

-
1. _____ is the right combination of working and having a fulfilling personal life, spending time with friends and family etc.
    - a) Work-life balance
    - b) Job-leisure correlation
    - c) Life-job equilibrium
    - d) Life-work balance

  2. A condition when someone works all the time and finds it difficult to stop is called _____.
    - a) workaholism
    - b) work addicted
    - c) careerism
    - d) workaholic

  3. Something that's not as important as something else can be described as a _____ issue.
    - a) second
    - b) second-class
    - c) second best
    - d) secondary

  4. If in a particular workplace there is a culture of working long hours and most people do it, it is considered to be the _____ there.
    - a) normal
    - b) normality
    - c) norm
    - d) normalise

  5. If you increase _____, you achieve a higher level of output within a certain time.
    - a) productive
    - b) productivity
    - c) produced
    - d) reproduce

  6. It's easy to tell if someone has _____: they feel both physically and emotionally exhausted all the time.
    - a) flamed off
    - b) fired away
    - c) burnt out
    - d) arsonned

ANSWERS:

1. _____ is the right combination of working and having a fulfilling personal life, spending time with friends and family etc.
    - a) Well done, this is correct!
    - b) Sorry, this is not an expression in English.
    - c) Sorry, this is not an expression in English.
    - d) Sorry, the first two words are in the wrong order.

  2. A condition when someone works all the time and finds it difficult to stop is called _____.
    - a) Well done, this is correct!
    - b) Sorry, this word combination acts as an adjective; you need a noun.
    - c) Sorry, this is when someone believes that their career is more important than anything else and will do anything to be successful in it.
    - d) Sorry, this is someone who suffers from the condition. You need a different noun to describe the condition itself.

  3. Something that's not as important as something else can be described as a _____ issue.
    - a) Sorry, this is an ordinal number (e.g. first, second, third etc.). An issue can be second on the agenda of a meeting but at the same time, the most important one.
    - b) Sorry, this means not the best.
    - c) Sorry, this means not the best.
    - d) Well done, this is correct!

  4. If in a particular workplace there is a culture of working long hours and most people do it, it is considered to be the _____ there.
    - a) Sorry, this is an adjective; you need a noun.
    - b) Sorry, this means the way things are under usual circumstances. You need another noun meaning standard or recognised behaviour.
    - c) Well done, this is correct! The 'norm' is standard or recognised behaviour.
    - d) Sorry, this is a verb; you need a noun.
-

5. If you increase _____, you achieve a higher level of output within a certain time.

- a) Sorry, this is an adjective; you need a noun.
- b) Well done, this is correct!
- c) Sorry, this is a participle; you need a noun.
- d) Sorry, this is a verb; you need a noun.

6. It's easy to tell if someone has _____: they feel both physically and emotionally exhausted all the time.

- a) Sorry, there is no such phrasal verb.
- b) Sorry, you need a different phrasal verb here. You say 'fire away' to encourage someone to ask you a question.
- c) Well done, this is correct!
- d) Sorry, this is incorrect English. 'Arson' is a noun, and cannot be used as a verb.

Try this quiz online:

http://www.bbc.co.uk/apps/1fl/worldservice/quiznet/quizengine?ContentType=text/html;quiz=1439\_work