3. THE BBC REPRESENTATIVES

The BBC shall appoint certain persons (as identified in this Agreement) who shall have the power to give specific approvals and reach specific decisions on its behalf. Where any of such BBC Representatives are individually referred to within this Agreement, such reference shall be to the specific individual named and only the approvals or decisions of such person shall be binding on the BBC. The BBC may from time to time substitute other persons for those appointed and shall notify the Producer of any such changes.

4. PRE-CONDITIONS TO THE BBC’S COMMITMENT

The BBC shall be under no obligation under this Agreement until:

4.1 the Producer has completed and returned and the BBC has approved:

For the avoidance of doubt, the BBC will give reasonable consideration (taking into account any scheduling or financial requirements that the BBC may have in relation to the Programme delivery) to any timely and reasonable request by the Producer to agree a change to the Delivery Date.

5.2 All documents required to be certified or signed on behalf of the Producer shall be certified or signed by a duly authorised signatory of the Producer.

5.3 In making the Programme the Producer shall:

5.3.1 Comply with the BBC Guidelines;

5.3.2 Comply with all applicable: child protection legislation, disability discrimination legislation, data protection legislation, health safety and fire legislation, anti-bribery legislation, construction design and management regulations and all regulations and orders made under such legislation and in so doing shall nominate a person or persons competent to give appropriate safety advice during production of the Programme and shall produce the Programme safely having due regard to such advice. Where reasonably required, the BBC shall be entitled to be provided with evidence of the Producer’s compliance herewith;

5.3.6 Secure the prior written approval of the BBC Editorial Representative to any viewing of any Programme related material or content by any Programme participant(s) prior to Tape Delivery, where such viewing could lead to a breach of the BBC Guidelines, such approval not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed.

5.4 The Producer shall be entitled to use such BBC libraries as is agreed Provided That if the Producer fails to return by the due date or damages any material borrowed from BBC libraries then the BBC shall be entitled to deduct and retain from the Licence Fee such costs as are reasonable to repair or replace the missing or damaged materials.

5.6 The Producer shall not without the BBC’s written consent (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed) grant to any completion guarantor or any third party any security interest in or mortgage, charge or other encumbrance over or affecting any rights in the Programme which are granted to the BBC under this Agreement and, having secured the BBC’s consent, the Producer shall procure that any such third party with a security interest in or mortgage, charge or other encumbrance over the Programme shall deliver to the BBC a non-disturbance letter in a form satisfactory to the BBC stating that such secured party shall take no action to diminish, alter, impair or otherwise affect the free use and enjoyment by the BBC of all the rights granted to it.

5.7 For the avoidance of doubt, it is acknowledged that any details set out in Part 1 of the Commissioning Specification entitled “Editorial Specification” under the heading “Editorial Compliance Considerations” are without prejudice to the Producer’s general obligations under this Agreement to comply with the BBC Guidelines.

5.8 In relation to safeguarding children and young people:

5.8.1 The Producer confirms that:
1. it has, or will have put in place before commencement of pre-production, specific processes within its organisation to implement the BBC’s Child Protection Policy in the context of producing the Programme for the BBC;
2. it will make the appropriate and permitted pre-employment DBS (or equivalent) checks on any of its personnel who are due to be carrying out as part of their normal duties or for intense periods any teaching, training or instruction, care or supervision of any children involved on the Programme, and provide evidence or confirmation of those checks to the BBC if requested;
3. it will notify the BBC as soon as possible (which shall be considered as being within 48 hours of a senior member of the production team being informed) about any allegation or complaint of the nature set out in the BBC Child Protection Policy in relation to the Programme or Programme personnel, and will keep the BBC informed of the progress of any investigation (of any nature) into such allegations or complaint, and whilst the Producer remains fully responsible for dealing with the issue in the appropriate manner, it shall enable the BBC to input into those investigations.
5.8.2 The BBC shall be entitled upon giving reasonable notice to undertake a review with the Producer to ensure the Producer has the procedures in place to effectively implement the BBC’s Child Protection Policy in relation to the Programme or Programme personnel. For the avoidance of doubt, no exercise by the BBC of such right of a review shall waive the warranties and obligations of the Producer under the terms of this Agreement.

5.9 In relation to Telephony Services: In the event that as part of production of the Programme the Producer proposes to arrange for the supply of telephony services in connection with the Programme, without prejudice to the generality of the terms of this Agreement, in connection with such services it is specifically acknowledged and agreed as follows:

5.9.1 all arrangements for the supply of telephony services shall be made in accordance with the BBC’s Guidance Notes to Independent Production Companies for the Use of Interactivity in BBC Commissioned Programmes, published here: http://www.bbc.co.uk/commissioning/tv/production/business-and-production-guide.shtml#audience-interaction;

5.9.2 the agreement for the supply of such services is identified in the Commissioning Specification as a Key Agreement and accordingly shall not be entered into by the Producer without the prior approval of the proposed terms and conditions by the BBC (“Telephony Services Agreement”);

5.9.3 As set out in the Commissioning Specification, the Producer shall appoint an individual employee of the Producer to be responsible and accountable for the operation of the telephony services in connection with the Programme in accordance with the Phone Pay Plus, OFCOM, and the relevant BBC Guidelines, and any other specific instructions of the BBC.

5.10 Without prejudice to General Term 5.3, the Producer is aware that the Bribery Act has come into force and undertakes to comply with the provisions of the Act. The Producer confirms that it will take into account the Anti-Bribery High Level Principles & Guidelines for Independent Producers and will establish and implement suitable Anti-bribery policy(s) within its organisation.

5.11 The Producer acknowledges that the BBC does not tolerate any form of bullying and/or harassment and is committed to providing a workplace in which the dignity of individuals is respected. It expects its suppliers to have the same attitude and to have in place a company policy addressing the subject of bullying and harassment, which will be made available to the BBC on request. The BBC also considers it to be ‘best practice’ for such a company policy to include a protected disclosure whistle-blowing policy for its production personnel. It is acknowledged that any grievances of this nature which are successfully pursued by an individual working for the Producer and made public are likely to damage the BBC’s reputation and accordingly could lead to a breach of the Producer’s contractual warranties.

