Take an English Class
Words with every-, some-, any- and no-

The class
You can find this class and all our other English classes on our Facebook page.

Language quiz
Now let’s practise what you learned in this lesson!

Choose the correct word from the brackets to complete the sentences.

Here’s an example: I need to find (something/anything) that looks good for the party.

1. I put my phone here, but now there's (something/nothing) there – (anyone/someone) must have taken it.

2. I need (someone/anyone) to help me. I don't mind who – it could be (everyone/anyone).

3. There's (anything/nothing) I like. I can't eat (anything/nothing) with nuts in.

4. I've seen (everything/something) that's on at the cinema. There's (anything/nothing) left to watch!

5. I think we should go (nowhere/somewhere) new, but there's (somewhere/nowhere) I can think of.

6. Is there anyone/everyone who could do that job? Well, it's not for everyone/anyone but I know (someone/no one) who'd be good.

Well done! Now you can check your answers at the bottom of the next page.
Speaking and writing practice
Write, or tell someone your answers to these questions:

- Are you a picky eater?
- Can you eat anything?
- Is there anything that you can’t stand?
- Do you ever find there is nothing you want to eat?

- Do you like to travel?
- Do you feel like you’ve been everywhere?
- Is there anywhere you’d really like to go?
- Where is somewhere you really want to go?

- Do you think anyone is exactly like you?
- Is there something about you, that is the same for everyone?
- Is there something you have, that no one else has?

Here’s an example:

I’m not a picky eater, I can eat anything! There’s nothing I can’t stand. That means that I only find there is nothing I want to eat when I don’t go to the shops!

Answers to exercise on page 1
1. I put my phone here, but now there's nothing there - someone must have taken it.
2. I need someone to help me. I don't mind who – it could be anyone.
3. There's nothing I like. I can't eat anything with nuts in.
4. I've seen everything that's on at the cinema. There's nothing left to watch!
5. I think we should go somewhere new, but there's nowhere I can think of.
6. Is there anyone who could do that job? Well, it's not for everyone, but I know someone who'd be good.