Language quiz
Choose the correct word from the brackets to complete the sentences.

Example
You (ought/must) to buy a dictionary.

1. To be healthier, you (should/have better) do more exercise.

2. You (should/ought) to listen to other people’s advice.

3. You (must/have) to arrive on time.

4. Businesses (need/should) to respect their staff.

5. I’ve never been there before – I (had/have) better buy a map.

6. You really (need/must) see this film – it’s amazing!

Well done! Now you can check your answers at the bottom of the next page.
Speaking and Writing practice

Writing
Choose a problem that you would like to solve. It could be from this list or you could pick something else that is important to you.

- You want to find a new job.
- You want to learn a new language.
- You want to move to a different country.
- You want to make new friends.
- You want to be healthier.

Write a paragraph saying how you could make this happen. Use modals of advice and obligation in your sentences.

Example
I want to move to a new country. I need to learn the language that they speak there. I ought to see what jobs I could do there. I should speak to someone who has been there before.

Speaking practice
Work with a friend, choose a situation from the list, or one that is important to you, and tell each other how you could make this happen, using modals of advice and obligation.

Answers to exercise on page 1
1. To be healthier, you should do more exercise.
2. You ought to listen to other people’s advice.
3. You have to arrive on time.
4. Businesses need to respect their staff.
5. I’ve never been there before – I had better buy a map.
6. You really must see this film – it’s amazing!