

Take an English class on enough/ not enough/just enough/more than enough with Sarah

Now let's practise what you learned in the lesson!

Exercise 1

Describe the situations in the sentences using enough, not enough, just enough or more than enough. You have the start of each sentence to help you. Sometimes more than one answer is possible. Remember you can watch the video again if you need a reminder of the rules! 😊

Example:

- 0) There are ten children, and twelve pencils.
There are more than enough pencils.

- 1) There are five office workers, and five chairs.
There are...
- 2) David goes to the gym once a year.
David...
- 3) There is one child, and two tubs of ice cream.
There is...
- 4) I only got three hours of sleep last night.
I didn't...
- 5) The bus stop is five minutes' away, and there is a bus leaving in ten minutes.
There's...
- 6) There are four bedrooms in a house, and five students sharing the house.
There aren't...

- 7) There are four boxes of paints, and four art students.
There are...

Well done! Now you can check your answers at the bottom of the next page.

Exercise 2: Writing and Speaking Practice

Write a paragraph below of 5-6 sentences to describe the clothes in your wardrobe at the moment. Use at least five examples of enough and its variants in your paragraph. What do you wear the most and least? Do you need more of anything in your wardrobe? Compare your paragraph with a friend. Do you have similar styles and attitudes towards what you wear?

Example sentences: I have more than enough nice summer dresses in my wardrobe, but I don't get to wear them enough because it rains a lot where I live. I don't have enough socks and I plan to buy more soon.
