The class
You can find this class and all our other English classes on our Facebook page.

Language quiz
Try replacing the words in bold with the phrasal verbs in the box below. Make sure you change the form to fit the sentence!

Example
I ended my relationship with my boyfriend.

Answer
I broke up with my boyfriend.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>break-up</th>
<th>make up</th>
<th>fall out</th>
<th>get on</th>
<th>settle down</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>ask out</td>
<td>work out</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

1. I had an argument with my flatmate so we’re not talking to each other.
2. My brother and I don’t have a good relationship.
3. Are things going OK with you and your girlfriend?
4. We’ve been together now for almost five years, so we’re thinking of buying a house together and living a quieter life.
5. I might ask her to go on a date with me.
6. We had a pretty bad argument, but fortunately, we became friends again.

Well done! Now you can check your answers at the bottom of the next page.
Writing practice

Write five example sentences with the phrasal verbs from this lesson.

1.

2.

3.

4.

5.

Example
I get on really well with my mum and dad.

Example answers to exercise on page 1

1. I fell out with my flatmate so we’re not talking to each other.

2. My brother and I don’t get on.

3. Are things working out with you and your girlfriend?

4. We’ve been together now for almost five years, so we’re thinking of settling down.

5. I might ask her out.

6. We had a pretty bad argument, but fortunately, we made up.