5.12 Diverse representation on and off screen is extremely important to the BBC. By ‘diversity’ we mean reflecting modern Britain in all its cultural, social, age, gender and geographical richness as well as ensuring representation of disabled people and ethnic minorities. The Producer shall put in place and maintain a Diversity and Inclusion policy.
Diversity and Project Diamond

5.13 The Parties acknowledge and agree that the BBC is participating in Diamond. For the purposes of Diamond, the parties acknowledge and agree that the BBC will be the Data Controllers of all Diamond Diversity Data and the Producer will be the Data Processor of the Diamond Diversity Data inputted by the Producer to the Diversity Data Modules, and the BBC will use all Diamond Diversity Data in accordance with its obligations under the Data Protection Legislation.

5.14 The Producer shall, save in respect of the Excluded Categories: (i) notify the Participants of the submission of their e-mail addresses into Silvermouse for the purpose of being invited to complete the Diversity Self-declaration Form, and (ii) complete the Contributors Form, the Diversity Actual Form and (iii) complete the Diversity Perceived Form in Silvermouse. For the purposes of this clause, “complete” shall have the meaning set out in the Diamond Guidance Notes.

5.15 Where a Participant does not provide the Producer with an e-mail address the Producer will use reasonable endeavours to supply or make available to the Participant a Diversity Self-Service Form.

5.16 The BBC may compile reports using Diamond Diversity Data relating to the Programme that is contained in the Diversity Data Modules (the “Reports”). The BBC may choose to share the Reports with the Producer and will do so on the basis that the Producer acts as a Data Processor of the Reports and the Producer agrees to treat the Reports as confidential and hold them in accordance with the provisions of the Data Protection Legislation.

5.17 5.17.1 Subject to the provisions of 5.17.2 below, the BBC shall indemnify the Producer against:

(i) any direct financial loss and or penalty actually suffered by the Producer due to a data infringement under Data Protection Legislation with respect to the Diamond Diversity Data that is incurred by the Producer substantially and directly as a result of the Producer being a data processor of Diamond Diversity Data where such infringement is as a direct result of the BBC’s, or Soundmouse’s actions; and/or

(ii) any reasonable external legal costs actually incurred by the Producer in respect of (a) such data infringement claim referred to in (i) above, and/or (b) defending any claim or action with respect to mishandling of the Diamond Diversity Data made against the Producer by a Participant substantially and directly as a consequence of the Participant’s involvement in Diamond, and being made as a direct result of the BBC’s, and/or Soundmouse’s actions.

5.17.2 The indemnity set out in 5.17.1 shall be subject to the following:

(i) the Producer has fully complied with all its obligations and responsibilities under the applicable contract (if any) between itself and the affected individual, the provisions relating to Diamond and data protection in this Agreement, Data Protection Legislation and the Diamond Guidance Notes (in so far as the Diamond Guidance Notes are relevant to a claim under this indemnity). If a Producer has reason to believe that the Data Protection Legislation and the Diamond Guidance Notes are inconsistent, it shall promptly notify the BBC and follow the instructions subsequently given to it.
by the BBC. For the avoidance of doubt, providing the Producer acts in accordance with the provisions of this clause 5.17.2, if a regulatory body or court of competent jurisdiction determines that the Diamond Guidance Notes are not fully consistent with the Data Protection Legislation and such inconsistency results in the Producer making a claim under this indemnity, the validity of the indemnity shall not be affected;

(ii) where the Producer has contracted the Participants the contract incorporates the pan-industry agreed or equivalent wording for project Diamond;

(iii) the Producer will notify the BBC immediately in writing in the event that a claim arising under 5.17.1 has been made against the Producer;

(iv) the BBC is entitled to control any investigation into and/or defence to such actions/claims/proceedings being made;

(v) the Producer will provide such cooperation or assistance as the BBC may reasonably request in conducting such investigation and/or defence;

(vi) the Producer will not make any admissions of liability or agreement to settle nor incur any legal costs in investigating or defending any such claim without the prior written consent of the BBC;

(vii) the Producer will take all reasonable steps to mitigate their losses; and

(viii) the total liability of the BBC per claim under clause 5.17.1(i) or (ii) is limited to: (a) £500,000 where there is only one claim arising from a data subject from the act or omission which gives rise to the claim; and (b) £1,000,000 in aggregate for a series of claims arising from data subjects from the same act or omission.

(ix) In the event that the BBC terminates its participation in the Diamond project or ceases to be a member of the CDN this indemnity will no longer apply. For the avoidance of doubt, if the act or omission which gives rise to any liability under this indemnity occurs prior to the date the BBC terminates its participation in the Diamond project or ceases to be a member of the CDN, the validity of this indemnity shall not be affected.

5.18 The Producer acknowledges that to complete Paper Delivery some paperwork, as indicated in the Delivery Items, will be delivered electronically using Silvermouse and the Producer agrees to enter into Silvermouse the contact details of certain individuals involved in the production of the Programme as requested on the paperwork if a Producer response is required for queries.

7.12.3 where circumstances during production have given rise to the BBC having legitimate concerns relating to the financing of the Programme and/or management of the production; and/or

7.12.4 to satisfy itself and/or any third parties as to whether the Programme is a Regional Production and/or Regional Programme.

7.13 When the circumstances listed in General Term 7.12.1 to 7.12.3 apply, the BBC shall be entitled to receive a “Certified Cost Report” from the Producer being a detailed statement of the cost of production of the Programme which shall if required by the BBC (at the BBC’s cost) be certified to be accurate by the Producer and to be delivered as soon as possible (but not later than sixty (60) days after Tape Delivery). For the avoidance of doubt, the costs to be included in the Certified Cost Report shall be the aggregate of the sums paid or payable by the Producer in accordance with this Agreement in producing and delivering the Programme, including a statement of any proceeds of sale of any goods remaining after completion of the Programme and any Third Party Production Finance and/or Producer Advance.

7.14 For the avoidance of doubt, where the Special Terms provide that the Agreed Licence Fee includes a ‘Prize fund’ and/or any ‘Other specific production element(s)’, such elements of the Licence Fee shall only become payable by the BBC if and when such events occur.

7.15 The Producer shall maintain and implement appropriate Health and Safety policies and operational procedures in connection with the production of the Programme and shall cooperate generally with the BBC with regard to assurance monitoring of the Producer’s Health and Safety policy and processes. The BBC shall at any time whether before, during or after production of the Programme be entitled, upon giving reasonable notice, at reasonable hours to conduct an audit of such policies and procedures for the purposes of carrying out reasonable Health and Safety assurance monitoring of the Producer. For the avoidance of doubt, no exercise by the BBC of such right of audit shall undermine in anyway the warranties and obligations of the Producer under the terms of this Agreement.

