - they've just taken off somewhere
