The class
You can find this class and all our other English classes on our Facebook page.

Language quiz
Now let's practise what you learned in the lesson! Can you fill in the gaps in these sentences with the missing word to complete the idiom?

Example
Watch my live video this afternoon to hear me spill the ______ on everything that happened at the party last night!

Answer
Watch my live video this afternoon to hear me spill the tea/beans on everything that happened at the party last night!

1. I'm completely ______ under at work. I have over 100 emails to reply to.

2. I can't remember his name, but it's on the tip of my ______. I think it begins with P.

3. I need to get up early in the morning, so I'd better hit the ______ now.

4. Well, to make a long ______ short, I had a bit of an accident, but I'm fine now.

5. I've learnt my lines off by ______, but I'm sure I'll still forget something once I'm up on stage.

Well done! Now you can check your answers at the bottom of the next page.
Speaking and writing practice

Now it’s time to practise your writing. Look at the questions below and make notes on your answers.

What things do you know off by heart?
When was the last time you were snowed under with work?
What time do you normally hit the sack?
Who do you like to spill the tea with? What kind of things do you talk about?
What kind of words do you forget, but they are on the tip of your tongue?

Find a friend and share your answers together. Remember to ask follow-up questions. 😊

Answers to exercise on page 1

1. I’m completely snowed under at work. I have over 100 emails to reply to.
2. I can’t remember his name, but it’s on the tip of my tongue. I think it begins with P.
3. I need to get up early in the morning, so I’d better hit the sack (also hay) now.
4. Well, to make a long story short, I had a bit of an accident, but I’m fine now.
5. I’ve learnt my lines off by heart, but I’m sure I’ll still forget something once I’m up on stage.