7.16 Where the Special Terms identify Agreed Recoupments, the Producer shall submit a final cost report (certified by the Producer’s Finance Director, or equivalent) demonstrating the application of the Agreed Recoupments towards the direct cost of production (including production fee and overhead) of the Programme.

8 INSURANCE

8.1 The Producer shall promptly arrange and maintain:

8.1.1 insurance against:

(a) all risks normally insured against in accordance with the customary practice of prudent film and television producers; and

(b) any additional risks as may be reasonably required by the BBC to protect its legitimate interests in connection with the Programme; and

(c) if applicable and required, Film Union insurance

1. where the Producer elects to use the Quartz insurance it shall promptly notify the BBC Business Affairs Manager and the cost thereof shall be deducted from the Licence Fee and paid for directly by the BBC; and

2. where the Producer elects to use another reputable insurance company, prior to Principal Photography and as a condition of payment of the relevant stage payment as set out in the Special Terms, it shall secure the BBC’s written approval of the terms of the policy to be taken out in respect of the production of the Programme (not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed); and

3. In the event that the Producer is also supplying online and/or interactive elements as part of the Programme, then the Producer must also have appropriate technical errors and omissions insurance from a reputable insurance company; and

8.1.2 with a reputable insurer, adequate public liability insurance and, where applicable, product liability insurance and/or professional indemnity insurance and/or errors and omissions insurance which shall be no less than £3,000,000 (Three Million Pounds Sterling) and with scope of cover appropriate to the liability of the Producer in respect of any one claim or incident arising under the Licence to use the BBC trade marks contained in General Term 16.2.4(i) and the Trade Mark Schedule. For the avoidance of doubt, such minimum insurance level shall not be a limit of liability under such Licence.

Where the Special Terms provide for the Licence Fee to be cashflowed to the Producer, the Producer shall secure the BBC’s prior written approval to the Insurances.

8.2 The Producer shall maintain the Insurances (paying any premiums payable by the Producer when due) and shall ensure that the BBC is named as an insured person to the extent required to protect the BBC’s interests under this Agreement.

8.3 The Producer shall comply with all the conditions and warranties in the policies and shall not do or permit to be done anything which might result in any of the Insurances lapsing or becoming void or voidable.

8.4 If anything happens which might give rise to a claim under any of the Insurances, the Producer shall forthwith inform the BBC and shall consult with the BBC about the making and settling of any claim insofar as relevant to the BBC’s interests under this Agreement.

8.5 The Producer shall produce to the BBC on demand copies of the Insurances and receipts for premiums required to be paid in relation to such policies.

9 EDITORIAL PROCESS

9.1 The Producer shall give the BBC Editorial Representative reasonable advance notice of the dates, times and venues of any principal production meetings and/or proposed viewings not otherwise set out in the Production Schedule.

9.2 The BBC Editorial Representative shall at any time be entitled to view and inspect all rushes and cut sequences of the Programme and any sound recording or soundtrack and to be present at principal production meetings and at any location or studio where the Programme is being made. The Producer shall take full account of all reasonable comments and representations made by the BBC Editorial Representative and, provided that the BBC Editorial Representative shall have given due regard to any representations made by the Producer, the Producer shall comply with any requests for retakes, re-edits or additional material to be included in the Programme.

9.3 Where any request made by the BBC Editorial Representative under General Term 9.2 is to ensure compliance with the Commissioning Specification, any and all costs relating thereto shall be the Producer’s responsibility.

9.4 Where any such request constitutes a change to the Commissioning Specification, the Producer and the BBC Business Affairs Manager will engage in timely good faith discussions regarding any additional cost arising from the request. The Producer shall not incur any such cost until the BBC Business Affairs Manager has confirmed in writing:

9.4.1 The nature of the request;
9.4.2 Whether any additional costs are agreed to be funded by compensatory changes to other items in the Budget or as an additional sum to be paid by the BBC;

9.4.3 The amount of any additional sum payable by the BBC, which shall be paid in accordance with General Term 7.6 and any such sums shall form part of the Licence Fee.

9.5 If either the BBC or the Producer becomes aware of any circumstances whereby it is either necessary or desirable to amend the Commissioning Specification, such party shall notify the other as soon as reasonably practicable. Following such notification, the procedure set out in General Term 9.4 shall be followed in relation to the payment of any additional costs arising.

9.6 Any consultations and requests for approvals addressed to either party under this Agreement shall be made in sufficient time to enable the recipient to give consideration to and reply in respect of the matter in question within a reasonable period of time taking account of the Production Schedule.

9.7 For the avoidance of doubt, the BBC shall not in any circumstances be under any obligation to fund any costs arising under this General Term 9 unless the BBC Business Affairs Manager has confirmed the arrangement in writing in accordance with the terms of this Agreement. Similarly the Producer is not under any obligation to make any changes requested by the BBC that constitute an amendment to the Commissioning Specification until such confirmation has been received from the BBC Business Affairs Manager.

9.8 Prior to preparing the final cut of the Programme, the Producer and the BBC Editorial Representative shall agree a date and time when the BBC Editorial Representative shall be able to view the Programme and the Producer shall give effect to all changes reasonably required by the BBC Editorial Representative when editing the Programme Provided That such changes are required in order to:

9.8.1 meet the BBC's broadcasting standards from time to time in force;

9.8.2 comply with the provisions of this Agreement including the Commissioning Specification;

9.8.3 comply with the BBC's necessary scheduling exigencies;

9.8.4 conform with any obligations imposed by law or with legal advice received by the BBC;

and until such time as the BBC shall have notified the Producer that the final cut of the Programme is acceptable, all editing shall be carried out on positive copies of the Programme.

9.9 If at any time following acceptance of Tape Delivery the BBC requires further changes to comply with General Terms 9.8.1 to 9.8.4, the Producer shall be offered the opportunity to carry out such changes at the BBC's cost but if it refuses or is unable to do so the BBC shall be entitled itself to carry out or require a third party to carry out such changes.
9.10 Notwithstanding anything contrary contained in the provisions of this Agreement, the BBC shall be entitled to add subtitles or signing or audio description to the Programme for the benefit of visually or hearing impaired viewers. For the avoidance of doubt, if the Producer is supplying any material or services in connection with any Programme related website, the Producer shall comply with any Web Development Guidelines included in the BBC Guidelines.

