Gap-fill
Complete the conversation using the correct form of the phrasal verbs listed below. You can use some of the verbs more than once.

to bring something down

to cool down

to fight something off

to get over to go down with something

Vicki:  Hey Matt, are you feeling ok? I don’t think you’re looking too well today. Are you okay?

Matt:  Am I okay? No, not really. I’ve got a temperature, a headache, a sore throat….I think I’m (1) ___________________ something.

Vicki:  Oh dear…I’d say you’re (2) ___________________ the flu!

Vicki:  So poor Matt is not very well.

Matt:  Yes, I think I’m (3) ___________________ the flu. But I’ve got to (4) ___________________ it ___________________ Vicki! We’ve got a programme to do.

Vicki:  What a professional, trying not to let yourself get ill, trying to (5) ___________________ it ___________________.

Matt:  The show must go on!

Vicki:  I’ve got some pain killers in my bag somewhere…Here…

Matt:  Oh. Thanks, that should (6) ___________________ my temperature ___________________.

Vicki:  Yes, hopefully it’ll reduce your temperature.

Vicki:  And here’s some water.

Matt:  Thanks. Cold water will (7) ___________________ me ___________________ too.
Vicki: Yes, if you’re feeling hot and unwell, drinking water will stop you being so hot.

Matt: (drinks) Argh. That hurts my throat!

Vicki: Hmm you’re a difficult patient! Why don’t you go and have a bit of a lie down? (MUSIC)

Vicki: So, Matt, how are you feeling now.

Matt: Oh…I’m feeling much better thanks! I think I’m (8)________________________ it all.

Vicki: Well that’s a relief.
KEY

1) going down with
2) going down with
3) going down with
4) fight, off
5) fight, off
6) bring, down
7) cool, down
8) getting over
Gap-fill
Complete the conversation using phrasal verbs.

Vicki: Hey Matt, are you feeling ok? I don’t think you’re looking too well today. Are you okay?

Matt: Am I okay? No, not really. I’ve got a temperature, a headache, a sore throat….I think I’m (1) ___________________ something.

Vicki: Oh dear…I’d say you’re (2) ___________________ the flu!

Vicki: So poor Matt is not very well.

Matt: Yes, I think I’m (3) ___________________ the flu. But I’ve got to (4) ___________________ it ___________________ Vicki! We’ve got a programme to do.

Vicki: What a professional, trying not to let yourself get ill, trying to (5) ___________________ it ___________________.

Matt: The show must go on!

Vicki: I’ve got some pain killers in my bag somewhere…Here…

Matt: Oh. Thanks, that should (6) ___________________ my temperature ___________________.

Vicki: Yes, hopefully it’ll reduce your temperature.

Vicki: And here's some water.

Matt: Thanks. Cold water will (7) ___________________ me ___________________ too.

Vicki: Yes, if you’re feeling hot and unwell, drinking water will stop you being so hot.

Matt: (drinks) Argh. That hurts my throat!

Vicki: Hmm you’re a difficult patient! Why don’t you go and have a bit of a lie down? (MUSIC)
Vicki: So, Matt, how are you feeling now.

Matt: Oh…I’m feeling much better thanks! I think I’m (8) ___________________ it all.

Vicki: Well that’s a relief.
KEY

1) going down with
2) going down with
3) going down with
4) fight, off
5) fight, off
6) bring, down
7) cool, down
8) getting over
Vocabulary: definitions
Match the phrasal verbs on the left to the definitions on the right.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Phrasal Verb</th>
<th>Definition</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1. to bring something down</td>
<td>a. to stop an illness making you sick</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2. to cool down</td>
<td>b. to start to feel well again</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3. to fight something off</td>
<td>c. to become less warm</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4. to get over</td>
<td>d. to reduce</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5. to go down with something</td>
<td>e. to become ill with a particular illness</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
KEY

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>1. to bring something down</th>
<th>d. to reduce</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>2. to cool down</td>
<td>c. to become less warm</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3. to fight something off</td>
<td>a. to stop an illness making you sick</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4. to get over</td>
<td>b. to start to feel well again</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5. to go down with something</td>
<td>e. to become ill with a particular illness</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Writing: text completion
Complete the story below using the correct form of the verbs in brackets.

Every cloud has a silver lining

As a child, I always seemed to be sick. Just as I was (1) get over one illness, I would (2) go down with something else. My mum worried that I would fall behind because I was missing so much school. But I didn’t care – I loved staying in my room, scribbling in my notebook, letting my imagination take flight.

When I was about twelve, I (3) go down with scarlet fever. Mum was beside herself. She placed cool flannels on my forehead to try (4) bring down my temperature. When she left the room, I removed the flannel from my forehead and carried on writing. Five minutes later she would come back and open the window, hoping the breeze would (5) cool down me. I ignored the breeze and carried on writing. In the end, it took me weeks (6) fight off the illness. I missed a whole half a term of school. But I didn’t care, because while I was lying in bed, I finished my first novel. The title? Every cloud has a silver lining.
KEY

1. getting over
2. go down with
3. went down with
4. to bring down
5. cool down
6. to fight off
Writing: text completion
Complete the story below using the correct form of the verbs in the box. You will have to use some of the verbs more than once.

| cool down | go down with | get over | bring down | fight off |

Every cloud has a silver lining

As a child, I always seemed to be sick. Just as I was (1) ________________ one illness, I would (2) ________________ something else. My mum worried that I would fall behind because I was missing so much school. But I didn’t care – I loved staying in my room, scribbling in my notebook, letting my imagination take flight.

When I was about twelve, I (3) ________________ scarlet fever. Mum was beside herself. She placed cool flannels on my forehead to try (4) ________________ my temperature. When she left the room, I removed the flannel from my forehead and carried on writing. Five minutes later she would come back and open the window, hoping the breeze would (5) ________________ me ________________. I ignored the breeze and carried on writing. In the end, it took me weeks (6) ________________ the illness. I missed a whole half a term of school. But I didn’t care, because while I was lying in bed, I finished my first novel. The title? Every cloud has a silver lining.
KEY

1. getting over
2. go down with
3. went down with
4. to bring down
5. cool, down
6. to fight off