Speaking
Work in pairs or small groups. You and your classmate(s) are planning a party. Discuss the questions below, using the prompts to help you. Use phrasal verbs in your answer. You can also use your own ideas. Write your group's answers to the questions in the spaces provided. There is an example answer to question 1, but you must also write an answer of your own!

1. What kind of music will you put on to make sure your guests get down?

   Example answer: We will put on pop music to make sure our guests get down.

2. What refreshments will you get in so that your friends eat and drink everything up?

3. How can you make sure all your guests join in the fun?
   Get people dancing? Introduce people who don’t know each other? Organise a competition?
   Play different kinds of music? Play some games? Prepare a quiz?
Spot the mistakes
Each of the sentences below contains an error. Proofread the sentences and correct the mistakes.

1. Tom, I’m watching a DVD and ordering a pizza tonight. Do you want come over and join me?

2. Drink on, Sam! Once you’ve finished I’ll order another bottle of wine.

3. I made all these party snacks specially, so eating up, everyone!

4. Jerry’s a really good dancer, but he’s too shy to be get down in front of strangers.

5. I felt terrible because I forgot Lucy was vegetarian and didn’t got anything in for her.

6. My Dad’s so embarrassing. He always wants joining in with my parties. He even tries to dance with my friends!

7. I can’t stand jazz! Could you put something else in instead?
KEY
1. Tom, I’m watching a DVD and ordering a pizza tonight. Do you want to come over and join me?
2. Drink up, Sam! Once you’ve finished I’ll order another bottle of wine.
3. I made all these party snacks specially, so eat up, everyone!
4. Jerry’s a really good dancer, but he’s too shy to be get down in front of strangers.
5. I felt terrible because I forgot Lucy was vegetarian and didn’t get anything in for her.
6. My Dad’s so embarrassing. He always wants to join in with my parties. He even tries to dance with my friends!
7. I can’t stand jazz! Could you put something else on instead?
Create a story
Work in small groups. Take it in turns to complete one gap in the story below. After you have written your answer, fold the piece of paper along the line so the other students in your group cannot see what you have written, and pass the paper to the next student. Once all the gaps are completed, unfold the paper and read the story your group has created.

1. Last Saturday, I had a party. It was ___________________. (What was it like?)

2. ___________________ came over (Who came over?) to my flat.

3. Earlier that day, I had got in ___________________ (What had you got in?) for everyone to eat and drink.

4. I think people liked the food, because people were hungrily eating up ___________________. (What were people hungrily eating up?) Soon, there was none left.

5. I put on some ___________________ music. (What kind of music did you put on?)

6. Everyone was getting down when ___________________. (What happened?) It was terrible.

7. I was very worried, so I called ___________________. (who did you call?) They said they would come over straight away.

8. The party ended ___________________. (How did the party end?)