9.11 Notwithstanding the provisions of this General Term 9 and for the avoidance of doubt, the Producer agrees that the BBC shall have final editorial control in connection with the production of the Programme (and the production of any publicity and promotional materials that the BBC is entitled to produce) in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

10 CREDITS AND COPYRIGHT NOTICE

10.1 The BBC shall be entitled to approve all credits prior to their incorporation in the BBC version of the Programme in the UK including without limitation a production credit in accordance with the BBC Guidelines, provided that the form, size and position of such credits and logo shall be approved by the BBC Editorial Representative in advance of such incorporation and to this intent, the Producer shall provide the BBC Editorial Representative as soon as practicable after commencement of production with a list of all proposed credits indicating their size and position in relation to the Programme.

10.2 The BBC undertakes to honour all screen credit obligations agreed under General Term 10.1 incorporated in the transmission copy of the Programme but any inadvertent failure on the BBC’s part to comply with this undertaking shall not be deemed a breach of this Agreement.

10.3 During the Licence Period, the Producer shall include on the transmission copies of the Programme a copyright notice in the form described in the Commissioning Specification.

11 DELIVERY

11.1 The Programme shall not be treated as completed and delivered unless Tape Delivery and Paper Delivery have both been accepted by the BBC.

11.2 Acceptance of Tape Delivery and Paper Delivery under General Term 11.1 shall be in the BBC’s absolute discretion, provided always that in either case delivery shall be deemed accepted after expiry of thirty (30) days from receipt by the BBC, unless notified otherwise (or accepted in writing) earlier.

11.3 Upon request by the BBC, the Producer shall:

11.3.1 at any time (whether during or after expiry of Licence Period), promptly deliver to the BBC any documentation or materials that may be required to substantiate and evidence the Producer’s warranty set out in the Special Terms as to whether the Programme qualifies as a Regional Production or Regional Programme;

11.3.2 grant a Power of Attorney to carry out the actions referred to in General Term 18.3.1; and/or 11.3.3 deliver the publicity stills and promotional VHS/DVD tapes as set out in the Commissioning Specification sooner than the Delivery Date, any such earlier date to be agreed in good faith by the parties.

11.4 For the avoidance of doubt, any acceptance of incomplete Paper Delivery shall not be deemed to be a waiver of the BBC’s right to demand and require completion of Full Delivery (but any such written acceptance of incomplete Paper Delivery shall constitute ‘acceptance’ for the purposes of the Licence Period).

11.5 Without prejudice to the generality of these General Terms, The Producer confirms and undertakes that the Programme and all materials supplied to the BBC (or its authorised representatives or agents) for publication including any promotional purposes in connection with the Programme, such as but not limited to material for online listings and audience navigation applications, (whether such material is delivered pursuant to the terms of this Agreement or pursuant to an additional or subsequent agreement with the BBC or its authorised representative or agent) have been created, obtained, and produced in compliance with:

11.5.1 the BBC Guidelines (in particular the BBC Editorial Guidelines, available at http://bbc.co.uk/guidelines); and

11.5.2 the provisions of all relevant underlying agreements, and 11.5.3 cleared in accordance with the relevant terms of this Agreement (or by subsequent agreement between the parties, where applicable).

11.6 Where the Special Terms confirm the commissioning of New Media Deliverables under the terms of this Agreement:

11.6.1 The BBC commissions the Producer to provide the New Media Deliverables as defined in the New Media Deliverables Attachment identified in the Special Terms.

11.6.2 The provision of such New Media Deliverables shall be subject to the terms and conditions and all other information set out in the Special Terms and New Media Deliverables Attachment. For the avoidance of doubt, the BBC shall have final editorial control in relation to the New Media Deliverables.

11.6.3 In the event of any conflict between the Special Terms and/or New Media Deliverables Attachment) and the General Terms of this Agreement in relation to the New Media Deliverables, the provisions the Special Terms and/or New Media Deliverables Attachment shall prevail.

11.7 If Tape Delivery is on digital format, the Producer shall retain a copy of the Programme on either tape or digital file during the Licence Period in the event that the Producer may be required to supply the Programme to the BBC again (for technical reasons prior to transmission or otherwise).

12 RIGHTS GRANTED TO THE BBC

12.1 BBC Public Service Rights:

12.1.1 The Producer hereby grants to the BBC during the Licence Period the irrevocable and royalty-free BBC Public Service Rights (and insofar as any such rights are not in existence as at the date of this Agreement then such grant of rights shall operate as a present grant of such future rights).

12.1.2 For the avoidance of doubt, the BBC shall not be deemed to be in breach of this Agreement or the licence granted under General Term 12.1.1 if any broadcast or transmission of the Programme under the BBC Public Service
Rights is capable of being received outside of the UK provided the broadcast or transmission was intended for reception within the UK.

12.1.3 Without prejudice to General Term 6.1, the Producer shall ensure that the BBC has the benefit of and is entitled to enforce all contracts (including licences) relating to the Programme entered into by or on behalf of the Producer in order that the BBC can exercise, or sublicense the exercise of, the rights granted to it under this Agreement and the Producer shall at the request of the BBC provide the BBC with documentary evidence of compliance with this General Term 12.1.3.

12.1.4 The BBC shall be entitled to make all such use of the Publicity Stills delivered to the BBC as part of the Delivery Items as required for the purposes of exercising any of the rights granted to the BBC under this Agreement.

12.1.5 At the request of the BBC the Producer shall reversion or re-edit the Programme as the BBC may require for the following purposes: (1) in pursuance of its programme policy governing the suitability of material contained therein and/or the demands of accurate timing on presentation; and (2) for adaptation in connection with the exercise of the BBC Public Service Rights on non-television platforms; Provided that: (i) any such re-editing or reversioning is undertaken at the BBC's expense (the level of which shall be pre-agreed in writing by the parties); and (ii) any such editing or reversioning shall not impair continuity and the definition of the Programme in this Agreement is hereby varied to include any such re-versioned or re-edited version of the Programme.

12.1.6 The Producer hereby sells and the BBC purchases each of the Delivery Items.

12.2 Programme Trade Marks:

12.2.1 The Producer hereby grants to the BBC for the Licence Period an exclusive, royalty-free, irrevocable licence to use the Programme Trade Marks (including as part of a domain name) and to grant sublicences to third parties to do the same for the purposes of exercising any of the rights granted to the BBC under this Agreement.

The BBC acknowledges and agrees that: (1) as between the Producer and the BBC, the Producer is the proprietor of the Programme Trade Marks, any copyright, design rights and other intellectual property rights subsisting in and the goodwill relating to the Programme Trade Mark; and (2) the benefit of all use of the Programme Trade Marks and any additional goodwill accrued as a result of the BBC's activities in connection therewith shall inure and is hereby assigned to the Producer.

12.2.2 The parties shall consult in good faith how best to maximise the protection of the Programme Trade Marks, in particular, in order to protect the BBC's rights under this Agreement.

12.2.3 If, having reasonably requested the Producer by written notice to file an appropriate application to register as a trade mark and/or domain name any of the Programme Trade Marks and the Producer has failed to do so within a reasonable period of time (such period to be according to the particular circumstances and specified in the notice), and/or the Producer has failed to progress the application thereafter, the Producer shall appoint the BBC to file or progress or engage a third party to file or progress such application. The Producer shall join any action as may be required subject to the payment of any applicable costs by the BBC which may be recouped by the BBC as referred to in General Term 16.5.2 below. The Producer shall promptly provide the BBC and its agents with such assistance as the BBC (or its agents) may reasonably request in respect of such trade mark and domain name applications.

12.3 Extract / Clip Use:
Subject to any outstanding consents being obtained from and any use fees, repeat fees and residuals that may be due to the owners of any underlying rights in the Programme as provided for under General Term 6.2, the BBC may use and authorise the use of any extracts from the Programme in any BBC Public Services (including as part of any other audio visual material) Provided That:

12.3.1 the BBC shall not make any such use which is:

(i) before the Programme (or relevant episode thereof) has been first transmitted by the BBC (other than in the exercise by the BBC of its rights under this Agreement to publicise the Programme by way of trails and extracts); or

(ii) designed to ‘send-up’ the Programme; or

(iii) for the purposes of creating a new compilation or ‘best-of’ programme without the Producer’s consent; and

12.3.2 such extracts shall be no longer than five (5) minutes per thirty (30) minutes or less of Programme running time and for the avoidance of doubt, where any such extract is included in such other audio visual material which is to be exploited commercially, the Producer will be paid for such exploitation at the prevailing market rate for the applicable use.

12.4 Restrictions on the Producer:

12.4.1 The Producer hereby undertakes that whilst the BBC has a subsisting re-commissioning right in the Programme it shall not, nor authorise any other party, to do any of the following in the UK without the BBC’s prior written consent:

(i) produce any other television programme based on the Programme (or element thereof) or the Format (or element thereof) (including for example “the making of...”) provided that consent shall not be unreasonably withheld in relation to such material intended for video/dvd only release; or

(ii) create or exploit any on-line version of the Programme (or element thereof) or Format (or element thereof); or

(iii) make any use of any material based on the Programme (or element thereof) or Format (or element thereof) or the Characters for the purposes of any television advertising activities or product endorsement in contravention of the BBC’s Fair Trading Guidelines or Producer’s Guidelines.

12.4.2 Whilst the BBC has a subsisting recommissioning right in the Programme, the Producer shall not dispose of any set, props, costumes, equipment and other similar material created or acquired in connection with the Programme without the BBC’s prior written consent provided that the BBC shall pay for the reasonable storage costs incurred in connection therewith, such reasonable costs to be pre-agreed with the BBC and treated as a development cost in connection with any Further Programme that may be commissioned by the BBC.

12.5 BBC’s copyright:
For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this Agreement shall transfer or assign to the Producer any copyright anywhere in the world (including all rights to renewals and extensions of copyright) in any publicity and promotional material (including any publicity stills, poster shots and trails) which is created by or on behalf of the BBC pursuant to the rights granted under this Agreement.

12.6 Radio option:
Where the Producer owns or controls the radio rights in the Format, the Producer grants the BBC the first option to commission a programme or series of programmes based on the Format for broadcast on its radio services primarily made available to audiences in the UK on terms to be agreed in good faith, such option to expire upon either (i) six (6) months from acceptance of Full Delivery; or (ii) six (6) months from first transmission by the BBC of the first episode of the Programme for Programmes commissioned other than for BBC3 or six (6) months from first exercise of the BBC Public Service Rights in the first episode of the Programme for Programmes commissioned for BBC3, whichever is the earlier.

New media rights and restrictions

12.7 The BBC hereby agrees that for Programmes commissioned other than for BBC3 in exercising the Primary New Media Rights:

12.7.1 the Streaming Rights shall only be exercised either simultaneously with any transmission of the Programme that the BBC is entitled to make under the terms of this Agreement, or as a live stream (subject only to any short delay required for compliance purposes) as appropriate; and

12.7.2 the Thirty Day New Media Rights, Primary Video on Demand Rights and packages acquired in accordance with General Term, 15.1.1(b) or General Term 15.2.5 shall only be exercisable provided that all such use will be copy protected and that an appropriate technological means is used to limit the availability of the download for the period of the BBC’s entitlement and the UK territory.

12.8 The Producer hereby agrees that:

12.8.1 it shall exercise the Commercial New Media Rights only by way of the Commercial Download Rights, the Commercial Website Rights and the Promotional Online Rights and any other exercise of the Commercial New Media Rights during the Licence Period shall require prior written consent from the BBC (not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed);
12.8.2 in relation to the Video-on-Demand Rights:

(i) Within the UK and Eire: shall not be exercised during the Licence Period without the BBC’s consent;

(ii) Outside the UK and Eire: the BBC hereby consents to the Producer exercising (or authorising the exercise of) the Video-On-Demand Rights outside the UK and Eire PROVIDED THAT in relation to any such exercise:

1. the Producer (and any appointed licensee/service provider) undertakes that the exercise of such Video-On-Demand Rights:
   (a) is subject to any appropriate technological and commercially reasonably effective means of copy protection preventing the unauthorised viewing and onward download, broadcast, transmission, retransmission and/or access to the Programme by a recipient within the UK and Eire;
   (b) shall not take place prior to either the BBC’s first television transmission of the Programme in the UK if commissioned other than for BBC3, or first exercise of the BBC Public Service Rights if commissioned for BBC3 (or six (6) months from acceptance of Full Delivery, whichever is the earlier) and accordingly other than in respect of the BBC, the Video-On-Demand Rights shall not be promoted or marketed as a “world premiere” and no marketing nor promotion of the exercise of such rights shall be specifically targeted at UK viewers;

and

2. for the avoidance of doubt, any and all exercise of such rights shall comply generally with all other applicable provisions of General Term 16.

12.9 Where it is agreed that:

12.9.1 production of the Programme requires new software coding to be built, the parties shall discuss in good faith who will undertake this work and for the avoidance of doubt:

(i) The BBC shall give the first opportunity to the Producer to undertake such work itself provided that the BBC is satisfied that the Producer is offering a solution which is:
   1. editorially appropriate,
   2. technically acceptable (including in relation to any third party platform provider),
   3. meets all the BBC’s Guidelines,
   4. is value for money (it being acknowledged that it is unlikely to be value for money to commission the build of a new application for which the BBC has already has a working solution), and that any such agreement reached shall be recorded in a separate written agreement between the parties.

(ii) Where the BBC either supplies, builds or has built any such new software coding, it agrees to discuss in good faith any request by the Producer for a non-exclusive licence to use such software coding, either:

1. where the Producer wishes to exploit the Distribution Rights and such software coding is integral to the exercise of such rights; or
2. where the BBC has elected not to exercise its rights under General Term 22 and the Producer wishes to exercise its rights under General Term 22 to produce and exploit a Further Programme for a third party; and in either case, the Producer shall agree within such non-exclusive licence to pay the BBC an appropriate licence fee or royalty to be agreed in good faith.

(iii) Where it is agreed that the Producer will supply, build or have built any such new software coding, a budget shall have been submitted to the BBC for approval as part of the commissioning process. Without prejudice to the generality of this Agreement, it is acknowledged for the avoidance of doubt that the BBC is hereby entitled to a royalty-free exclusive licence to use the software coding as necessary to enable the BBC to exercise the rights granted under this Agreement.

12.9.2 The Producer shall produce (or subcontract the production of) such software coding and such software coding is considered by the BBC to be a sufficiently important element of the Programme, the BBC reserves the right to require the Producer as a pre-condition to this Agreement to enter into an escrow agreement under the National Computing Centre standard terms requiring the Producer to make regular deposits of the source code of such software coding throughout its development and ensure that any updates and modifications are maintained throughout the Licence Period.

12.9.3 Any specific arrangements are to be undertaken in connection with any interactive element to the Programme which as a consequence will result in the generation of commercial revenue, such arrangements shall be agreed in good faith in advance between the BBC and the Producer and for the avoidance of doubt shall comply with the BBC Guidelines.

12.10 BBC Created Material: Where identified in the Special Terms, the Producer and the BBC agree that:

12.10.1 The BBC shall create certain online material for the Programme as set out in the Special Terms (“BBC Created Material”).

12.10.2 The Producer hereby grants to the BBC for the Licence Period an exclusive, royalty-free, irrevocable licence to use or incorporate the Format of the Programme within the BBC Created Material.

12.10.3 All rights, including without limitation all intellectual property rights in and to the BBC Created Material (excluding any Format of the Programme used or incorporated), and the BBC Assets (as defined in the Special Terms or documents referred therein) are expressly reserved by the BBC.

12.10.4 The Producer shall have an option to obtain a non-exclusive, worldwide (excluding the United Kingdom and Eire) licence of the BBC Created Material.
Material from the BBC, at a price and on terms to be agreed by the parties in good faith.

13. PUBLICITY / PROMOTION / MARKETING / TRAILS

Without prejudice to General Term 12:

13.1 The Producer acknowledges that any and all publicity, promotional and marketing activities and materials concerning the BBC commission and/or transmission of the Programme shall be carried out solely by or on behalf of the BBC and:

13.1.1 The BBC agrees to use reasonable endeavours to consult the Producer in relation to any material the BBC proposes to issue which makes reference to the Producer by name, provided that the Producer provides any comments to the BBC within a maximum of seven (7) days of request. The BBC agrees that if it accords credit to any performer or talent in any business-to-business publicity material that it produces, it shall also accord credit to the Producer.

13.1.2 Where the BBC creates, produces, or adapts any material relating to the Programme for promotional purposes, the BBC Editorial Representative may ask the Producer’s Nominated Representative to review such material and inform the BBC whether or not the Producer’s Nominated Representative considers in good faith that the proposed use (including timings where relevant) is (or could be) inconsistent with the BBC Guidelines or in breach of any third party contract, and in executing the BBC’s overall responsibility to finalise and comply such material, the BBC shall be entitled to rely on the response(s) or information provided by the Producer.

13.2 Without prejudice to General Term 13.1 and subject always to General Term 16.3, the Producer agrees that any promotional, publicity and marketing materials that the Producer intends to produce for its own purposes (including any trails) shall only be used in the UK in such manner as shall coordinate with and compliment any promotional strategy that the BBC may have for the Programme and for the avoidance of doubt, the Producer shall be entitled to carry out its own business-to-business promotional, publicity and marketing activities provided that such activities do not bring the BBC into disrepute. Accordingly, the Producer shall consult with the BBC in relation to any promotional initiatives that it intends to undertake in the UK and shall not carry out or authorise any activity which the BBC reasonably determines would undermine any promotional strategy that it may have for the Programme.

13.3 In the event that the Producer wishes to engage an independent public relations specialist (whether an agency or a freelance publicist), the Producer shall either:

13.3.1 consult with the BBC in relation to: (a) the appropriate choice of such independent specialist; and (b) the engagement (as opposed to commercial) terms of the Producer’s contract with them; or

13.3.2 procure that all material produced and issued by such independent specialist and its activities in general in connection with the Programme shall:

(i) comply with the BBC Guidelines;
(ii) be of first class quality;
(iii) not bring the Programme or the BBC into disrepute;
(iv) comply with the provisions of General Term 13.2 above;
and the Producer shall indemnify the BBC in relation to any breach by such independent specialist of sub-clauses (i)-(iv) above.

14. LICENSE PERIOD

14.1 Subject always to General Term 14.2, the BBC shall be entitled to extend the Licence Period for a further period of two (2) years provided that:

14.1.1 written notification is given to the Producer by the BBC Business Affairs Manager no later than six (6) months before the end of the initial Licence Period stating the BBC’s intention to extend the Licence Period for a further two (2) years; and

14.1.2 the BBC pays to the Producer an Additional Licence Fee calculated as two per cent (2%) of the Primary Rights Licence Fee on or before the last day of the initial Licence Period and paid as an advance against the sums due to the Producer under General Term 15.2 below.

14.2 For so long as the Programme is or becomes a Returning Series, the BBC may keep extending the Licence Period on a rolling two (2) year basis as set out in General Term 14.1 above, save that once the Licence Period is extended beyond the period of seven (7) years from commencement, the BBC’s holdback right under General Term 16.2.3(i) below shall be limited to the exercise of television rights by public service broadcasters.

15. PRE-PAID USES & PAYMENT FOR FURTHER USES

15.1 It is hereby agreed that payment of the Licence Fee entitles the BBC to exercise the following without further payment to the Producer (but subject to any contributor use payments that may be required as provided for in General Term 6):

15.1.1 either:

(a) any two (2) of the following packages of uses (such two (2) packages to be at the BBC’s election and which, for the avoidance of doubt, includes one free narrative transmission (meaning within seven (7) days of the original transmission of the Programme on the same or any digital BBC Channel) of the premiere BBC transmission; and could be the same package twice):

provided that if the Programme is a Regional Programme and a package listed above is used for a network transmission, the BBC shall pay the Producer the fee set out in General Term 15.2.4; and

15.1.2 unlimited use of the Programme transmitted as part of Primary School Programming and/or The Learning Zone and/or The Sign Zone; and

15.1.3 such uses on the services of S4C as may be required by the BBC insofar as the same are consistent with the permitted uses set out in S4C’s Code of Practice for Programmes Commissioned by S4C; and

15.1.4 the Primary New Media Rights; and

15.1.5 the right to use extracts of the Programme in accordance with General Term 12.3; and

15.1.6 the right to produce and distribute publicity and promotional materials as part of the Public Services Rights; and

15.1.7 unlimited use of the Programme (or parts thereof) on BBC News 24 and/or BBC Parliament; and

19. ABANDONMENT OF PRODUCTION

The BBC shall be entitled at any time after takeover of the Programme pursuant to General Term 18 to abandon the production of the Programme and if it does so the provisions of General Term 18.3.1, 18.3.2, 18.3.4, 18.3.5, 18.3.6, 18.3.7 and 18.3.8 and 18.4 shall nevertheless apply.

20. TERMINATION

20.1 The BBC shall have the right to terminate this Agreement upon giving written notice to the Producer of its election to do so if:

20.1.1 The Producer is in material breach of any of its warranties undertakings or obligations under this Agreement other than a remediable breach of which the BBC gives the Producer notice and which is corrected within seven (7) days of such notice; or

20.1.2 any Insolvency Event occurs; or

20.1.3 if the Producer ceases or threatens to cease to carry on business; or

20.1.4 a party to a Key Agreement relating to the provision of specific services in connection with the Programme shall die or be unable or unwilling to fully and properly to render or provide the specific services as required under the Key Agreement and the Producer shall be unable to procure the engagement within fourteen (14) days of a substitute party approved by the BBC (acting reasonably) provided that should the BBC subsequently wish to commission an alternative programme based on the Programme but which takes into account the unavailability of such original key services the Producer shall have the first negotiating right to produce such alternative Programme; or 20.1.5 the Producer undergoes a Change of Control which in the BBC’s reasonable opinion is demonstrably prejudicial to the BBC.

20.2 Upon termination under General Term 20.1 above and without prejudice to General Term 20.3 below, the Producer shall be released from all its obligations to the BBC under this Agreement, save for where the BBC cashflows the Licence Fee the Producer’s obligation to repay the Advances, and the BBC shall not be obliged to take delivery of the Programme or pay the Licence Fee or make any further cashflow payments under the Special Terms to the Producer.

20.3 Nothing in this General Term 20 shall be construed so as to limit or impair any other rights or remedies which the BBC may have under this Agreement or at law or in equity by reason of any breach by the Producer of any of its warranties, undertakings or obligations under this Agreement.

20A CONSEQUENCES OF BREACH OF BBC GUIDELINES

Without prejudice to the provisions of General Terms 18 and/or 20 or any other applicable rights and remedies available to the BBC under this Agreement, any breach of General Term 5.3.1 shall entitle the BBC (acting appropriately and reasonably) to require the Producer to:

(i) remove any BBC branding from any exercise of the Distribution Rights;
(ii) rectify any breaches of the BBC Guidelines in the Programme at its own cost;
(iii) discuss in good faith any variations of the terms of this Agreement proposed by the BBC in light of the circumstances of the relevant breach, to apply upon any exercise of the BBC’s option under General Term 22 provided that any such variations are reasonably proportionate; and/or
(iv) if the remedies set out in (i) and (ii) above are not achievable to the satisfaction of the BBC, not exercise or promote any of the Distribution Rights without BBC written approval (not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed, it being acknowledged that any such approval may be subject to certain conditions to reflect the nature of the breach).

21. FORCE MAJEURE

21.1 If the production of the Programme is prevented hindered or delayed by any cause not within the control of the Producer (and a strike or lock-out shall not be deemed within the control of the Producer unless in the opinion of the BBC it has been caused by some act or omission of the Producer), either party shall be entitled by written notice given to the other to suspend performance of its obligations hereunder and the parties shall consult with each other and use their best endeavours to limit and reduce expenditure on the production while the suspension continues.

21.2 Any suspension shall be effective from the date the circumstance giving rise to it first arose or occurred and during any suspension period each party shall be excluded from the performance of its obligations under this Agreement to the extent of the prevention, hindrance or delay.

21.3 If any suspension continues for more than four (4) consecutive weeks or if the aggregate of any periods of suspension is more than six (6) weeks in any period of eight (8) consecutive weeks either party shall be entitled by written notice forthwith to terminate this Agreement and such termination shall be effective from the effective date of the suspension or first suspension.
21.4 If either party terminates this Agreement pursuant to General Term 21.3, the BBC shall be entitled to take over the production of the Programme upon giving written notice to the Producer of its election to do so, provided that the BBC shall first offer the Producer the first option of producing the Programme on the terms hereunder. If the Producer does not exercise such option within a reasonable period of time, the BBC may proceed to takeover production subject to good faith negotiations with the Producer in relation to use of the Format insofar as one exists at the date of takeover, taking into account all relevant circumstances at the time. If, prior to the BBC making such election, the Producer wishes to resurrect production of the Programme, it shall notify the BBC in writing of such desire, and the BBC shall have the first option to enter into a new agreement in connection with the Programme under the same or similar terms taking into account current standard, industry terms between the parties at the relevant time.

22.1 The Producer hereby grants to the BBC the sole and exclusive option to commission the Producer to produce and deliver Further Programme(s) on the same terms as are contained in this Agreement save for any variations to the Licence Fee agreed in good faith in respect of such Further Programme.

22.2 The BBC shall notify the Producer of its intention to exercise such option (a) within nine (9) months of transmission of the last episode of the Programme if commissioned other than for BBC3, or (b) within nine (9) months of first exercise of the BBC Public Service Rights in the last episode of the Programme if commissioned for BBC3, or (c) twelve (12) months from acceptance of Full Delivery whichever is earlier (the “Option Period”).

22.3 In the event that:

22.3.1 the BBC does not notify the Producer that it wishes to exercise the said option within the Option Period; or

22.3.2 having notified the Producer of its intention to exercise the said option within the Option Period, the agreement to commission such Further Programme(s) is not concluded within (a) twelve (12) months of transmission of the last episode of the Programme if commissioned other than for BBC3, or (b) twelve (12) months of first exercise of the BBC Public Service Rights in the last episode of the Programme if commissioned for BBC3, or (c) eighteen (18) months from acceptance of Full Delivery, whichever is earlier (both parties acting reasonably and in good faith in conducting such negotiations);

then the Producer shall be entitled to produce and exploit Further Programme(s) for a third party notwithstanding and subject always to the BBC’s rights in respect of the Programme under this Agreement and any other agreement between the parties relating to the Programme and its exploitation PROVIDED THAT if either party believes that the negotiations to conclude such agreement to commission a Further Programme have not been conducted reasonably and in good faith by the other party, written notification shall be given to that other party and the BBC representative (being the BBC’s Controller of Rights, Legal & Business Affairs for the purpose of this clause) and any representative of the Producer will meet and use all reasonable endeavours to resolve the matter.
22.4 If the Programme is designed as a pilot programme and the BBC has not exercised the aforesaid option within the Option Period nor has the Programme been transmitted by the BBC on or before the first day of principal photography or recording of the first of such Further Programme(s) by a third party broadcaster then the BBC shall re-assign all the BBC’s rights in the Programme to the Producer Provided That the Producer repays the Licence Fee to the BBC and the Producer shall then be entitled to exploit the Programme in such a manner and in such media as it shall decide free of any interest of the BBC therein.

23.1 Each party shall keep any confidential information relating to the business affairs of the other party and its associated companies secure and protected against theft, damage, loss or unauthorised access. Neither party will disclose any such information to any third party other than Personnel of the recipient or the Personnel of its associated companies who need to know such information for the purposes of acting under and pursuant to this Agreement and who are made aware of and have agreed to comply with this General Term 23.1. Any disclosure of such information by the Producer to PACT is only permitted on the basis that PACT shall also comply with the provisions of this General Term 23.1. The obligations of this General Term 23.1 shall not apply to any disclosure of information which is required by law or by a competent regulatory authority (subject to General Term 23.2 below) and shall cease to apply to any information which has come into the public domain through no fault of the recipient or which was at the date of disclosure already in the public domain or the possession of the recipient or which is required to be disclosed in accordance with the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (the “FOIA”) if applicable.

23.2 If either party is required to disclose information by law or by a competent regulatory authority, the party required to make such disclosure shall give notice to the other party. The party required to make disclosure shall have the right to disclose any part of the information of the other party solely to the extent that it is legally required to do so pursuant to an order of a court of competent jurisdiction or governmental authority provided that each party shall use its reasonable endeavours to limit disclosure under this General Term 23.2 and to provide the other party with an opportunity to make representations to the relevant court or governmental authority, provided the ability to grant such opportunity is within their control.

23.3 The Producer recognises that if FOIA is applicable to this Agreement or any information relating to this Agreement the BBC may be required to release information contained in or relating to this Agreement, whether it is held by the BBC, the Producer or by another person on behalf of the BBC to enable the BBC to comply with its obligations under FOIA.

23.4 If the Producer receives a request for information under FOIA regarding any information contained in or relating to this Agreement it shall (and shall procure that any of its agents and sub-contractors) transfer to the BBC all such requests that it receives as soon as possible and in any event within five (5) Business Days of receipt. The Producer shall not respond directly to such a request for information under FOIA unless expressly authorised to do so by the BBC.

23.5 If the BBC receives a request for information under FOIA which covers any information contained in or relating to this Agreement and the BBC requires assistance in obtaining this information and/or responding to the request, the Producer shall (and shall procure that its agents and sub-contractors shall) at its own cost provide the BBC with such assistance promptly and in any event within ten (10) Business Days of receipt.

23.6 If a request for information under the FOIA is received which covers any information contained in or relating to this Agreement, the BBC shall use all reasonable endeavours to consult with the Producer in respect of the appropriate response to such a request for information. Notwithstanding the same, the BBC shall have the sole responsibility for determining:

23.6.1 whether the information is exempt from disclosure under FOIA; and/or 23.6.2 what information shall be disclosed in response to a request for information under FOIA.

25.6 No waiver by either party of a breach or a default hereunder shall be effective unless in writing and signed by both parties and no such waiver shall be deemed to be a waiver of any subsequent breach or default of the same or similar nature. No failure or delay by either party in exercising any rights, power or privilege under this Agreement shall operate as a waiver thereof nor shall any single or partial exercise by any party of any right, power or privilege preclude any further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, power or privilege.

provided that the right to issue proceedings is not prejudiced by a delay and that nothing in this General Term 25.9 shall affect a party’s right to apply to the English courts to seek injunctive or declaratory relief or an order for delivery up.

Governing Law

25.10 This Agreement shall be interpreted in accordance with the laws of England and Wales and any dispute or other matter arising hereunder shall be subject (and the parties hereby submit) to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English Courts.

For the avoidance of doubt, BBC consent shall not be required in connection with the sub-licensing of the Distribution Rights in accordance with General Term 16.

25.18 If any provision of this Agreement is declared by any judicial or other competent authority to be void, voidable, illegal or otherwise unenforceable then the remaining provisions of this Agreement shall continue in full force and effect. The judicial or other competent authority making such determination shall have the power to limit, construe or reduce the duration, scope, activity and/or area of such provision and/or delete specific words or phrases as necessary to render such provision enforceable.

25.19 Authority to bind
